

TURN TO THE PANNIER

FRENCH MODISTES TAKE UP THE NEW STYLE.

Old Fashion Revived and in Pronounced Form—Has Much to Recommend It From the Point of Beauty.

At the Newport fashion show as well as at the openings in Paris, there was an undoubted preference shown to the pannier.

In these she makes the pannier of tulle or gold lace, sometimes wired to stand out, again bunched high in masses of materials.

Paris has shown an even more pronounced form of the pannier borrowed from Marie Antoinette's day. The skirt of the special frock that has caused much comment has a flounce of blue chiffon edged with velvet ribbon, over which are panniers of flowered yellow taffeta.

Panniers are not exactly the kind of thing that one wears well in the street, but for the evening they are charming.

If the fashion for combining lace with satin or flowered silk is actually taken up as it deserves to be, then the pannier will be the most expressive way of handling these two materials in juxtaposition.

BROADCLOTH SUIT

Black chiffon broadcloth suit with circular skirt scalloped at the bottom and plaited around the hips. The jacket is short, coming to the waist, and buttons down the front.

Box or bag? Either one of the last two places is the most convenient receptacle for the purpose. The latter can be made of white or tan linen or rep.

MAKING USE OF "SQUARES"

Hint for Those Who Have an Over-supply of Those Always Useful Little Articles.

"I have a number of these square crash doilies which I had intended for a luncheon set before I was married," said Mrs. Bride-of-a-Month.

"I know just how you feel," interrupted Mrs. Bride-of-a-Year. "I had a half dozen beautiful little squares all embroidered in dull blue on crash, but I made use of them.

metal will have its place among the evening fabrics and no one wants more than a yard or two of it on a gown.

Patch Bag.

Now just where do you keep your patches? Do you let them lie in an untidy fashion in a bureau drawer?

PRETTY AND EASY TO MAKE

Costume for Small Girl That Will Give Very Little Trouble to Her Mother.

With finely embroidered flouncings one can turn out, as if by magic, the adorable, tiny confections that make up a tiny girl's wardrobe.

The cunning little design shown here concedes a trifle more to elaboration, for there are many tiny tucks run through the material to hold it in at a high waist line.

Woe sleeves in the shape of a ruffe edge of the embroidery are set around the armholes and caught up on the shoulders with bows of colored

FIND OF THE SEASON

Barney Dreyfuss Uncovered Gem in Pitcher Mamaux

Pittsburgh Twirler Ranks Next to Alexander in Number of Games Won—Youngster Found on Sand Lots of Smoky City.

Al Mamaux, the new pitcher of the Pirates, alone is entitled to that oft-bestowed description, "the sensation of the season."

What is he worth now? Well—don't say there isn't money in the baseball sensation. It is doubtful if money could buy him.

They call him a second Mathewson, and he is about the only "second Mathewson" we have heard of in some time that was worthy of the name.

If you ask a ball player how good Al is as a pitcher you will receive an answer after this fashion: "A great pitcher—the most concerted in the league!"

Mamaux is of a well-to-do family, it is said, and does not have to play ball for a living.

Albert Leon Mamaux.

However, he is none the less a great pitcher. And he is only 20 years old and playing his first season in big business.

Mamaux is a right-hander and also bats right-handed. He is six feet tall and weighs 167 pounds.

FREAK BASEBALL PLAYS

The possibilities of baseball are evinced in various ways. Freak plays are recorded in amateur and professional games that would be considered ridiculous if propounded at a fanning bee.

A new Federal league recruit tells a story of how four batters, whom he struck out in a row while pitching for his college team, scored, which is unique in baseball annals.

Gather and Gilbert.

The Toronto club has secured Outfielder Ted Gather and Larry Gilbert from the Boston National club.

Mike Kahoe is Fired.

Clark Griffith has fired Mike Kahoe, his veteran scout, and says that he is going to do all the scouting for the Washington club in the future.

SCHALK PLAYS "JOKE" ON "NEMO" LEIBOLD

RAY SCHALK

NEMO LEIBOLD

Ray Schalk is tickled because Nemo Leibold is with the White Sox. The two players were on the Milwaukee Club of the American Association some years ago.

As time went on, Schalk was purchased by the White Sox and Leibold went to the Cleveland Naps. This did not interfere with their friendship, however.

One day, with Jim Scott pitching, the White Sox got into a jam. With two out, the Naps had the bases full. Nemo Leibold was sent up to bat in the pinch by Manager Birmingham.

Schalk decided to play a little joke on his former "roomie" and incidentally get Scott out of a hole if possible.

The Fed league will not enter Boston next year.

Hank O'Day denies that he was a jinx to the Cubs.

Babe Adams is pitching winning ball for the Pirates.

Frank Schulte is walloping the ball with real vigor these days.

The return to form of King Cole has given Bill Donovan a lot of real joy.

Barring accidents, the Washington club is going to be hard to stop.

Larry Chappell is not going to jump to the Feds, in spite of the big money offered him.

Anyhow, Johnny Evers has solved the problem of how to get the fans out to the ball park.

The Athletics are making plenty of hits these days, but they aren't much of a scoring organization.

It looks as if the Pirates are going to play a bigger part than a bowl of mush in the pennant competition this season.

Manager Rowland thinks he has the best utility outfielder in the American league in the person of Little Nemo Leibold.

Dave Robertson of the Giants has developed into a corking good hitter. He is as fast as Ty Cobb between home and first.

We wonder what has become of the lucky penny that Capt. Cushman Rice gave to George Stallings last season. Is it still on the job?

Left Fielder Wheat of the Brooklyn team is credited with knowing as much about playing for batters as any man in the big league.

John Hummel probably is one of the oldest players in the National league in point of service, but he has not outlived his usefulness.

Frank Chance, Jawn Evers and Hank O'Day, former Cub managers, ought to hold a consolation party and entertain Rog Bresnahan.

Ralph ("Cy") Perkins of Gloucester, Mass., who is a catcher with the Raleigh team, in the North Carolina league, has been sold to Connie Mack.

The players of the National league are complaining of the gag rule the league has put on them this year. Every time one of them opens his mouth he is fined.

received a letter from Mary recently. The Nap player turned half around. "No, Ray; she hasn't written in weeks. Wonder what's the matter?"

Scott had shot a ball through and the umpire called "Strike one!" "That's funny," replied Schalk, "I thought she wrote at least once a week."

"Guess she's too busy to write," said Leibold, glancing around again. "Another ball shot across."

"Strike two!" yelled the umpire. The two coaches on the lines frantically tried to give Leibold the signal. They couldn't understand why he stood there as if in a trance.

"Well, I heard from Helen," exclaimed Schalk. "She's going to Michigan on a two weeks' trip."

"Gee, that's great," answered Leibold, keeping his bat on his shoulder. "She's certainly a dandy girl."

"You bet she is," grinned Schalk as the third strike whizzed across. "Batter out!" snapped the umpire, and Nemo walked to the bench.

Few fans and not so many players realize the important part that brains play in the modern game of baseball.

Oscar Stange, the first-class Detroit catcher, once said: "Catching demands one-third physical ability and two-thirds mental work."

In making this statement he did not overestimate the mental part of it. A good arm and a good eye never made a wonderful ball player. He must have these ingredients in his make-up.
