

Pine Grove Mills

Schools open on Monday. Miss Lillian Dale is recovering from an attack of scyatic.

Hugh C. Dale spent Sunday with friends at White Hall.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Fry are off on their annual outing at the seashore.

E. E. Royer is ill, suffering an attack of gall stones.

George Lutts lost one and S. M. Hess two cows of hoven last week.

Rev. Day will preach in the Presbyterian church on Sunday afternoon.

Demer Pearce and family are visiting friends at Phillipsburg this week.

A. Mallory, who handles the throttle on the Pennay, is laid up with a mashed finger.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Kimpfort, Mr. and Mrs. William Ferree are planning an auto trip to Tioga county shortly.

J. W. Miller made a business trip to Bellefonte on Monday, returning with a new Studebaker car.

John Snyder is building a 50x30 implement shed on the old farm, Philip Rupp has the job.

J. B. Whitmer and family, in their Overland car, motored to Lock Haven and took in Old Home week.

E. S. Tressler engaged on state highway work at Everett, is here for a few days vacation.

Mills Alexander, a farmer near State College, fell down the hay hole last Saturday, breaking his left hip bone.

Mr. and Mrs. William Wayne and Miss Myra Kimpfort are among the bathers at Atlantic City this week.

Mrs. Cora Louder Forest of Alexandria has been visiting friends of her early days in the valley.

Mrs. J. E. Miller and Mrs. Samuel Elder were State College visitors on Monday.

J. B. Heberling and Harry Sauer are in the eastern cities on a business venture.

H. N. Koch, funeral director at State College, has moved to his new home, recently bought, corner College and Burrows streets.

Mrs. Sallie Bloom and family, Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Williams, J. A. Decker and family, A. J. Tate and family, motored to State College this week.

The 3 D's—Davy Dennis, Wm. Dele and Fred Decker—combined ages 248 years, were a happy trio at the picnic Saturday, vividly recalling many early day reminiscences.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Meyers and C. H. Meyer, in the latter's car, motored to Huntingdon last Friday to visit Henry Meyers who underwent the knife in the hospital for gall stones and is in a critical condition.

That famous bird, the Stork, hovered over the home of Rev. and Mrs. C. S. Miller, at Juniata, leaving a nice little girl, No. 2 Gladys Mary will be her name. Before marriage Mrs. Miller was Bertha Dale of Lemont.

Although the weather man did not smile propitiously on our picnic Saturday, owing to a steady drizzling rain, the gathering was held in the town hall. Many strangers were entertained by friends at their homes.

The festival in the evening was a success financially, almost $100 being realized. By a unanimous vote it was decided to hold the picnic and festival over in the grove this Saturday, when the former program will be carried out.

A score of younger set enjoyed a real corn roast at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Gardner in the Glades last Monday evening. The party was given in honor of Miss R. Mary Goss of Tyrone, who is visiting in the valley.

A big blazing fire was started in the orchard near the corn field from which the choice feed was plucked. Mrs. Gardner and daughters acted the part of chaperons. All most thoroughly enjoyed the function, and extended many thanks to the Gardners.

A MOST PLEASANT SURPRISE. Wednesday evening of last week the beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph H. Hoy was all aglow with electric jets and in the early twilight was overrun by a happy home-coming of their children, and a legion of friends and neighbors who came with presents to remind Mrs. Hoy of her 58th natal day. The grand woman was frank to admit that she was fooled by her husband who oiled the way to a successful surprise. The supper consisted of the choicest viands and the best of the old farm and market could produce. It was a joyous occasion and will long be remembered by those who had the good fortune to be present. A beautiful davenport by the children was one of the tokens of love and regard. The occasion will ever be remembered as one of the most pleasant events of her life.

FRUITTOWN.

Rev. Bradley of Milesburg held services at this place on Sunday.

William Bubb spent Sunday with friends at State College.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Fohringer and daughter Sarah spent Tuesday at Spring Mills.

Mr. William Pearson and children of State College spent a few days last week at the Edward Bubb home.

Harris Bubb, who had been employed for some time in Mifflin county, returned to his home at this place Monday.

We are glad to note at this writing that Bruce Isler of this place, who has been in very ill health for some time, is greatly improved.

After spending his vacation at home Charles Fye on Tuesday returned to State College where he will be employed for the winter.

NEWS OF 1881.

Notes Taken From Files of The Centre Reporter of Thirty Years Ago.

December 2nd—A company of eight or ten Centre Hall Nimrods, with guns and ramrods—mostly new hands—were at Stonecreek last week, on a three days' hunt. They returned with a fine doe. The town and country for miles around has had a venison smell ever since.

Michael Strom has been appointed postmaster at Centre Hill, vice R. Lee, deceased.

It is said there are about twenty applicants for commissioner's clerk now.

January 2nd, 1882—The Millheim justice has at last been decided by court. The court decides John H. Reifnyder elected by nine majority over F. P. Musser.

Our young friend, George Bible, electionist, did some of his reading before the Snyder county teachers' institute last week and left a favorable impression.

The new Lutheran church at Millheim is receiving a slate roof.

Edward Mersinger of Joliet, Ill., is back to Potter twp., his native place, on a visit. He left here fourteen years ago and this is his first visit since. He is a jolly, plump and fat, which indicates that Illinois agrees with him.

The store of C. Dinger, in this place, was discovered to be on fire Tuesday morning about seven o'clock. Before the fire could be outened damage to goods to the extent of $150 was done.

Married—At the residence of the bride's father, on 28th ult., by Rev. Aikens, W. W. McCormick to Miss Laura E., daughter of Henry McClosky, both of Pottery Mills.

The Weather.

Readings of the thermometer are made daily at 5 p. m., and indicate the highest and lowest points reached during the preceding twenty-four hours.

Table with columns: AUGUST, HIGHEST, LOWEST, SHOWERS IN INCHES, RAINFALL IN INCHES, CHARACTER OF DAY. Rows for Wednesday, Thursday, Friday, Saturday, Sunday, Monday, Tuesday.

F means fair; C means cloudy; P C means partly cloudy.

FOR SALE—Good Peerless & Gulser Grain Separator, just repaired and good as new; a large size machine. One good "Big 6" Birdsell Clover Huller and Separator combined, almost good as new. One Monitor Jr. Clover Huller and Separator combined. One good Empire Portable Engine, has good strong power. The grain separator and engine will be in use the last week in July. On account of my age I intend to quit the business.—H. E. ZIMMERMAN, Pleasant Gap, Pa. P. O., Bellefonte, R. D.

Advertisement for J. S. ROWE, Centre Hall, Pa., offering water pipes, pumps, and repairs at lowest prices.

Advertisement for HARPER & DURST GARAGE, Centre Hall, Pa., offering automobile supplies and repair work.

Advertisement for CYRUS BRUNGART, JUSTICE OF THE PEACE, CENTRE HALL, PA., offering legal services.

Advertisement for Chas. D. Bartholomew, CENTRE HALL, PA., offering 500 Single Comb White Leghorn Hens.

Advertisement for KESSLER'S DEP'T STORE, MILLHEIM, PA., offering ladies' suits and men's shirts.

Large advertisement for KESSLER'S DEP'T STORE, MILLHEIM, PA., offering a wide variety of goods including shoes, groceries, and household items.

Advertisement for The undersigned, having just returned from Philadelphia with a 1916 model, seven passenger Paige touring car.

Advertisement for THE MARKETS, GRAIN, listing prices for wheat, corn, oats, barley, and rye.

Advertisement for PRODUCE AT STORES, listing prices for butter, eggs, and lard.

Advertisement for HOWARD H. BRICKER, BOALSBURG, PA., offering a variety of goods and services.

Mrs. Sarah J. Royer died Monday morning in the home of her daughter, Mrs. C. E. Saunders, of 209 Second street, Juniata. The deceased lady was advanced in years and her death from a complication of diseases followed a decline of several months duration.

The funeral was conducted by Rev. Lambertson, the pastor of the deceased. The five months old son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Kuhn, who live at Milton, died on Friday of infant complaint, and was buried on Monday in Millheim.

Monday night temperature fell to 34—two degrees above freezing. Mrs. Jacob Roan of State College is spending a few days with her niece, Mrs. H. E. Homar.

Arthur Slutterbeck of Tusseyville found one of his cows lying dead in the field on Sunday. Rev. J. C. Kelly of Sunbury will preach in the Presbyterian church at Spring Mills Sunday morning and at Centre Hall in the evening.

School opened in Potter township on Monday. The enrollment on the first day ranged from three scholars to twenty in the various districts. William Colyer improved the surroundings of his farm property by having several concrete walks built.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Homar, after a month's vacation at the home of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Homar, returned to their home at State College this week. Miss Katharine A. MacDonald and Miss Elbina L. Bender of Lewisburg are spending a few days at the Centre Hall hotel.

Clayton E. Wagner purchased the lumber in the tabernacle, at the close of the campaign on Sunday night, for $300. He is thinking of purchasing some land and using the lumber in erecting buildings thereon.

The school bell, after being silent for four months, again started to ring out its call Monday morning for the youth to come and gain knowledge in the little red school house. The first day found one hundred and fifteen in the four rooms and this number will be slightly augmented after the Encampment and Fair, after which there will be an unbroken stretch of work until Teacher's Institute in November.

There is every reason to believe that the present term of school will prove profitable to those scholars who have a desire to learn, for the corps of instructors are all able and experienced teachers and they will do their part in the eight months of hard work which lies before them.

The first day's enrollment in the various grades follows: High school, Prof. William Beckman teacher, 15; grammar, E. M. Miller teacher, 27; intermediate, E. Ross Bushman teacher, 38; primary, Miss Helen Bartholomew teacher, 35. A list of the scholars will appear next week.

More than eight hundred petitions were filed in the commissioners' office for local and county offices, divided as follows: Democratic, for local offices, 386; Republican, for local offices, 435; for county office, 33; total 854.

Fred Meckler, Houserville; Blanche E. Musser, Lemont; Orvis F. Gramley, Millheim; Carrie N. Emerick, Spring Mills; George Vaughn, Sandy Ridge; Sallie McMonigs, Sandy Ridge.

Rev. and Mrs. Sheeder of Portage were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Feldler for a week. Mrs. W. B. Wyle and two children of Akron, Ohio, visited among friends while in town.

Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Vonada and baby son returned from a week's stay in Lock Haven. Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Stover and Mr. and Mrs. Foster Bower made a trip to Lewisburg in R. S. Stover's new car.

Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Eby of New York City are paying their annual visit to the home of the latter's mother, Mrs. Caroline Maize. Rev. and Mrs. Donat and son returned on Friday from a three weeks' vacation at Jonestown, Lebanon county.

Mr. Sarah Leitzell accompanied by her son-in-law, Harvey Lane, to Tyrone to spend an indefinite time with two of her daughters. Charles Stover came home last week from State College, threatened with typhoid fever. He got it checked and is feeling much better at this writing.

Mr. and Mrs. Bowersox and little son of Wolf's Store, Mr. and Mrs. Irwin Barber and two daughters, Helen and Lillian, of Salora, were Sunday guests at the home of Warren Winkelblech.

Those from a distance who attended the funeral of Mrs. Maris Deahler on Monday were the following: Mr. and Mrs. Noah Cormar, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Miller, Mrs. Emma Brungart, of Rebersburg; Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Stevenson, of Lock Haven; Mrs. Ed. Jordon, of Chicago; Z. Stah, of Milton; Mrs. W. F. Bitner, of Spring Mills; Miss Lizzie Yarger, Mrs. Emma Beaver, Mr. and Mrs. A. Heckmar, Mr. and Mrs. A. Bartger, of Millheim.

Emmanuel Smith spent Sunday at Farmers Mills. Mrs. Kleckner is visiting her cousin, James Meyer. Frank Car on and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas made a business trip to Bellefonte on Monday.

Miss Edna Royer and sister of Altoona are visiting at the W. W. McCormick home. Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Alexander of Bellefonte spent Sunday with the former's uncle, Michael Smith. Quite a few young people of this place took in the show at Lewisburg on Saturday.

Pau, Lot, and Miss Cora McClenahan are spending a short time at the McClenahan home. Miss Anna Wilkinson returned to Chicago after spending two weeks with her parents. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Coldron and children of Huntingdon are visiting the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Blausner.

Miss Mae McClellan of Tusseyville, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas and son Richard, Miss Nellie Bible, and John Blinner, spent a pleasant evening at the home of Michael Smith.

Centre Hill.

Robert Smith has returned from his trip to Iowa.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Burkholder have been visiting relatives in this place.

Miss Mary Byers and Mrs. H. J. Foust have returned home from their trip to Philadelphia where they were visiting the former's relatives.

School opened Monday with an attendance of twenty pupils. Several of the children around here are kept at home on account of having whooping cough.