

Milhelm "Character," for "Playfully Pointing Pistol," Will Receive Sentence in County Jail, Besides Paying Fine.

The following cases were disposed of at the first week of court following last week's issue of the Reporter:

Commonwealth vs. Lewis Pzylichilli, indicted for defrauding board bill. Defendant plead guilty and sentence was suspended on condition that he pay the bill and costs.

Commonwealth vs. Arber Hassenplug, non-support. Bill ignored and county to pay the costs.

Lucian Rager, assault and battery and drunkenness. Bill ignored and costs put upon the county.

Potter-Hoy Hardware Co. vs. H. A. Ellis. Defendant confessed judgment for $50.00.

Christ Sharer, vs. D. O. Downing, an action brought to recover for railroad ties issued by the defendant. Verdict in favor of the plaintiff for $87.88.

Donald Paul and Howard Moore, two boys, appeared in court and plead guilty to larceny. They were both sentenced to the reform school at Glenn Mills.

Elli Taylor and John Taylor vs. Edward Bubb and John Bubb, trading as Bubb and son. This being an action brought by the plaintiffs for lumber alleged by them to have been delivered to defendant's mill in logs to be converted into lumber between Dec. 7 and the spring of 1913, alleging that they had been conveyed or caused to have been conveyed to defendant's mill, logs amounting to about 11,000 feet, and that this lumber was not there and that they had not received all of their lumber, claiming from the defendant a bill after giving credit of $204 and some cents. The defendants contending that from the time they set up their mill near the plaintiff's home they had sawed altogether for the plaintiffs 18468 feet, and showing that something more than this amount was sold to different parties by the plaintiff, including something over 3 and 1/2 thousands still estimated to be in the yard. The plaintiff however contending that there was in the yard not quite 2000 feet. The defendant testifying to the effect that they had sawed only little over 3000 feet after Dec. 7, 1912, and that they had sawed all of plaintiff's lumber that had been delivered to the mill, and that they had converted none of it to their own use excepting that they had special permission from the plaintiffs, and further contending that they had never been paid for this sawing, while the plaintiffs contending they had paid the same to a justice of the peace. The defendants claiming that there was nothing due the plaintiffs, but on the other hand the defendants claimed that the plaintiffs owed them a balance of book account of something over $30. This case went to trial late Tuesday afternoon. Verdict Thursday morning in favor of defendant.

On Monday the District Attorney on petition obtained a rule on Perry Krise, landlord at Spring Mills, to show cause why his license should not be revoked.

Christian Sharer vs. C. P. Caughey Lumber Company; an appeal from the justice of the peace, and is an action brought to recover for saw and saw bits in the possession of the defendant company. Verdict Thursday forenoon in favor of the plaintiff for $53.75.

SECOND WEEK'S CASES.

Monday morning court convened at ten o'clock and Russell Spangler, who had plead guilty last week to charges of larceny was sentenced to pay the costs of prosecution, $1.00 fine and to the Reformatory at Huntingdon. William Spangler, who plead guilty to the same charges as his brother, but being older, was sentenced to pay the costs of prosecution, $1.00 fine, and to the penitentiary for thirteen months.

William Lauver, who plead guilty to the charge of playfully pointing a pistol, was sentenced to pay the costs, a fine of $10.00 and four months to the county jail.

Joseph Gordon, who plead guilty to furnishing liquor, was sentenced to pay the costs, a fine of $25.00, and to the county jail for sixty days.

American Lime and Stone Company vs. Elizabeth S. Meyer, W. H. McIntire, administrators of etc. of J. C. Meyer, deceased, being an action in assumpsit. Verdict taken in favor of the plaintiff for $118.31.

John I. Thompson, Jr., and Margaret J. Thompson, his wife, vs. W. Malvin Meyer; being an action in trespass growing out of an automobile accident; settled.

William Witmer and Son Company, a corporation, vs. William Showers; being an action in trespass; continued for further suavoying.

Alexander Heverly vs. The Penn. Fire Brick Co., a corporation, being an action in trespass; settled.

Amelia B. Bechtol vs. The Lehigh Valley Railroad Company, being an action in trespass. While hauling gravel from a pit, the ledge of earth and rock fell, killing the husband of the plaintiff and injuring another man. Suit was brought for the loss of support of the husband, charging negligence on the part of the defendant company. The accident occurred June 25th, 1913. After bearing argument on both sides, the court directed the jury to find a verdict for the defendant. Later the court instructed the case to be taken from the jury.

Peter Mandis vs. E. A. Schad, being an action in assumpsit brought to recover on a note, unpaid check and book account. A part of this claim having been paid after suit brought and defendant contending set-off as to the remainder, and the case went to the jury but at the close of the argument by defendant's counsel moved the court to withdraw a juror and continue the cause at the cost of the defendant for improper remarks and references used by counsel in making his argument. Motion granted, cause continued at the cost of the defendant.

Celebrate 60th Wedding Anniversary. The Clinton Republican, last week, contained the portraits of Mr. and Mrs. Lyons Mussina, who Saturday previous celebrated the sixtieth anniversary of their wedding, the event taking place in Lock Haven.

Mr. Mussina was born in Aaronsburg, on February 24, 1827. He attended school in his native town and learned the printer's trade in Millheim in 1841-4. During 1846 he worked in Huntingdon and a year later went to Salona where he clerked in Best's store.

He went to Lock Haven in 1850 and purchased an interest in the Clinton Democrat, the firm name being Crawford & Mussina. He continued in the newspaper business until 1853 when he was elected county treasurer.

In 1856 he was elected cashier of the Lock Haven National bank which position he held for 21 years. In 1872 the co-partnership of Mussina & Reed was formed, and they dealt in coal feed and groceries. Recently Mr. Reed died, but Mr. Mussina is daily at the store.

PUBLIC SALE OF WESTERN COLTS THURSDAY, MARCH 11TH, ONE O'CLOCK P. M., AT CENTRE HALL.

There will be sold on above date at the barn of the undersigned, in the rear of the Reporter Office, Centre Hall, the following colts, ranging from one to three years old:

SIX COLTS RISING THREE YEARS OLD. TWO COLTS RISING TWO YEARS OLD. TWO COLTS RISING ONE YEAR OLD.

Four of these colts are Percherons, three years old, Western bred, but have been in my stable since September. These animals are all correct in every way—well built, well boned, well formed, good feet, with good action. They weigh 1275, 1350, 1285 and 1210, respectively. Two are the making of horses that will mature at over 1500 and two at over 1400. They are nicely broken to tongue, and are capable of performing all kinds of farm work.

TWO PERCHERON MARES. These mares, rising two years old, were selected by Mr. Hostetter for breeding purposes. One of them is fifteen-sixteenths and the other seven eighths Percheron, and bred from mares weighing 1600 and 1700, respectively, and from a sire weighing 2000. The colts now weigh 1250 and 1225, respectively. They are unusually well-boned and well formed, with good feet, will mature at 1400 or over. They are nicely broken to tongue, work fine and free. They are old enough and big enough to break this spring, and will be capable of doing light farm work.

TWO MARE COLTS, rising three years old. One now weighs 1225; will mature at over 1500; compact in form; good all round. She is also nicely broken to tongue and shafts. The other is also a mare colt, of driving type, bred from Allen Childs, a rooster.

TWO YEARLING COLTS. One of these is the making of a heavy draft mare, perfect in form. She is bred from a Western mare. The other is of driving type, bred from Allen Childs.
