To Provide for the Utmost Safety of Patrons and Property is the First Duty of Every Well-Managed Railroad

The railroads of Pennsylvania and New Jersey fully realize the importance of properly manned trains. Were the claims of those who arbitrarily forced the railroads, under the Full Crew Laws, to employ men for whom no jobs exist just and warrantable, the railroads themselves would be the first to recognize those claims.

Full Crew Laws Costly

Interstate Commerce Commission statistics conclusively prove that Full Crew Laws work three grave hardships-i. e.:

1—They increase the number of casualties. 2-They cost the railroads and thousands of men and women who, directly, or indirectly, as depositors in banks, trust companies, and savings funds are investors in railroad bonds and stocks, approximately $2,000,000 a year in wages for unnecessary labor.

3-They deprive the people of a vast amount of improvements.

No Trains Undermanned The railroads contend that their trains never could be undermanned for the following good business reasons:

First-A freight train of one locomotive at $25,000, and 75 cars at $1000 each, would represent $100,000 in rolling stock. Is it reasonable to assume that a railroad would jeopardize the safety of that great capital investment to save $2.75, the wage of an extra brakeman? Would it risk the loss of $100,000 worth of property to save $2.75?

Second-The railroads know that, to reach full earning capacity and to get from their equipment and roadway greatest possible service, all trains must be manned with enough men to enable them to do their work and make their trips in the least possible time.

Public Inconvenienced

Suppose, for example, the Lackawanna Limited left New York for Buffalo with four cars. Suppose it arrived at Stroudsburg and there it became necessary to put on a fifth car to accommodate unexpected traffic. Under the Full Crew Laws this could be done only after an extra brakeman had been brought from a division point, or the Stroudsburg passengers would have to stand in crowded cars until the train reached Scranton. Should the public be so inconvenienced?

Why Laws Should Be Repealed

The railroads now-as always-intend to man every freight and passenger train to the full requirements of safety and operating efficiency. They intend to do all within their power to expedite traffic and promote public convenience. They desire to give that absolute safety, efficiency and service to which the people are entitled.

There is no purpose to lay off men whose services are necessary to adequately man trains; the object is merely to eliminate men for whom there is no real necessity and for whom jobs exist only by edict of law. Legislation that hampers railroad service, safety and efficiency by expending money which should be used to increase the safety, the welfare and the convenience of the public is unfair to the people. SAMUEL REA, President, Pennsylvania Railford. DANIEL WILLARD, President, Baltimore and Ohio Railroad.

THEODORE VOORHEES. President, Philadelphia and Reading Railway, R. L. O'DONNEL, Chairman, Executive Committee, Associated Railroads of Pennsylvania and New Jersey, 721 Commercial Trust Building, Philadelphia.
