LOCALS

Look over the lost and found adv. in this issue.

There remains room in the world for emigrants that didn't get on the ticket on Tuesday.

Miss Gertrude Keefe of Youngwood was the guest of her sister-in-law, Mrs. Thomas Keefe, at the Brungart home, from Friday until Monday.

Son No. 2 was born to Mr. and Mrs. Edward E. Bailey Wednesday evening of last week. The nurse in charge is Mrs. Anna Stevenson of Millheim.

Although the prospects for big prices on evaporated fruit is anything but promising, the Centre Hall Evaporating plant will try to do business this fall.

Mr. and Mrs. George Emig of Green Burr were guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Hubler, and from here went to State College where they visited Mr. and Mrs. I. V. Showers.

Mrs. A. E. Garman of Cleveland, Ohio, was the guest of her cousin, Prof. W. A. Kriss, last week. Mrs. Garman is a native of Penna Valley and was raised near Centre Hall.

Mrs. Emma Breon and daughter, Miss Besse Breon, on Tuesday left for Camden, New York, where they will remain for a month at the home of the former's son, Maurice P. Breon.

Rev. R. T. Patch of Altoona, representing the Pennsylvania Anti-Slavery League, will preach in the Presbyterian church Sunday morning and in the Reformed church in the evening.

Cloyd Brooks, farmer on the Rhoneymeds farm, will install a "Wizard" gasoline lighting system in the big farm house, next week. He purchased the plant from F. P. Geary of this place.

Credits on subscription will be given next week. If you have not paid your subscription since the last appearance of the PINK label, right now is the time to buy a "G" so that it will appear on next week's PINK label.

A farewell party was given to Miss Carrie Sweetwood at her home Tuesday evening by members of the Christian Endeavor Society of the Presbyterian church. Miss Sweetwood left on Wednesday for Philadelphia.

Wallace W. Weaver, who for eleven years has been a telegrapher in the offices of the Penna at Birdsboro, did not fail to reach Penna Valley in time to attend the Grange Encampment and Fair, and visit his parents across the valley. Mr. Weaver thinks the railroads in his locality were never busier than they are at present.

On the charge of disorderly conduct and resisting arrest, Isaac M. Thomas of Bellefonte was arraigned before Justice Brungart Thursday of last week and fined seven dollars. The prosecutor was Michael Gerver, a state police stationed at Pleasant Gap, who found it necessary to use his "billy" on Thomas' head when the latter made a move toward his hip pocket after an altercation between the two on Grange Park, Tuesday night. Thomas spent the torrid night in the town lockup.

The Niagara Falls excursion, last Sunday, one section of which left Bellefonte, was a harvest for the Pennsylvania Railroad Company. At Bellefonte thirteen coaches were comfortably filled, and at Lock Haven, Altoona, and other points other sections were crowded with excursionists. The fare for the round trip was three dollars. Those from Centre Hall who made the trip were Messrs. Harry McClenahan, Clymer McClenahan, William Gfrerer, Alfred Crawford, and Wilbur Henney.

A visit to the southland a year or two ago, so impressed Dr. Ed. L. Miller of Johnstown that he intends moving there to "grow up with the orange," so he related to the writer on Grange Park last week. Dr. Miller recently became the owner of two tracts of land in Florida, both of which tracts are covered with orange trees in full bearing. One of the tracts is within the limits of a thriving city, and a new home will be erected. The move to the south will be made during the early winter. One of the reasons for the change of climate is the almost certain guarantee that Dr. Miller will be benefited for an affection of the throat.

Transportation Bus Upset; Two Hurt.

The big yellow transportation bus running between State College and Bellefonte upset Monday morning at eight o'clock while on its way to State College, on the state road at Lemon, near the farm of D. A. Grove. The bus was carrying a number of passengers but only two were hurt—James Houser of Peru sustained three broken ribs and bruises, and a Hartwick lad of State College received bruises on the body.

The accident occurred when the big car attempted to turn out for a two-horse wagon and got into the ditch. In attempting to gain the road after passing the wagon the car toppled over, the top resting on the road and the wheels pointed skyward.

Neck and Neck.

The race between "Jack Frost" and "King Corn" promises to be the closest in many years. This annual event is being run off under the eyes of thousands of interested spectators, thronging the race course, the surrounding hillsides and even the front steps of the grocery stores facing the track.

A late start and heavy track have made hard going for the husky champion. As they swing past the last quarter post and enter the home stretch he is a good length behind with his white antagonist hugging the inside fence. The green and yellow boy kept to his pace bravely during the past ten days and seems to be gathering his energies for a final burst of speed which his more hopeful admirers say will bring him to victory. The race may have been finished before this issue of the Reporter reaches all its readers, and if it has Jack Frost will not get such a big prize even if he wins out.

Spring Mills.

Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Gramley were to New York state last week. Calvin Kennedy spent Tuesday at Pleasant Gap.

Miss Mabel Allison is visiting her brother, Charles in Toronto, Canada. Mr. and Mrs. Archie Decker and family of Millinburg spent a few days with friends and relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. James Corman of Rebersburg spent Sunday with their granddaughter, Mrs. Austin Long. John Smith and daughter, Mrs. Windom Gramley, and son, are spending their vacation at Niagras Falls.

Ira Bartly, who is working on the state road at Pennsylvania Furnace, spent Sunday at home.

Mr. Charles Greenoble and daughter of Lewisburg spent a week with I. J. Zubler and wife, returning to their home on Saturday.

PENN HALL

James Rockey of Altoona visited his sisters, Mrs. John Albright and Mrs. James Crater, for a few days.

Frank, Luther and Lucy Muser attended the funeral of their niece's child, in Nittany Valley, on Sunday.

Mrs. Frank Muser visited her brother, James Runkle, at Tusseyville, on Sunday.

Ralph Kramer visited his parents last week. He is going to business college at Williamsport.

Phillip Shook and family left for West Philadelphia on Tuesday morning where he will take a three years' course in veterinary surgery in the University. They will make their home in the city.

On Saturday evening John Neese and family were at Spring Mills in their car. On their way home in front of Mrs. Guise's house, Ray Roseman was going down the pike in a buggy, and was busy putting his side curtains on. Mr. Neese was following in his car. Roseman turned to one side and then to the other, and in the confusion Mr. Neese was forced to run his car on the bank, breaking a front wheel. No one was hurt. William Sinkabine took the Neese family home after the accident occurred.

FRUITTOWN.

J. B. Fohringer made a business trip to Millroy Saturday.

Edward Rubb, and Rush Dippery spent a few days last week with friends at Pine Grove.

William Beeson and family of State College on Sunday autored to the Edward Rubb home where they spent the afternoon.

Fred Klinsfelter, who had been on the sick list for the past week, is able to be out again.

Mrs. Nevel went to Millin county one day last week where she will spend some time with her son, Charles.

After spending a few weeks with friends and relatives at this place, Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Sapanara returned to their home in New York City on Saturday.

The primaries are over, and now for a real scrap.

DEATHS.

The remains of Miss Aida Jeannette Sankey will be interred in the local cemetery this (Thursday) afternoon, on arrival from Lewistown, where the death occurred in the hospital. Miss Sankey became a patient at the hospital on Sunday previous to her death, her ailment being heart trouble and complication.

The deceased was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Sankey, and grew to womanhood near Centre Hall. She was a sufferer from tuberculosis for many years, but was extremely active through her entire life. She was a good christian woman, kind and sympathetic. She was a Methodist in religious profession and very attentive to her church vows.

Upon her death, Miss Sankey was taken to the home of her nephew, John Odenkirk, Lewistown, from which place the cortege started this morning to Centre Hall. The deceased was aged fifty-six years, eleven months and fifteen days. The only surviving member of the Sankey family is a sister, Mrs. Mattie Gregg, of State College.

Mrs. Annie McKernan, widow of James McKernan, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Donald Cameron, in Altoona, Sunday evening, of heart trouble, aged sixty-one years. The body was shipped to Oak Hill station Wednesday afternoon and conveyed to Boalsburg where interment was made. Deceased was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Knoff and was born at Linden Hall. For the past four years she made her home in Altoona. She was twice married, her first husband being a Mr. Davis. One child—Miss Maud Davis of New York city survives this union. To her second husband the daughter residing in Altoona survives. The following brothers and sisters also remain to mourn her loss, namely, Wm. F. State College; Samuel, Ohio; Anthony M., Mr. John Barter, Mrs. George Mayer, Pittsburg; Albert, in the west; Mrs. Nancy Carrigan, Lee Angeles, Cal.; Mrs. James T. Irvin, Snow Shoe.

Jonathan Shuey, the oldest man in Ferguson township, died at his home near Pine Grove Mills, Thursday, after a lingering illness of about a year, resulting from a paralytic stroke. His age was within two months of ninety years. Funeral services were held Saturday and burial made at Houserville, Rev. C. C. Shuey of Bellefonte officiating. Surviving him are his wife and two sons, Milton and George Shuey, both of State College. He was a Civil War veteran and served his country with honor. He was a member of the United Evangelical church and an honest and upright citizen. Sixty-five years ago he was married to Mary Coble, the surviving widow, and their wedded life was one of perfect calm and happiness.

Mr. Daniel Kerstetter died at her home near Coburn Monday morning of heart trouble, aged sixty-six years. Funeral services will be held today (Thursday) and interment made in the Paradise cemetery, near Coburn, Rev. John Price of the Evangelical church officiating. Surviving her are her husband and five children, namely, William, of Ingleby; Charles, of Altoona; Frank, of Coburn; Mrs. Anna Goggle and Mrs. Laura Hieker, of Northumberland. Also one sister, Mrs. Rachael Stover of Coburn.

Centre Hill. Mr. and Mrs. Howard Faust spent Sunday with relatives in Milroy.

The school house of this place was cleaned on Saturday and is reported in excellent condition now. There seemed to have been some trouble in getting it cleaned this year. Charles Faust was among the unfortunate ones at the Grangers Picnic this year. While feeding his horse on Wednesday evening the animal ran off, upsetting the buggy and hurting itself some, but it is not thought seriously. No person was seriously hurt.

Potters Mills. Dr. and Mrs. Alexander of Bellefonte visited Emanuel and Michael Smith over Sunday.

Rev. Willms preached a very interesting Harvest Home sermon and the church was beautifully decorated with all kinds of fruits, grains and flowers.

Miss Ethel Colyer of Pittsburg visited her many friends of this place. Jesse McClenahan was very busy during picnic with his Paige car.

Joseph Carner, Frank Carner, William Montgomery, Richard Alumer, and Frank Palmer took the trip to Niagara Falls on Saturday night.

Georges Valley. Mrs. Nora Ripka spent Monday with friends at Potters Mills.

Mrs. Caroline Confer of Revere is visiting friends here for a few weeks. E. M. Lingir, who has been sick for some time, is not improving at this writing.

Mrs. F. P. Herman of Altoona spent a few days last week at the home of her brother, John Vonada.

Mr. and Mrs. P. F. Confer spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Golbic.

These who spent Sunday at the F. A. Haugh home were Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Vonada, Mr. Stuart, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Grove and children.
