Letter From Game Commissioner.

Secretary of the Board of Game Commissioners, Joseph Kalbfus, has forwarded the following letter to this office which is of importance to trappers and others killing animals on which the State pays a bounty. The letter follows:

Dear Sir:— For the information of those who desire to secure bounties as provided for by the Act of April 15th, we beg to advise that this Act distinctly provides that in case the necessary affidavit is made before a Justice of the Peace, Alderman, or Magistrate, on forms secured from the Game Commission by such officials, the unutilized skin or entire pelt of such animal shall be forwarded to the Game Commissioner, Harrisburg, and, therefore, it does not provide for the sending of the entire carcass of the animal. Furthermore, we beg to warn all claimants for bounties that they should in all cases skin the animal and cure or dry the skin before forwarding same to Harrisburg, as otherwise the postal authorities will very likely destroy the parcel containing a raw skin or carcass before it reaches Harrisburg because of the fact that such raw skin or carcass has become offensive during transit, and under such conditions your claim would be entirely lost. Therefore, in the future do not send anything except the cured or dry skin (not the carcass) to the Game Commissioner, Bounty Division, Harrisburg, Pa. We are trying to help you, and hope you will help us by complying with the above.

Respectfully yours, JOSEPH KALBFUS, Secretary, Game Commission.

Contracts have been awarded by the trustees of the Lutheran church at Yeagertown for the erection of the new church building, to be located on the site of the present one erected sixty-five years ago. Harvey Kuhr, youngest son of J. C. Kuhr, of Old Fort, narrowly escaped serious injury Thursday evening when he was caught by the spikes of a hay loader and a chunk of flesh torn from his right leg. Stopping the wagon at the right moment undoubtedly saved the lad from serious injury, for the spikes in taking hold of him had doubled him up and were drawing him in to the machine. The accident happened on the Bradford farm, tenanted by Harry C. Reish. The lad had been warned repeatedly to keep away from the rear of the wagon.

The Atlantic City one-day excursion, conducted by the P. B. R., over the local branch, proved a popular one. The crowds were so large that it was necessary to run three sections, two leaving Bellefonte and one leaving Coburn. Sixty-four tickets were sold from this place; more than five hundred paid their three dollars from Bellefonte, one hundred and ninety-seven from Lemont, thirty from Oak Hall, thirty from Spring Mills, and eighty-two from Coburn.
