SAVE WILLIAM PENN'S CHAIRS

National Heirlooms, About to Fall Apart, Have Been Repaired by Blind Women.

Two quaint and graceful chairs that once belonged to William Penn have just been repaired by two women who have never seen the chairs, says the Philadelphia Ledger. The two women are inmates of the Pennsylvania Industrial Home for Blind Women. The chairs are preserved in the east room of Independence hall, on the second floor. Year by year the cane bottoms of the famous old relics have been gradually cracking and falling out. The committee in charge decided that unless the cane was replaced the woodwork might soon collapse. But they did not dare to let the chairs be taken out of Congress hall.

So they sent for Miss Ira Frost, mistress of handicraft at the Industrial Home for Blind Women, and she brought with her to the room two of the blind women who understood chair repairing. The work was peculiarly difficult, for it was impossible to erect in Congress hall the caning table needed to hold the chairs firmly in place, and, moreover, their woodwork was soft with age. But the deft "seeing fingers" of the blind women did the work in spite of all the difficulties, and now the precious William Penn chairs are safe.

The man who chews fine cut tobacco considers himself higher up in the social scale than the man who chews plug.

Mr. C. A. Butler, of Salem, Va., writes: "I can safely say that Hancock's Sulphur Compound is the best remedy I ever used for sores. One of my little boys, eight years old, had a solid sore all over his face, we tried different kinds of medicine, but none seemed to do any good. Our son, nineteen years old, had a sore on his leg for three months and nothing did him good. We used Hancock's Sulphur Compound on both and it did its work quickly and it was not over a week until both were well." Hancock's Sulphur Compound is sold by all dealers. BEST REMEDIES FOR SORES AND ULCERS

Horse Chestnut.
 "I was sitting on the bootblack's stand," said the story-teller, "when the parade came along, the grand marshal riding a big bay horse at its head. Well, just as the head of the parade came opposite me, it stopped. The grand marshal's horse wouldn't go another step."
 "Recognized you as his long lost half brother, I suppose," said one of his listeners maliciously.
 "Think you're smart, don't you? Well, I'll tell you, anyhow. It was pride that made that horse stop—nothing but pride. He wanted his shoes shined."

Just Like a Man.
 "Tom," said the bride of a week, "didn't you promise faithfully to give up smoking the day I married you?"
 "Yes, my dear," replied Tom, "I believe I did."
 "And now," she continued, "I find you puffing a cigar, just as though I weren't in existence. What explanation have you to offer?"
 "Well, I kept my promise," replied the husband. "I didn't smoke a single cigar on our wedding day."—Philadelphia Public Ledger.

We Don't Believe It.
 "So you've moved to the country. How do you like it?"
 "Great! Beats a stuffy old flat all hollow. And the best of it is, we get fresh eggs and vegetables almost as cheap as we could get them in the city."

Lost to Sight.
 "How annoying! The English and German accounts of the latest battle don't agree."
 "What can you expect? Truth and Veracity 'dug themselves in' when the first shot of the war was fired."

Homely.
 "Can you give me any ideas about making my yard more beautiful?"
 "Yes. Remain in the house?"

FOR THE WARM DAYS

PREPARATIONS OF FISH THAT ARE IN ORDER.

Dish That Has the Name of Venetian is Palatable and Nourishing—Directions for Scalloping—Baked Bass or Pickerel.

Venetian Fish.—Chop enough carrot to measure a quarter of a cupful and add the same amount of chopped celery, with two tablespoonfuls each of green pepper and parsley, minced. Put with a quarter of a cupful of olive oil in a small saucepan and simmer for ten minutes, then spread over a fish that has been split and laid in a shallow, greased baking pan. Sprinkle over it a little lemon juice, salt and pepper, cover, and bake for about half an hour—until the fish is done. Slices of cod or halibut can be used instead of a split fish.

Scalloped Fish.—Steam two pounds of fish until tender and mince. Scald a pint of cream and add two well-beaten eggs and a little flour—about a teaspoonful—made smooth in cold milk. Cook over hot water until it is smooth and creamy, cool, and season with salt and pepper. Add the minced fish and a teaspoonful of minced parsley, and put the mixture into individual ramekins, shells or a big baking dish. Sprinkle with fine cracker crumbs and bits of butter, and brown in the oven.

Pickled Salmon.—Boil several pounds of salmon—or cod—and drain and cool it. Add to two or three cupfuls of water in which the fish was boiled the same quantity of vinegar, six cloves, a teaspoonful of whole pepper, the same amount of allspice, six blades of mace and half a nutmeg, ungrated. Bring to the boiling point, skim, and pour over the fish. When cold it is ready to serve, but it will keep well in a cool place for several days.

Baked Bass or Pickerel.—Chop eight onions fine and mix with half that amount of fine breadcrumbs. Season well with pepper and salt and add two or three tablespoonfuls of finely chopped salt pork and enough chopped tomatoes—freed from juice and the soft pulp, with just the firm part chopped—to make the stuffing red. Add red pepper, and stuff the fish. Bake until tender.

Jellied Trout.—Add a whole clove, some salt, three tablespoonfuls of good vinegar, a slice of onion, to a saucepan half full of cold water and place the trout in it. Simmer gently, so that the fish are not broken. When tender, drain and dip in aspic jelly, and when the first coat of jelly has hardened, dip again. Repeat this until there is a good layer of jelly on each trout.

To Cook Cauliflower.
 When you are boiling a cauliflower you should leave a few of the tender leaves to make it look pretty. If you take them all off it is rather uninteresting in appearance.
 Put it into rapidly boiling water, with the flower face downwards, and a wooden spoon put across the top to keep it from rising.
 A young and tender cauliflower will take about a quarter of an hour. An older one from this time to half an hour. Many people serve this vegetable with a plain white sauce, made in the following way:
 One ounce of butter, one-half pint of milk, one-half ounce of flour; pepper and salt.

Cream Puffs.
 One cupful of hot water, one-half cupful of butter. Boil together, stirring in a cupful of dry white flour while boiling. When cold, add three eggs, not beaten. Stir well. Drop by spoonfuls on buttered tins. Bake 20 minutes in a quick oven. Be careful not to open oven door more often than is necessary. This makes 15.
 For the filling, take one cupful of milk, one-half cupful of sugar, one egg, three tablespoonfuls of flour. Boil as for any custard and flavor to taste. When both this and the puffs are cold open them carefully at one side and fill. They are delicious.

Orange Pudding.
 Peel and cut five oranges into thin slices, taking out the seeds. Pour over them a coffee cup of fine white sugar. Let a pint of milk get boiling hot by setting it in a pot of boiling water. Add the yolks of three eggs well beaten, one tablespoonful of cornstarch made smooth with a little cold milk; stir all the time. As soon as thickened pour over the fruit. Beat the whites to a stiff froth, adding a tablespoonful of sugar, and spread over the top of frosting. Set it in the oven for a few minutes to harden. This pudding is best eaten cold.

Tomato Soup.
 One quart can of tomatoes or equal amount of fresh tomatoes stewed together with four cloves, small piece of bay leaf, a few pieces of celery (or celery salt), salt and pepper to taste. Stew 20 minutes. While this is stewing fry a few pieces of onion in three tablespoonfuls of butter for five minutes, then add two tablespoonfuls of cornstarch to this, finally adding all to tomatoes. When thickened strain and serve with crackers. This is nice with beef broth added to tomatoes.

Cherry Salad.
 Wipe cherries and remove stems and stones. Fill cavities with filberts and arrange in nests on lettuce leaves, using a cream mayonnaise.

ACT WAS NOT TO HIS LIKING

American Soldier Properly Resented Filipino's Insult to a Spanish Officer.

The story is told by an English naval officer who witnessed the occurrence in Manila: "As I was crossing one of the numerous bridges across the Pasig river, I saw a native Filipino spit in the face of a Spanish officer, and then run for protection to the American sentinel, who was pacing the bridge. It was some time before the Filipino could make himself understood, but when the sentry comprehended his action was very prompt indeed. He handed his gun to the Spanish officer, caught the native by the nape of the neck and the seat of his trousers, and pitched him off the bridge into the Pasig river. Then he calmly took his gun from the officer, and began pacing his beat, as if nothing had happened."—Unidentified.

is not more delicious than

Post Toasties

—the toasted sweet of the corn fields!

In the growth of corn there is a period when the kernels are plumped out with a vegetable milk, most nutritious. As it slowly ripens this hardens and finally becomes almost flinty.

Only this part of the corn is used in making Post Toasties, the husk, germ and all waste being rejected.

This nutritious part is cooked, seasoned "just right," rolled and toasted to a crackly golden-brown crispness—Post Toasties—the
