Before leaving the city Mr. McCool and Mr. Brungart expect to see the auto show, hear "Billy" Sunday, and see a lot of other sights in that great city.

In another column is published a list of new books placed in the Grange library for the free use of the public. The Library Commission has forwarded an unusually excellent lot of reading matter this time, the subjects covering a wide range of literature. The public in the past has not been eager to grasp the opportunity of deriving the benefits from a free library and the State Library Commission has expressed surprise at the small number who enroll in a town the size of Centre Hall.

Boy Killed at Welkert.

Clarence Jolly, a youth of thirteen years, met with a most terrible accident, Saturday of last week, which proved fatal in a short time. The lad is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Jolly, living at Welkert, a small settlement below Coburn, and was engaged in setting traps for muskrats along Penns Creek, on which he received good prices for the furs, and in the act of going to these traps met with an accident that caused his death.

It appears that the young man on this trip took with him his father's shotgun, and in coming to a small embankment laid it down on a large stone, so he could climb to it, and in doing so it was accidentally discharged, the full load striking him in the right leg, just below the knee, shattering both bones in the leg, and tearing away the greater part of the muscles, leaving a large open wound which bled profusely.

Crawling on his hands and knees he approached his home, calling for his little sister who responded and with the aid of her small sled took him home. An operation was necessary and he was taken to the Stedley hospital where his leg was amputated but without avail, the boy dying in a few hours.

Good Times in Johnstown.

A portion of a letter received from M. L. Smith of Johnstown, dealer in general supplies for household use, is here reprinted. It assures the readers that Johnstown is coming to its own. Mr. Smith says:

Again we have had to change the year mark from '14 to '15, which reminds me that it is time to advance my subscription to the Reporter, a paper, among the many that I get, that is carefully read. All other papers and periodicals are pushed aside when the Reporter comes, and for a few hours I am right back to where I belong—Penns Valley—in mind and heart; it is still home sweet home to me and while I live it will be so.

Business is now coming into Johnstown in the way of Big Orders and a year of Big Business for this centre is now assured.

Hunker-Barger.

The following is taken from the Tiffin (Ohio) Tribune, and one of the parties referred to is the daughter of a former resident of Gregg township. The article is complete in itself as reprinted:

"The wedding of Clarence M. Hunker, of Scipio township, and Miss Sara A. Barger of Tiffin, took place at four o'clock, Thursday afternoon, at the parsonage of St. Paul's Methodist Episcopal church. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Charles W. Kennedy and the bridal couple was attended by Miss Leila M. Hunker, of Scipio township, and B. Howard Powell, of Republic. A wedding dinner was enjoyed at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Barger, 331 East Perry street, Tiffin, after the ceremony. They will make their home on a farm near this city."

Temple Officers Installed.

The Spring Mills Temple, K. G. E., on Tuesday evening installed the officers of Central Queen Temple, Centre Hall. After the installation ceremonies the evening was devoted to social features, among these being the serving of elaborate refreshments. These were present in a goodly number, and were as follows: Mrs. Nancy Helms, Mrs. G. C. King, Mrs. Bryan, Mrs. W. M. Grove, Mrs. Windom Gramley, Mrs. Duck, Mrs. David McCool, Mrs. Wm. Smith, Mrs. Philip Helms, Misses Mable Brown, Katie McCool, and Lillie Right.

LIKE FINDING MONEY.

B. F. Boon & Co. Offer Popular Medicine at Half-Price.

B. F. Boon & Co., the popular druggists are making an offer that is just like finding money for they are selling a regular 50 cent bottle of Dr. Howard's celebrated specific for the cure of constipation and dyspepsia at half price. In addition to this large discount they agree to return the money to any purchaser whom the specific does not cure.

It is quite unusual to be able to buy fifty cent pieces for a quarter, but that is what this offer really means, for it is only recently through the solicitation of Druggists B. F. Boon & Co. that this medicine could be bought for less than fifty cents. They urged the proprietors to allow them to sell it at this reduced price for a little while, agreeing to sell a certain amount.

The result has justified their good judgment for the sale has been something remarkable.

Anyone who suffers with headache, dyspepsia, dizziness, sour stomach, specks before the eyes, or any liver trouble should take advantage of this opportunity, for Dr. Howard's specific will cure all these troubles. But if by any chance it should not, B. F. Boon & Co. will return your money.
