Return of Walnut.
The wood of our fathers, the good old "black walnut" that was reckoned the supreme cabinet material of 50 years ago, has come back. True, they call it "American walnut" now, and give it a shiny finish and try to hide the deep, purplish brown which is the true glory of the stuff; but it is the same old mood in spite of all. May it soon get back its ancient name and more than its ancient popularity.

Solved.
"Professor Grouch has at last solved the problem of abolishing distress in the world."
"What's his scheme?"
"To starve the poor off the face of the earth."

You never miss the water until the courts get hold of the stock and squeeze it out.

Trouble is a sprinter. If you don't believe it, see how he overtakes those who travel at the fastest clip.

It isn't every man who can keep his end up when he can see his finish.

A Stitch in Time

Colds, fevers and germ diseases are pretty sure to overwork the kidneys and leave them weak. In consequence, in fact, at any time when suspicion is aroused by a lame, aching back, rheumatic pains, headache, dizziness or disordered urine, the use of Doan's Kidney Pills is a stitch in time that may avoid serious kidney trouble or generally successful.

A Virginia Case
"My health was all run down from kidney trouble and I was in bed most of the time. When I did get up, I had to hobble around with canes. The pain in my back was awful and the kidney secretions caused too frequently. I was driven almost frantic and morphine was my only relief. Finally I used Doan's Kidney Pills and I passed thirty-six gravel stones. From then on, I rapidly got better until I was cured. I am now in the best of health."

WRONG VIEWS OF MARRIAGE

Brooklyn Lawyer Tells of Some Popular Impressions That Are Entirely Erroneous.

Some persons believe, says Mr. Hugo Hirsch of the Brooklyn bar, in Case and Comment, that marriage can be entered into by any man or woman, regardless of age, race, relationship, or condition. But in this they are mistaken, for every state has its own peculiar laws regarding, limiting, and circumscribing entrance into this relationship as the same may be affected by those provisions.

Some persons believe that fraud, force, duress, coercion, need for the purpose of bringing about marriage between man and woman, do not affect the legality of the relationship, but in this they are mistaken, because every state and territory has a law providing for the annulment of marriages caused by fraud, force, etc.

Some men believe that wives are chattels and may be beaten into submission. This is a grave error, for in many of the states such conduct is cause for an absolute divorce, and in nearly all of the states it is cause for a legal separation.

GRANDMA USED SAGE TEA TO DARKEN HER GRAY HAIR

She Made Up a Mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur to Bring Back Color, Gloss, Thickness.

Almost everyone knows that Sage Tea and Sulphur, properly compounded, brings back the natural color and lustre to the hair when faded, streaked or gray; also ends dandruff, itching scalp and stops falling hair. Years ago the only way to get this mixture was to make it at home, which is messy and troublesome. Nowadays, by asking at any store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy," you will get a large bottle of the famous old recipe for about 50 cents.

Don't stay gray! Try it! No one can possibly tell that you darkened your hair, as it does it so naturally and evenly. You dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time, by morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, thick and glossy.—Adv.

The Conqueror's Return.

Mr. Moutatt, born tired, also father of a large family, spent most of his married life in bed, while Mrs. Moutatt worked in the glass factory, just to keep things moving. One morning Mr. Moutatt became impregnated with the large idea of getting out of bed at last, and offering his services to his country. On calling at Mrs. Moutatt's one day last week, a lady found her in tears.

"Why, Mrs. Moutatt, what is the matter? Has your husband been wounded?"

"No, miss. (Loud sniffles.)
"Well, dear me! I hope he has not been killed!"
"Oh, it's worse than that, miss! 'E's coming 'ome!'"—Judge.

WANTED A PERMANENT BOND

Mite of Seven Years Had Worked Out Solution of Problem to His Satisfaction.

He is the merest mite, only seven, and his widowed mother was married the other day for the second time to "daddy"—a really very nice person who had long been fast friends with the stepson-elect and had no idea of being an interloper.

"There are problems to be figured out—even when you are only seven.
"Mother," asked the mite, "who are you going to marry when daddy dies?"
"Why, my dear," she replied, "what a curious question."
"Well," responded the mite, "when father died you married daddy—and now, when daddy dies, I know just who I want you to marry."
"Why, my little son!" exclaimed the perplexed mother. "You shouldn't speak like that. Daddy isn't going to die."
"Yes, mother, I know, but he might die. Then, if he ever does, mother, I want you to promise me that you'll marry me—because then—then, you see—we would never have to be separated."
Thus, even at seven, does a heart know its own sorrow.

Frank Comment.
In his very, very early youth Mr. Mumpser had been a pretty child. His friends did not believe this was possible, and even he had forgotten all about it until one day he unearthed a painting of himself at that period from among the old lumber.

This he handed to his wife as some compensation for his present somewhat worn-out appearance.
"There, Alice," said Mrs. Mumpser, proudly exhibiting the picture to the servant. "That is a portrait of your master, painted when he was a child."
Alice gazed open-mouthed at the production.

"Lor, mum," she said, after some moments, "what a pity it is we have to grow up, ain't it?"—London Anviers.

His Choice.
Just after the fall of Bloemfontein soldiers were called for, owing to the scarcity of civilians, to work the railway. The weary "Tommys" were lying in a camp one night after a hard day's work, when a sergeant called out:

"Any of you men want to put your names down as railway porters, drivers, stokers, half-buffed clerks, or for any other appointments connected with the railway?"
Silence, broken only by snores. Then one "Tommy" slowly raised his head and drowsily muttered:
"Put me down as a sleeper, sergeant."—London Tit-Bits.

In the Beginning.
"Say, Adam," remarked Eve at the breakfast table, "I need a new gown. What kind shall I get?"
"Oh, don't bother me," growled Adam, who was trying to peruse the morning paper. "I don't care a fig what kind you get. But as it's the first of the year, perhaps it would be just as well to turn over a new leaf."

Gay Old Dogs.
"You can't teach an old dog new tricks."
"Oh, I don't know. They all want to try the tango and the maxixe."

Matchless Concoit.
Stranger—Have you a match, sir?
Vain individual—No, I don't think so.—Boston Evening Transcript.

WOMAN IN BAD CONDITION

Restored To Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Montpelier, Vt.—"We have great faith in your remedies. I was very irregular and was tired and sleepy all the time, would have cold chills, and my hands and feet would blot. My stomach bothered me. I had pain in my side and a bad headache most of the time. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done me lots of good and I now feel fine. I am regular, my stomach is better and my pains have all left me. You can use my name if you like. I am proud of what your remedies have done for me."—Mrs. MARY GAUTHIER, 21 Ridge St., Montpelier, Vt.

An Honest Dependable Medicine
It must be admitted by every fair-minded, intelligent person, that a medicine could not live and grow in popularity for nearly forty years, and to-day hold a record for thousands upon thousands of actual cures, as has Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, without possessing great virtue and actual worth. Such medicines must be looked upon and termed both standard and dependable by every thinking person.

If you have the slightest doubt that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will help you, write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass., for advice. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman, and held in strict confidence.
