SECOND WEEK AT TABERNACLE.

Attendance at Big Wooden Structure Increasing.—Brother of Evangelist John Parry.

Although this is only the second week of the campaign at the big Tabernacle the crowds have been surprisingly large, notwithstanding the fact that it is in the midst of the harvest season. The management is highly pleased with the support thus far accorded by Centre Hall and vicinity.

One of the pleasing features is the large choir under the able direction of Prof. H. LeRoy Goodwin. Professor Goodwin is very much pleased with the way the members have taken up the organized work and is sure that with the spirit of unity which exists and the eagerness with which each one is trying to increase the membership, will soon give to Centre Hall a choir of 200 voices which will be second to none. Many of those who have heard the larger choirs under such men as Prof. Spooner, Henniger and Armstrong say that the way in which Prof. Goodwin handles his choir places him in the same class with these men. On Sunday afternoon at the men's meeting the men sang as they never sang before in Centre Hall.

Taken as a whole, the work of the past week has been a decided success. The union prayer meetings have been largely attended and all traces of dominationism have been obliterated. Presbyterian, Lutheran, Methodist and Evangelical kneel side by side with the Baptists, Congregational, Reformed and others, all petitioning the Heavenly Father that each may be made efficient in this work to the end that souls be saved. Such concerted action coupled with the eloquent, yet simple, appeals to the real man, which Evangelist Brown gives out each night through his sermons, prayers and invitations, is sure to bring a glorious victory to the cause of Christ.

A sure proof of the high esteem in which the Evangelist and party are held by those with whom they have worked is evidenced by the large numbers from Millheim and vicinity who are in attendance each night. For the benefit of those who have been grossly misinformed as to the methods and style of preaching it is suggested that they "come and see."

Rev. H. M. Brown, brother of Evangelist Brown, has arrived to take his place in the ranks. He is a man of education and large ability and experience and will prove a great strength to the work. Next Sunday afternoon when Evangelist Brown is giving his lecture to women only, his brother will preach to the men in one of the churches. Let every one remember the musical program on Friday night.

The members of the Masonic Fraternity have accepted an invitation to attend divine service at the tabernacle next Wednesday night, August 4th. The meeting is open to all. The hour of the evening service has been changed from 7:30 to 7:45 to accommodate those who come in from the country.

Short trips also given best attention. Experienced driver. Address J. C. McCLENNAN, Spring Mills, Pa., R. D. 3.

The Dale Reunion.

He is in a critical condition, and his brother, Alex., of Altoona, and other relatives and friends are caring for him.

It required three trains to convey the teachers (female) from State College to the base of Old Tussey where they camped among the tall cedars, enjoying a ramble high up on Old Tussey Mountain, almost towering on the sky. They made a grand display on their march from the trail, through town on their way to the grounds, flanked by the males for protection. Joy and gladness was stamped on the faces of the instructors of the tising generation. Hope to see them back next year.

After an absence of about a half century, Rev. D. V. Moser, a former Pine Grove boy, last Sunday very ably filled the pulpit in the Lutheran church. His father founded the congregation a century ago. Rev. Moser dwelt largely on the pilgrimage Zionward and gave some wholesome advice regarding the beautifying the city of the dead where our old fathers rest. In mingling with old friends his memory carried him back to his school days at the old academy of study and recreation at the foot hills of Old Tussey. He is now located at Gettysburg and is quite hale and hearty, and for a wax is visiting the scenes of his boyhood days.
