LOCALS

Get a six.

The auditors' statement for Potter township appears in this issue.

Earl Lambert of State College visited among friends for a week.

Farmers who are hauling their wheat now are receiving $1.25 per bushel.

Mr. and Mrs. George Nearhood of State College spent a few days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Runkle.

The Snyder County News makes mention of the closing of a successful revival held at Mount Pleasant, Snyder county, by Rev. George Colledge.

The Christmas services held in the Lutheran church on Christmas evening and in the Methodist church the Sunday evening after Christmas were well rendered and largely attended.

Mrs. M. A. Besrick and daughter, Miss Savilla Besrick, are at Dewart, guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sheffer, the ice cream manufacturer. Before returning they will also visit at Jersey Shore.

A Farmers Mills youth paid out about eleven dollars in hard cash for using his flats too freely upon his rival for a young lady's love. The little affair was settled in Squire Brungart's office Monday evening of last week.

A big doe was found in a dying condition one day last week by game warden W. C. Kerstetter, at Coburn.
The deer was run down by dogs and was at the point of death when found by the game warden. It was sent to the Bellefonte hospital.

The Presbyterians' annual congregational social was held at the home of Miss Grace Smith, Tuesday night of last week, instead of at the Presbyterian Manse, as is customary, owing to the illness of Rev. Schuyler at that time. A large number attended the function.

A. C. Ripka of Centre Hill advertises sale of his farm stock and implements for March 23. Mr. Ripka will be succeeded on the homestead by his son, B. W. Ripka, and the senior Mr. Ripka is contemplating the purchase of a property in Centre Hall for his future residence.

Victor Jones returned to resume his studies in the theological seminary, Lancaster, on Monday. Sunday he filled the pulpit in the Reformed church at Spring Mills, which is in his father's charge, it being his initial effort in that capacity. The congregation was well pleased with the young student's sermon.

Miss Sarah Neff entertained a number of her former school chums at her home Tuesday night of last week.
Delicious refreshments were served.
Those present were: Misses Cora Luse, Isabel Rowe, Ruth Smith, Laura Mitterling; Messrs. William Reish, James Lingle, Ray Durst, William Bradford, Henry Mitterling, and William Luse.

The P. R. R. is filling in that portion of space between the Colyer property and their railroad tracks with cinder, preparatory to laying a brick walk which will be done in the spring.
Steps are necessary to reach the track level from the walk. This piece of work will be appreciated by a goodly number of residents at that end of town and will save many many unnecessary steps.

A terrible coasting accident occurred in Lock Haven Saturday night when Charles McDonald, a lad of fifteen, was struck by a "bob" carrying a load of sixteen adult persons. The big sled was running at its highest speed when it struck the boy who had started on his way home after coasting on the hill with his own sled.
Both knees were crushed and shattered and it is likely that he will be maimed for life. The sled was torn from his limbs as a result of being dragged for half a square by the big coaster. The occupants of the sled were also badly bruised when it upset after striking the boy.

Feed the Wild Turkeys.

The result of the closed season of two years on wild turkeys in Pennsylvania is that there is again a large number of these grand birds in the mountains, but if the man who considers it sport to hunt them wants this condition to continue he must help the poor birds over this period of hardship. The present winter, which is only at its start, has been hard on the turkeys owing to the hard crust on the snow which has made it impossible for the birds to break through and find berries and green leaves.
Buds have been their only means of sustenance but are not sufficient.
Last week Mrs. George Heckman, east of Centre Hall, counted twenty-two wild turkeys in her orchard which had come down from the mountain to feed on the frozen apples. They were quite tame and showed the effects of the hard winter. About the same time Harvey Mark who lives further out in the valley and at a much greater distance from the natural habitat of the turkey, counted ten birds near his farm buildings. They were first seen by Al Krape who was walking the road near that place. The flock were much in need of feed and lingered about the premises until dark.

It is likely that when the legislature meets this year wild turkeys will again be declared legal game that may be killed in season, but unless they are given some attention now their number will be greatly reduced through starvation.

Over 100 at Birthday Party.

Monday evening of last week over a hundred friends and neighbors of William F. Fetterolf gathered at his home east of Centre Hall, to participate in the celebration of his forty-second birthday anniversary. A most enjoyable evening was spent by the big throng which literally shook the big farm house while engaged in merrymaking. Those present were:
Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Dutton, Anna Mary, Roy, John and Claude Dutton; Mr. and Mrs.
Meeker Maude, Bell, Ellen, Bruce, Robert and John Meeker; Mr. and Mrs. George Heckman and daughters Fernie and Vera; Mr. and Mrs.
Gardner Grove; Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Homan, son, Travis and daughter Mary; Mr. and Mrs.
Homan, sons Edward, Ralph and Ernest; Mr. and Mrs. Fred Carter; Mr. and Mrs. John Luse, daughter Edna; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Strover;

Brooks, Anna Maria Houser, Sophrona Fye, Edith Stover, Mary Durst, Mr. and Mrs. James Fetterolf, son Paul; Mrs. Catherine Fetterolf, son Frank; Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Laird, sons Myron, Russell and Orlean; Mr. and Mrs. Henry Homan, sons and Warren; Mr. and Mrs. Harry Fye, daughter Grace; Mr. and Mrs. John Heckman; Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Walker, son Russell; Mr. and Mrs. Harry McCasaban, daughters Ebel, Margaret and Dorothy; Mr. and Mrs. D. F.
Smith; Mr. and Mrs. John Homan; Cora Balf, Bertha Snyder, Yerna Weaver, Elizabeth Bibe, Charles Durst, Grover Weaver, Daniel Bloom, Ralph Luse, Roy Fye, Ralph Emerick and Willa Weaver.

Party for Young Lady.

Miss Sarah McCasaban gave a birthday party in honor of her twelve year-old niece, Adaline McCasaban, to a number of the young lady's friends, Monday evening. Refreshments were served and the young folks enjoyed themselves with all the joy that care-free children can realize.
Those present were: Gladys Jones, Carrie Mitterling, Margaret Emery, Catherine and Dorothy Ruble, Ruth and Esther Parson, Rebecca Kreamer, Miriam Huyett, Beatrice Kreamer, Anna Garie, Grace Fye, Elizabeth Sweetwood, Catherine Bradford, Shannon Booser, Harold Keller, Ralph Henny and Lynn Bitner.

A Pleasant Surprise for Pastor.

The Lutheran congregation at Pleasant Gap gave their pastor, Rev.
J. L. Stonecypher, and family, a very pleasant New Year surprise by sending to the parsonage at Boalsburg a large sled loaded with corn and oats for the stable and a liberal supply of potatoes, groceries, and an abundance of other provisions for the larder.
This tangible expression of their good will and best wishes for 1915 is most highly appreciated. It is not the first time these good people have visited the parsonage in this way.

Senator Hall Dead.

J. K. P. Hall of Elk county died in Florida. He at one time represented this district in congress and later his district in the state senate. He was a prominent figure at Democratic state conventions, and had a strong hand in the selection of candidates up to and including the famous Allentown convention. Mr. Hall was wealthy, Judge Alvin Hall of the Elk-Clinton judicial district is a brother.

Decker-Corman.

At the Methodist parsonage in Spring Mills on Christmas evening, Dolan Decker and Miss Marian Corman, both of Spring Mills, were united in marriage by Rev. W. H. Williams.
The groom owns a farm in Georges Valley near Locust Grove and the newlyweds will begin housekeeping there in the spring.

Shook-Corman.

J. Gross Shook and Miss Cora M.
Corman, both of Gregg township, were married by Rev. W. Doust at the Reformed parsonage in Aaronsburg, Tuesday evening. They immediately started on a wedding trip to various parts of Virginia.

Shoop-Bron.

On December 24, at the Reformed parsonage, Boalsburg, by Rev. E. C.
Stover, Alfred C. Shoop of Bellefonte and Miss Katie D. Bron of State College were united in the bonds of matrimony.

High School Teachers' association held at Harrisburg last week. On New Year day she visited at Danville with Charles E. Fisher and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank McFarlane, Dr. and Mrs. L. L. Kidder, Mrs. George Boal and Mrs. E. E. Brown were guests at the twenty-fifth anniversary (silver) wedding of Dr. and Mrs. Edwin Erie Sparks. The reception was given at the University Club, State College, on New Year evening.

On New Year evening the ladies' civic club held their annual meeting at the home of Miss Anna Dale, when an election of officers was held. All business matters were satisfactorily attended to and current events were discussed. Next evening of 1915 will be held in pleasant remembrance by all who were present.

The last evening of the old year was spent in a very joyous way when about forty friends and acquaintances of Mrs.
George Mothersbaugh from Boalsburg and Linden Hall assembled at her home in honor of her birthday. Another birthday celebration was on Saturday evening at the home of Mrs. Amos Koch, when a number of her lady friends expressed their kindly greeting and best wishes for another happy year.

LIKE FINDING MONEY.

B. F. Boon & Co. Offer Popular Medicines at Half-Price.

B. F. Boon & Co., the popular druggists are making an offer that is just like finding money for they are selling a regular 50 cent bottle of Dr. Howard's celebrated specific for the cure of constipation and dyspepsia at half price. In addition to this large discount they agree to return the money to any purchaser whom the specific does not cure.

It is quite unusual to be able to buy fifty cent pieces for a quarter, but that is what this offer really means, for it is only recently through the sollicitation of Druggists B. F. Boon & Co. that this medicine could be bought for less than fifty cents. They urged the proprietors to allow them to sell it at this reduced price for a little while, agreeing to sell a certain amount.
The result has justified their good judgment for the sale has been something remarkable.

Anyone who suffers with headache, dyspepsia, dizziness, sour stomach, speaks before the eyes, or any liver trouble, should take advantage of this opportunity, for Dr. Howard's specific will cure all these troubles. But if by any chance it should not, B. F.
Boon & Co. will return your money.
