

PERRY BREON DEAD.

End Comes Quickly to Beloved Resident. Funeral Will Take Place Saturday.

The announcement of the death of Perry W. Breon was a shock to the community, although his condition for a few days prior to his death on Tuesday night was such that his friends were alarmed. Interment will be made from his home in Centre Hall on Saturday; burial in the local cemetery.

Mr. Breon was a son of the late Peter Breon and was born in Georges Valley, April 22, 1858, making his age fifty-seven years and twenty-six days. He was a farmer by occupation, and as such was one of the most successful in Potter township where he lived during his active life.

The deceased is survived by a wife and two children—Morris, Camden, N. Y., and Miss Bess, at home. A daughter—Mabel—died when a child. There also survives these sisters: Mrs. W. F. Florar, Mrs. R. D. Foreman, Mrs. H. G. Strohmeier. Mrs. James W. Runkle of Centre Hall is a half-sister. Howard is a deceased brother, and Amanda Breon and Mrs. Henrietta Ripka are deceased half-sisters.

Mr. Breon was held in high esteem by all his acquaintances. As a husband and father he was kind and affectionate and did all in his power to make his home happy.

Death was due to the effects of a sunstroke he suffered last summer.

DEATHS.

Michael Heer, an aged resident of Haines township, died on Sunday morning as the result of the effects of a dried peach lodging in his throat. The dried fruit was eaten on Wednesday and a piece became fixed in his windpipe, which was found impossible to remove. He became unconscious on Saturday and his death on Sunday was the result of the misfortune. He will be buried at Woodward Friday morning after services are held at his home, Rev. Carls being the minister in charge.

Mr. Hess was seventy-five years and six months of age and died on the place where he was born. He was a man of means, owning the productive farm of two hundred acres on which he lived, besides other property. He was twice married, his first wife who died twelve years ago being Miss Mary Neidigh. To them ten children were born, eight of whom survive, namely: Dr. Calvin Hess, Madison, Wis.; John, Rippe, South Dak.; Scott, Cazenovia, Wis.; Allen, Yeagertown; Mrs. J. L. Winegardner, Millheim; Mrs. J. W. Winkleblech, and Mrs. Milton Barner, Haines township. One sister, Mrs. J. L. Kreameer, of Woodward, also survives. His second wife, nee Ellen Holderman of Tusseyville, to whom he was married seven years ago, also survives.

William Grove died at the home of his son, E. H. Grove, near Tusseyville, Monday morning at eleven o'clock, following a paralytic stroke sustained early that morning. His wife went to call him at five o'clock and was startled to find him in an unconscious condition, in which state he lingered until his death. Funeral services will be held this (Thursday) morning at the home of his son and burial made in Meyer's cemetery at Buffalo Run, Rev. W. M. P. Glanding, C. C. Shuey and E. Fulcomer officiating.

Mr. Grove was a son of Mr. and Mrs. John Grove and was born near Spring Mills in the year 1840, his exact age being seventy-four years, nine months and nineteen days. On September 5, 1861, he was married to Miss Sarah Neese, who survives him with six children, namely, E. H., Tusseyville; Mrs. Alice B. Moyer, Puxantown; Mrs. Susan L. Shearer, Reynoldsville; W. H., Coburn; J. F., Jacksonville; Mrs. Emma Mincemyer, Coleville. Three children are dead. He was a farmer by occupation and in that pursuit devoted many years in Benner township. For the past two years he and his wife had made their home with their oldest son. He was a member of the Lutheran church at Bellefonte and a charter member of the Buffalo Run Cemetery Association.

Robert A. Beck, Bellefonte's first white barber and a unique character in that town's history since 1878, died at the Bellefonte hospital on Monday of blood poisoning. A week ago he pricked his thumb with a tack but paid little attention to the sore which developed. He will be buried at Bellefonte this (Thursday) morning. Surviving him are his wife and two children. He was a native of Germany and was sixty-five years of age.

William Lucas, a well known resident of Milesburg, died at his home on Wednesday afternoon of last week of senility, following a lengthy illness. He was born at Snow Shoe. He resided in Phillipsburg for twenty years or more and was engaged in the mercantile business before he retired. He was buried at Phillipsburg Saturday, surviving him is his wife and six children.

F. J. McClellan has converted his Ford car into a truck and will use the machine in delivering his summer drink goods to the trade.

MAY COURT.

M. S. Fiedler of Millheim Selected Foreman of Grand Jury.—First Week's Civil List Rapidly Disposed of.

Court convened on Monday morning. The grand jury was called and sworn and M. S. Fiedler of Millheim selected as foreman. List of traverse jurors called and absentees noted. The constables of the several townships, boroughs and wards then made their quarterly return to court.

The civil list for the present week was then called over and disposed of as follows:

Mary M. Walker vs. Frank Reese, an appeal, continued on account of sickness.

The second week's trial list called over and the following cases disposed of:

Wilbur H. Wining vs. Wilson G. Frantz, action in trespass. Defendants appeared in court and three other men interpleaded, the one of them being the owner of the land and asked to be made defendants together with Mr. Frantz. The plea was allowed and the case continued.

A large number of motions and petitions were presented to the Court by the several members of the bar, after which court adjourned until Monday afternoon.

Comm. v. George Garrett, indicted for larceny, prosecutor A. R. Barr, railroad policeman. The defendant waived the finding and plead guilty to taking a lantern from the Railroad Company April 13, 1915. By consent of the District Attorney sentence was suspended.

Comm. v. Joseph Wagner; charge, larceny; prosecutor, John McCoy. This defendant, together with Henry Gordon who broke jail several weeks ago, was jointly charged with this offense. Wagner appeared in court several weeks ago, waived the finding of the grand jury, plead guilty, and was sentenced to the reformatory at Huntingdon.

Comm. vs. Samuel Oliver; indicted for defrauding board bill; prosecutor Charles Wands; defendant plead guilty, and sentence was suspended upon condition that he pay the costs and the board bill.

Comm. v. Thomas Shannon and Harry Foreman; charged with larceny; prosecutor, Joseph Martell. The defendants about a week ago waived the finding of the grand jury, plead guilty, and were sentenced to the reformatory at Huntingdon.

Comm. vs. Harry Childs; charged with larceny; prosecutor, John D. Gill; settled.

Comm. vs. Luther Fishburn and Fred Landis; charged with assault and battery; prosecutor, Peter Gregory; settled.

Comm. vs. Irvin Robinson, Richard Langdon, and Dobbin McCarvin; charged with murder; prosecutor, Harry Dukeman. Habeas corpus hearing has been fixed for this case on Saturday, May 29th, at ten o'clock p. m., before the court.

Report of grand jury: Report that the acted upon eight bills of indictment, and that in visiting the county building, that few floors should be provided in the women's department of the jail and that the ceiling of the corridor should be repaired. And recommend that a general cleaning up of the exterior; that the chicken pen and dog pen should be removed, and the gallery floor be strengthened, and the walls whitewashed, and further that the grand jury advocate that an architect be employed to prepare plans for the remodeling of the interior of the jail and that such plan be submitted to the next grand jury.

All jurors, traverse and grand jury, were discharged on Tuesday and court adjourned on Tuesday afternoon until Monday of next week.

An effort is being made to secure the Lloyeville band for the Penna Valley Lutheran church picnic to be held on Grange Park, Thursday, August 12th. The boys at the orphanage now own a large motor truck and will be able to make the trip with very much greater ease than they did the first time they attended this gathering.

A salient feature of the final report of the intermediate school is the number of pupils who were found in the school room every day during the eight-month term. This is highly commendable and speaks well for pupils, parents and teacher. The honor roll includes Isalah Emery, Howard Emery, Fred Lucas, Harold Breon, Albert Smith, Paul Fetterolf, Franklin Ruble, Albert Emery, Hazel Ripke. In the grammar school Pearl Ruble and Ruth Parsons are the star scholars in point of attendance, while in the high school Miss Mary Dingus stands alone on the honor roll.
