Homan-Byers.

David J. Homan and Miss Emma Byers were united in marriage at Freeport, Illinois, last Thursday by the Rev. P. H. R. McAllen. The young couple will be at home for March 1st on the farm Mr. Byers, father of the bride, recently purchased from the Keegan Brothers.

The above notice appeared in the Orangeville (Illinois) Courier, date of December 17th. Mr. Homan is a native of Oak Hall Station and a son of Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Homan. About three years ago he left for Illinois and his many friends here will read with interest this brief account of the very important event in his life.

New Building at State College Burned.

Friday morning, about eleven o'clock, a new dwelling house in the course of construction on the Lytle Addition, south of State College, was completely destroyed by fire. The building operations had advanced so far that the plasterers were at work in the house and the supposition is that the blaze started from a spark that came from the fire the plasterers had kindled to heat their plaster. The building was owned by a Mr. Harpster.

License Remonstrances Filed.

Saturday was license court, but nothing further was done except to receive the official applications for licenses and the remonstrances against the same. Remonstrances were filed against granting all the licenses applied for in Bellefonte, Philipsburg and Centre Hall. Attorney J. K. Johnston represents all the remonstrants. The court asked that the argument be presented in writing, and this will be done.

Whiteman Bought Home.

A few weeks ago J. W. Whiteman sold his home on Main street to the executors of Dr. George Lee, the same to be occupied by Miss McKinney, and last week he purchased a house and lot on Hoffer street from John D. Lucas. The property, since vacated by Mr. Lucas, has been tenanted by Kryder Frank.
