Harvey Miller was the son of Elias Miller. Although a resident of Miles township for nearly the whole of his life, he was born in Ferguson township, he having gone to Brush Valley early in his life with his parents. Mr. and Mrs. Miller began married life at the lower and of Penns Valley Narrows, in Union county, where they kept the hotel, and will be recalled by those who traveled between Centre and Union counties over the Narrows road in the latter sixties. Later the couple began farming near Madisonburg which occupation they followed until about a year sgo when they moved to Madisonburg, the place of their death. Mr. Miller was the last survivor of the family of three sons, Franklin and Gideon having died, but there survives a half sister, Ancenetta, the wife of Thomas C. Bartges, who lives at Cloverdale, near Centre Hall. His age was seventy-two years, two months and seventeen days.

Mr. and Mrs. Miller will be remembered as having lived honest and upright lives, successful in farming, and having aided in building up the community in which they lived.
