

Will Erect New Dwelling.

F. Kryder Frank purchased the vacant lot opposite the D. L. Bartges home from John H. Weber, and will erect a dwelling house on it. The price paid for the quarter-acre lot was $350.

"Dry" Forces Fighting in Union County.

The Anti-Saloon League has been most active in its organization during the past week to create public sentiment tending to close the two hotels in Lewisburg and one in Laurelton, for which places the applications for license will be heard tomorrow (Friday) before Judge Johnson and Associates Rowe and DiFenderfer. The forces of the "dry" element in the county held a meeting in the Sunday-school room of the Reformed church. The meeting was attended by delegates from different sections of the county, and three sessions were held, morning, afternoon and evening. Rev. W. M. Rensick of Millinburg is chairman of the league, and Prof. Bromley Smith of Lewisburg the secretary. The chairman stated that the purpose of the meeting was to have the court close the bars of the few remaining hotels, and make the county absolutely dry.

Deaths of Centre Countians.

John S. Fisher died in Jewell City, Kansas, at the age of eighty-three years. He was born in Centre county. Henry J. Rothrock, a well known farmer of Spring township, died of paralysis, aged seventy-one years. Edward L. Rishel, a native of Bellefonte, died in Pittsburgh of galloping tuberculosis, aged thirty years. He was buried at Bellefonte. John A. Wagner, a unique character in Bellefonte, died as a result of a paralytic stroke, aged sixty-four years. Mrs. Rachael Ann Yeager died near Bellefonte, of a complication of diseases, aged sixty-six years. Mrs. John D. Sourbeck died in Bellefonte, of pneumonia, aged six one years. Mrs. Julia Keesinger died at Bellefonte of paralysis, aged sixty-five years.

February.

February is the shortest month of the year, but after all some mighty important events happened within the twenty-eight days allotted to it for three out of every four years. For instance, the second ground hog day, Lincoln was born on the 12th, the 14th is St. Valentine's day, the editor of the Reporter was born on the 21st, Washington on the twenty-second, as well as a lot of other Georges in this community. In addition to these the following noted persons were also born in February: Sarah Flower Adams, Susan B. Anthony, Li Hong Chang, Dwight L. Moody, Cardinal Newman, Horace Greeley, Adolphus Patil, Thomas A. Edison, Ellen Terry and Margaret Sangster.

LOCALS

L. L. Smith has secured the agency for the King automobile, and on Wednesday received his demonstrating car. Edward R. Benson, Democratic candidate for congress at the primaries last spring, was appointed postmaster in Mt. Jewett, McKean county, by President Wilson. Ivy W. Bartges, who during the past few years had been in Ohio, purchased the Ezra Finkle property on Long avenue, in Spring Mills, and will occupy it after April 1st. Planning and doing all the work himself, E. G. Moyer, the new postmaster at Rickersburg, Berks county, has erected a one-story post office building, costing $300. Huntingdon county, now dry, has three applicants for liquor licenses. The temperance people are busy with remonstrances, and in Huntingdon county remonstrances count. Mr. Arnold of the Central Lyceum Bureau, Harrisburg, writes to the Lecture Course Committee that he is trying to fix a date for Col. Bain to appear at Centre Hall. He adds that the Colonel's time, about two hundred nights a year on the platform, is much sought after and that it will require some maneuvering to fix a date for him.

The State Board of Public Charities is lending its approval in the effort to have the state legislature pass the bill introduced by Representative Showalter appropriating $575,000 for the building and maintenance of the Home for Feeble Minded Women of Child-Bearing Age, to be built in Hartley township, west of Laurelton. The officers of the board met at Philadelphia Tuesday, when the matter was considered. The state institutions are crowded with inmates, and it is impossible to properly care for them. The new institution is intended to care for those females whose mental faculties are slightly deranged, and segregate them at the proposed village where with proper treatment their recovery might be hastened.

Our Mr. Wilson, down at Washington, is not willing to cede to England that she is the whole pish when she must run up the Stars and Stripes to save her bacon from the Kaiser's subjects.

Spring Mills.

Ralph Shook is delivering mail this week for Frank McLellan. R. G. Kennelly has gone to Snow Shoar to work at the carpenter trade. Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Long of State College were callers on friends on Saturday. Mrs. Susan Hanna and son Lester spent Sunday at Aroburg. David McCool and J. D. Long are recovering slowly but are still confined to their rooms. Mrs. Susan Viethorn returned to her home at Manorville, Saturday morning. Elmer Ripka lost a horse on Monday. Mrs. Sarah Guise of Penn Hall, mother of Mrs. H. F. Rossman, was taken seriously ill on Thursday night. She was removed to the Roseman home on Saturday where she is convalescing. The roads have been in a bad condition owing to the bad ice, and several accidents have occurred. On Saturday night William Musser of Sober brought a sledload of people to the revival service in the Evangelical church. When opposite A. C. Dunlap's sled swung around and upset, throwing all the occupants out. The team ran away and was found in the shed at the Paradise church. Carl Meyer, a four-year-old son of John Meyer, had a thrilling experience in a coasting accident last week. Mr. Meyer lives in the west end of the Bibby House. The little lad, imitating the older boys, was coasting on a small hill in his father's yard, when the sled got beyond his control and went out through the yard gate and dashed over an embankment, fifteen feet high, landing on the public road. Except for a few scratches the boy was not hurt.

Methodist Conference to Meet at Shamokin.

The forty-seventh session of the Central Pennsylvania Methodist conference will be held at Shamokin in March and preparations are already under way for the entertaining of the hundreds of ministers and delegates who will attend this session. The terms of two district superintendents will expire this year, that of Rev. Emory M. Stevens, of the Williamsport district, and Rev. B. H. Mosser, of the Juniata district. Whether those two well known ministers will continue in the positions of superintendent is not known. Neither is eligible for reappointment on their present district, but it is possible that they may exchange places, which sometimes occurs at the expiration of the six years' term of district superintendents. It is reported that there are to be many changes in important parishes this year. A number of ministers who have served for over five years at their present appointments are to be lifted, according to dame rumor.

Linden Hall

J. S. Miller of Rock Springs spent a few days here last week. Miss Irene Ross, who has been sick with tonsillitis, is able to be around again. James M. Ross transacted business in Bellefonte Monday. Alvin Johnsonbaugh expects to go west where he will be employed on a farm next summer. One of Roy Garbrick's big bay horses was badly kicked by another horse. It required a dozen stitches to close the wound. C. T. Squiers of Philadelphia spent a few days here the beginning of the week. A little son came to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Wert on Monday.

CENTRE OAK

Wilbur Lucas is buying up cattle. Wilbur can certainly find them all. Mr. and Mrs. George W. Long and daughter Mary spent Sunday at Madisonburg with friends. Miss Mary Homan spent Sunday with her friend, Miss Vesta Yearick, Madisonburg. Miss Belle Meeker spent a few days at Centre Hall helping her sister, Mrs. Milton Bradford, who is housed up with a bad cold. Harry Frankenberg took a sled load of women to the home of John W. Zerby on Thursday where a quilting party was held. Of course they report a grand dinner and all took part in that. Miss Carrie Bartges spent Sunday with her friend, Carrie Osman at Penn Hill.

CENTRE MILLS

Mr. and Mrs. Rossman of Zieglerville, Millin county, visited Mr. and Mrs. Levi Stump, at Spring Bank, recently. Chas. Coble's children have recovered from the measles and the quarantines has been lifted. Prof. J. V. Godehall, wife and little son of Syracuse, N. Y., Mrs. Cann and three children of Altoona, Mr. and Mrs. Nease of Hartleton, were visitors last week at the home of J. A. Kline. Henry Moyer of Tusseyville visited his daughter, Mrs. Cummings, Sunday. J. N. Moyer and wife of Rebersburg spent Sunday at the home of George Wise. Bigler Shaffer has again leased the Bierly farm from its new owner, Henry Stoner.

The view Judge Telford holds on the license question will oblige all Indiana county residents who wish to "take sumfin" to go to Glenn Campbell, in the northern part of the county, as at that point is the only licensed house in the county. Indiana, the county seat, has not been dry in nineteen years. It is really strange how president judges interpret the license laws. If you know the attitude of a judge on the rum business you can guess pretty nearly his decisions at the license court.

JOHN DECKER'S ELK. (Continued from previous page.) And old John Decker, his chinbeard now snow white, looking proudly at his crumbling trophy, in the afternoon light says, "It was just about this time of day when I saw him in the stubblefield over yonder. It seems only yesterday, I brought him down with one shot." And as we drive away, we almost feel as if we were living in those grand days, and in our mind's eye, we can see the actors in the pageant of the times, Indians, elk, panthers, wolves, settlers, all going over the unseen mountains.

THE EMANCIPATION OF MEN.

(Continued from first page.) tion of a noble and true life, whether it be national or individual life. The freedom (constitutional) of 1776 was that of political liberty of self-government. The freedom obtained in 1863 was that which emancipated the slave within our border lines. The freedom for which we long and pray is that which touches every heart and home. And when we shall fully know the truth as we ought to know it, then shall we be free from the reign of the demon of intemperance, and enjoy liberty of conscience, heart, body, and soul to do the Master's will. "The slavery of drink is viler and more destructive of humanity than the bondage of the negro, and ought to awaken every manly effort possible for deliverance of those who are cured with its bondage because of ignorance, or appetite. Let the noble work go on until every citizen of America shall drink at the fountain of knowledge the draughts of perfect liberty, which shall guarantee neither a slave, nor a drunkard to be found within this great nation."
