the plaintiff.

Huston township was awarded a verdict of $950 against the Pennsylvania Railroad Company on Wednesday morning. The railroad company, when it improved its line built an embankment in front of the school house east of the village of Julian, raising both the railroad bed and the public road at that point. The directors claimed damage had been done to the school district because approach to the school house had been made dangerous, and the jury believed them.

Bellefonte borough got a verdict of $565 against Louisa G. Harper, guardian of Maud S. Harper. The claim was for maintaining the latter.

Lena Pardo got a verdict for $192 against executors of Israel Kauffman.
The woman had kept house for Mr.
Kauffman just prior to his death, and claimed there was a balance due on a contract of $1.50 per week.

Howard Rider of Howard plead guilty to the charge of forgery. Donald Potter was the prosecutor. A noipro was entered as to John L. Whiteman, who was connected with the case.

Fire at State College, Tuesday.

A large stable on the lot of W. C.
Meyer at 300 Pugh street, State College, was totally destroyed by fire on Tuesday afternoon, together with a new Pilot runabout automobile of the latest design. The fire started when Marion, a son of Mr. Meyer, was in the act of filling the gasoline tank.
In some mysterious manner the can from which he was pouring the fluid became suddenly ignited and the flames in an instant enveloped the car and spread to the floor and rapidly consumed the stable. The young man escaped all physical injury to himself.
A large seven-passenger Pilot car, also the property of Mr. Meyer, was standing in the alley close to the stable and was badly scorched before it was removed. The loss on the stable is covered by $400 insurance, but the loss on the automobile is complete.

Gathering of "Three Score Years and Ten"

Cyrus Durst, the oldest man in years but not in spirit in Boalsburg, celebrated his birthday Wednesday of last week, the Reporter's Boalsburg correspondent reports. His daughter, Mrs.
S. J. Wagner, invited a number of his associates to spend the afternoon with him at his home. The occasion was one long to be remembered. Following are the names of those present together with their ages: Cyrus Durst, 87; J. H. Meyer, 84; Alexander Kuhn, 79; Joseph Hettinger, 78; Adam Felty, 78; John Hook, 77; W. A. Murray, 76; George Kaup, 73. Ralph Rishel photographed the good looking "boys."

Blue Rock Shoot.

The Colyer "Sharp Shooters" will hold a blue rock shoot, nearby Meissstore, Colyer, on Christmas day.
Everybody is invited to come and compete for honors.

The family of B. F. Rickert of near Spring Mills has been sorely afflicted, at one time there having been five members of it ill. At present a son, Leo, who had been employed at the Mill Hall condensary, is ill with pneumonia, and a daughter is suffering from rheumatism.

REBERSBURG

The stores are this week putting on their Christmas attire.
Mr. and Mrs. Bloom Brungart of Illinois are circulating among friends in this valley.

Mrs. Annie Kaler of Mill Hall spent the past week visiting relatives in this vicinity.
Mrs. Boon and children of South Dakota are guests at the home of Mrs.
Charles Bierly. Mrs. Bierly is Mrs.
Boon's mother-in-law.

Jacob Smull, formerly of this place, but now residing in Illinois, is visiting relatives in this vicinity.
Mrs. Elmer Miller is at toyestown where she is visiting her daughter, Mrs. John Weizer.

Quite a number of fruit trees were damaged the past week by the heavy ice and snow which accumulated on them.
Preston Syler, who last Saturday had sale of some of his household goods, left on Monday with his family for Phoenixville where he will work on a dairy farm.

John B. Stouer, who farms the Walker farm, will next spring make sale of his farm stock and implement and move to near Philadelphia where he will be employed on a stock farm.
Charles Gephart, who left this place last spring for Sugar Grove, Illinois, where he worked on a farm, returned this week and will spend the winter months under the parental roof.

William Greninger, an aged citizen of Sugar Valley, is lying critically ill at the home of Harvey Limbert, with no hopes of recovery. Mr. Greninger is Mrs. Limbert's father.

Last Saturday evening our townsman, George B. Haines, received a dispatch from Buffalo, N. Y., announcing the sudden death, by heart failure, of his son, Charles. Two brothers of the deceased, Claud and William, left at once for Buffalo and had the corpse shipped to Coburn, arriving at this place on Wednesday in the Union cemetery at this place.

The oil prospectors have quit drilling for a few days in order to make some needed repairs. They have so far probed mother earth a distance of 500 feet. The past week they had two car loads of soft coal hauled to their place of operations which goes to show that they mean business, although they have so far met with a great many obstructions in the way of breaking drills, tubes, etc. They do not seem to be discouraged in the least but pound away for all that it is worth.

BOALSBURG

Edwin Repp of Altoona made a short visit to his parents last week.
Edward Hunter of Altoona visited with relatives at Boalsburg last week.
One of T. D. Roal's mated driving horses died on Saturday night.

We are having cold weather this week; plenty of snow and drifts.
Quite a number of water pipes were frozen on Tuesday morning.
Sunday was a very snowy day.
Keen disappointment was felt in the evening because of the fact that the College boys did not get here to give their temperance addresses and songs.

Mrs. Margaret Riley attended the funeral of her brother's wife, Mrs.
Robert Sechler, last Wednesday. She remained with the family for several days.
John Hook, with his daughter, Mrs. Nannie Coxey, P. S. Isbler and Edward Riley, Monday of last week helped William McClintock at Walnut Grove at butchering. He killed three hogs which weighed 470, 460 and 401 lbs.

Miss Hazel Duck of Williamsport, Miss Stella Raymond, Roy Cather-man and Samuel Ross of Linden Hall, spent Sunday evening at the home of Charles Johnsonbaugh. Mr. Catherman can give an explanation of their trip home.

CHRISTMAS SERVICES

On Christmas eve in the Reformed church, at 7:30 a complete service for Christmas entitled "His Natal Day," including the great chime song.

On Christmas evening, at 7:30, in the Lutheran church, "The Christmas Tree's Complaint," a little cantata for little people.

Card of Thanks.

The relatives of Miss Annie Bible take this means to return thanks to all kind friends and neighbors who so tenderly cared for her during her illness and extended help at the time of her death.

Przemysl: Bretzel.

The Harrisburg Patriot remarks that every time the Germans or Russians get a chance, they rename a town. Hope some other country soon gets Przemysl. Bretzel might be an improvement.

Four Below Zero.

With still four days to go on until the official winter season is here, a touch of the real mid-winter article was felt Tuesday morning when the thermometer registered four degrees below the zero mark. The day remained cold throughout, mercury rising only to five degrees above zero. The ground was well covered with snow, a fall of seven and one-half inches having occurred Sunday night, affording a good protection to wheat fields. A high wind early Monday morning blew the loose snow into huge drifts in the cross roads and made passage almost impossible. Yee, winter is here.

Spring Mills.

Mrs. Dancy Beaton has been seriously ill but is improving a little at present.
Mrs. Ray Allison of Howard spent Sunday with H. M. Allison and other relatives.

Rufus R. Finkle is spending some time at home with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Finkle.

R. G. Kennelly, who was employed at Snow Shoe during the summer, is at home at present.

James Condo of Penn Hall is helping Samuel Stitzer in the blacksmith shop during the busy season.

"The Minister's Honeymoon" rendered by Millheim home talent in the Grange Hall on Saturday evening, was enjoyed by a full house. It was just what it claimed to be—a nice clean play that deserves patronage wherever it is produced.

Colyer.

Before the snow fell some of the farmers in this neighborhood had all their plowing done for spring crops.

Rev. Bierly started a revival meeting in the old church at Zion.
Mr. and Mrs. Robert Reitz and little son Henry were visitors at the home of Peter Jordan, one day last week.
Miss Grace Neff and brother Homer paid a short visit to their sister Miss Mary at the Peter Jordan home.
The Sunday-school of the U. E. church is preparing to hold a Christmas service on Christmas evening.
Miss Helen Bodorf is spending some time here with her many friends.
