Carl Auman has been absent from his duties at the Penns Valley bank for the past week owing to sickness. The storm on Tuesday afternoon partially unroofed the dwelling house occupied by D. W. Sweetwood, in Georges Valley.

Hon. Leonard Rhone attended a meeting of the legislative committee of the State Grange at Harrisburg, a few days last week.

The Spring Mills Summer School, under Prof. W. R. Jones, will open Monday of next week. A large enrollment is expected.

Roy White purchased a lot from Chas. D. Bartholomew, near the station, and has engaged the Zittle Brothers to build a one-story house upon it.

F. M. Ackerman is painting, graining and varnishing on the interior of the residence of S. J. Rowe. He is also finishing the woodwork in the Centre Hall postoffice.

Mrs. Ellen Frazier is at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Albert Meyer, in Centre Hall, and is taking care of her. Mrs. Meyer is suffering from an affection of the heart.

George Musser of Boggs township is making his Walnut Hill farm a real walnut place, and has planted 1500 walnuts on hilly land. He has 300 trees already under culture.

The grain fields throughout both Penns and Brush Valleys are not looking as promising as the average condition at this season of the year. With favorable weather from now until harvest time, the prospects for a good yield will increase, but there are many fields where the wheat plants are so thin that an exceedingly light yield must be looked for under all conditions.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred L. Musser and child of Altoona spent a few days at the home of Mr. Musser's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Musser, at Spring Mills, and on their way home stopped at Centre Hall on Monday where they were the guests of Mr. Musser's sister, Mrs. Ralph E. Dings. Mr. Musser is in the Penns's employ and has been one of the fortunate ones in not falling under the retrenchment axe. Of course, efficiency is what holds one's job when the question of cutting down the payroll is being considered.

Many who signed contracts for automobiles are becoming uneasy and restless because the dealers are unable to get the machines, and these fine spring days are adding to the horror of being obliged to travel behind old Nancy, who will go to the scrap heap until she is needed to tow in the modern machine.

From thirty to forty of the local I. O. O. F. order have planned to attend the anniversary celebration at Bloomsburg, to-morrow (Friday). The trip will be made in automobiles. An attempt was made to have a special train carry the delegations from the various lodges along the local railroad branch, but it appeared impossible to meet the guarantee.

Mr. and Mrs. Goodhart just returned from an extended visit through the south, and on their return from State College stopped for a short while with Mr. Goodhart's brother, G. L. Goodhart. Mr. and Mrs. Van Buskirk are residents of New York.

Centre Hall is beginning to put on her summer appearance—a beauty particularly belonging to Centre Hall. A number of property owners are contemplating improving the space between the walk and the street proper, and if this were encouraged we would become a town most beautiful within a very few years. Of course, there will be the usual improving of homes on the exterior and interior, building of walks, application of paint, etc.
