LOCALS.
Mrs. Maria Wagner of Tusseyville spent a few days last week at the home of her niece, Mrs. A. E. Kerlin.

Capt. G. M. Boal spent a few days last week at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Charles Meyer, in Reedsville.

Mrs. G. W. Erdly of Milton spent a week at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Snyder, near Centre Hall.

Jack Spangler of New York City, spent a few days last week at the home of his grandmother, Mrs. Susanna Spangler.

Children's Day will be observed with an appropriate program at the Union church at Tusseyville, Saturday evening, 7:45 o'clock.

Peter Dutrow and three children of Altoona were guests of Mr. Dutrow's brother, Clyde Dutrow, near Centre Hall for a few days last week.

Mr. and Mrs. John White and children of Altoona are spending a short time at the home of Mrs. White's brother, John H. Runkle, below Centre Hall.

J. H. Moyer of Colyer spent Sunday at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Arthur Cummings, at Rebersburg. Mr. Moyer reports wheat as appearing better in Brush Valley than in this section.

Messrs. William Bradford and Jerome Aumar, on Friday, arrived from Phoenixville in the former's car and until Monday remained with relatives in this place. On the return trip their families accompanied them home.

During a recent windstorm the pressure was too strong for a stove silo on the H. W. Frantz farm, at Elystow, to withstand it and toppled over. The silo had not been sufficiently guyed. The structure will be rebuilt as Mr. Frantz learned the value of ensilage during the short period the silo did service.

A meeting will be held at the Odd Fellows' Orphanage, east of Sunbury, on July 12 and 13. More than 250 representatives from 32 counties in Central Pennsylvania will be in attendance. They represent the Central Pennsylvania Odd Fellows' Orphans' Home Association, organized 15 years ago. This association built the orphanage and has since controlled it. J. W. Stroh, of Sunbury, is president, and Fred C. Hanyen, of Scranton, vice president.

Raymond, the two-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Jewett Brooks, above Centre Hall, was badly scalded Thursday afternoon of last week when he pulled over a bucket of boiling water. The mother was preparing to wash and had set the bucket on the floor and the youngster in an instant seized it and pulled it over on himself, badly scalding the flesh from the waist down. The child suffered excruciating pain for a time but at present is recovering nicely.

Millheim's Evangelistic Campaign.

The fourth week in Evangelist Paul Brown's campaign in Millheim is ended and interest is steadily increasing. Wednesday evening of last week was Fraternity night, and the largest crowd of the campaign was in attendance. All the seating capacity was taken early and the centre section was almost full with members of different secret organizations of the community. Many persons were not able to even get in the doors of the tabernacle because of the crowd. Close to two thousand persons listened to the splendid sermon on "Friendship," by the evangelist. Many persons expressed themselves that this was the best sermon of the kind they had ever heard. Friday evening, "Musical Night" was well attended, and a splendid musical program was carried out in connection with the other services.

On Sunday, the morning service especially for Christians, was as usual devoted to a consecration service. A message urging the people to plan to save every unspent penny in the community, was the main thought of the sermon. Almost all men can be saved if approached in a right manner. In the afternoon about eight hundred men came to hear the message of "Man or Beast." Man has a two-fold life, the animal nature, and the spiritual nature. If he sets aside the spiritual part, he becomes nothing more than a beast, while if he cares for the things of the spirit he becomes a child of God.

In the evening the building was crowded to its full capacity again. The message of the evening was the "Good Shepherd." The presence of God was manifested wonderfully among the people present, for when the invitation was given thirty-three persons came forward and surrendered to Christ. This makes a total for the campaign up until Sunday of 202 converts. Many more are hesitating and will come later. The meeting seems to be just now getting hold of the un-saved and it is hoped that hundreds more may come before the close of the meeting.

A wonderful spirit of prayer is moving among the people of Millheim and the community. Men are praying and talking of religion who have not known what prayer meant. The Christian people have been brought together in such a manner as to learn to know each other better and this enables them to throw away all prejudices of the past. Men and women have forgotten for the time being, their several church names and are just all of the same family, followers of Christ working for the advancement of his kingdom.

S. S. Workers Meet.

The executive committee of the Centre County Sabbath-school association met in Bellefonte on Tuesday, I. L. Harvey of Orviston, the president of the association, was in the chair, and proved a live wire in that position.

W. D. Reel, state superintendent of the Home Department, who is planning for greater activity in "the other half of the Sunday-school," was in attendance and suggested that all district conventions be held before the county convention so that reports could be received, and that district presidents be made members of the executive committee.

Treasurer Tressler reported the total receipts $232.40, and expenditures $207.50, leaving a balance of $24.90. Out of one hundred and fifty schools in the county but fifty-seven paid their share for county work. The committee will meet again on July 6th.

Good Price for Farm.

The following is taken from the Orangeville (Ill.) Courier, date of June 18th. The Mr. Goodhart referred to is a son of G. L. Goodhart of Centre Hall:

This week G. P. Goodhart sold his farm of 47 acres just north of Orangeville to John Webner, the purchase price being $200 per acre, or $9400 for the farm. While the price seems a little high yet the farm is a good one. Most all new ground and splendid buildings. The location is a good one and it will make a fine home for Mr. Webner and wife. Mr. Goodhart has not decided what he will do.
