LOCALS

September term of court opens on Monday.

J. E. Rishel had several percheron horses on exhibition at the Grange Encampment.

Miss May V. Rhone of Harrisburg spent last week at home with her father, Hon. L. Rhone and sister, Miss Florence.

Tuesday was the first day of fall, according to the calendar. It was truly a day characteristic of the season it opened.

Miss Isabel Rowe is teaching the primary school at Axe Mann during the illness of the regular teacher, Miss Elsie Herman.

Abram V. Miller of Pleasant Gap and daughter, Mrs. Lizzie Blythe of West Philadelphia were guests of J. T. Potter one day last week.

C. W. Slack, who several weeks ago was operated upon for appendicitis of a most serious form, is steadily improving and is now able to walk about the house.

Mrs. William A. Magee and son Huyett, after spending a month or more at the Huyett home, returned to their home in Wenonah, New Jersey, on Wednesday.

Messrs. James I. Krick and William H. Krick motored from McClure, Snydertown, Saturday evening, and remained until Monday at the home of their sister, Mrs. Kate Fetterolf.

Misses Bethel and Winifred Smith of Pittsburg, daughters of A. J. Smith, a celebrated musician, spent a week at the home of their cousin, Mrs. G. O. Benner.

Mr. and Mrs. John Rockey of State College and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Rockey of Fillmore spent a few days last week at the home of the former Mr. Rockey's niece, Mrs. James F. Stahl.

Mr. and Mrs. B. U. Bitner and two children of Avis spent a day last week in Centre Hall where the former visited his brother, Dr. H. F. Bitner, and the latter her sister, Mrs. I. A. Sweetwood.

B. D. Brisbin and daughter, Mrs. George Robertson, made a trip in the former's Reo car to Lewistown on Monday, where they met Mr. Robertson who came from Hartford, Conn., to spend a short time here.

John Slack, third son of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Slack, east of Centre Hall, took suddenly ill one day last week, displaying symptoms of appendicitis. Dr. H. H. Longwell, the family physician, scattered the trouble and the youth is now enjoying good health.

F. V. Goodhart, the furniture man, on Saturday received the Ford car for which he had been waiting for several months. Mr. Goodhart is ready to take the wheel, having learned his lessons while waiting for the arrival of his own machine.

Two former pastors of the Penna Valley Lutheran church, and their families, were present during the Encampment week—Rev. and Mrs. J. M. Reardon and son Walter of Williamsburg, and Rev. and Mrs. B. F. Bieker and daughter Frances of West Milton.

A new order issued by the Postoffice Department provides for the sender of a parcel post package to secure a receipt stating that a particular package has been mailed. The cost is but one cent. The receipt is especially valuable when a package is returned, as it can be produced in case of failure to receive proper credit.

The excessive hot period just past had a marked beneficial effect on the corn crop. The hot sun evaporated the moisture and greatly aided the corn stalks in maturing the corn ears, and now much of the corn crop in Penna Valley is well enough advanced toward perfect maturity not to be damaged to any great extent by frost which may come at any time.

Among those from Harrisburg who attended the Grange Encampment and Fair was Aaron H. Harter, who a number of years ago moved from this place to the state capital. Mr. Harter was busy shaking hands with his many former acquaintances who had gathered on the Park and ready to devote a large portion of their time to social intercourse.

John H. Knarr last week received from a Williamsport taxidermist the mounted head of a fine specimen of spike buck which he killed in the Seven Mountains last fall. It is a fine example of the taxidermist's art and will grace the hall of the hunter's home, filling the capacity of a hall rack, since the four feet of the deer are also beautifully mounted on the shield.

It was a great disappointment to George E. Meyer of Boalsburg, the musical instrument dealer, that the four Lookhart high grade pianos were misshipped from the factory and landed at Newport instead of Centre Hall, about the time of the opening of the Grange Encampment and Fair. Mr. Meyer had arranged to have a fine display of musical instruments, but fate ordered otherwise. The instruments are now on the Park, where Mr. Meyer will be pleased to show them to prospective buyers.

Auto Hits Buggy.

The big King touring car of L. L. Smith came in collision with a horse and buggy Thursday evening at nine o'clock that resulted badly for the buggy as well as for the occupants. It was during the heavy traffic incident to the Encampment and Fair that the accident occurred and is one that happens frequently. Mr. Smith in company with Mr. Thompson, an experienced auto driver, of Bellefonte, who was running the car, attempted to pass around another car when he sighted the horse and buggy coming toward them. The three vehicles were too closely bunched and the less formidable one had to suffer in the smash-up. The buggy was a new one with rubber tires and was driven by Earl Rimmey of Pleasant Gap with whom was Miss Elsie Herman, teacher of the primary school at Axe Mann. Both were tarrown to the ground and the latter was the more seriously hurt, but at present is improving nicely. The horse tore loose from the buggy and started up town where it was stopped. The shafts and top of the buggy were damaged most while the auto was dinged at the hood and fender. The accident occurred in front of the W. B. Mingle home.

Pine Grove Mills

Farmer Ishler has been quite ill the past week.

Harry Sager of Lewistown was here last week greeting old friends.

Harry Burns and wife of Altoona visited old neighbors recently.

Mr. Charles Ross visited friends in and about Boalsburg recently.

Mr. and Mrs. James Harpster are suffering a bilious attack.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hoy spent Sunday at the Ross home.

Preaching in the Presbyterian church at this place Sunday afternoon.

Ralph Dunlap and William Gardner, Jr., are fever victims; both are improving.

Messrs. Fortney, John Erhart and Ernest Hess of Altoona spent a day in town last week.

W. H. Brown and family, in their new Ford car, autoed to Millheim and spent the Sabbath at the Charles Stover home.

Sumner Miller in going to his barn last Friday found one of his best horses dead in the stall.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wagner came over from Fairbrook and spent the first day of the week at the Allen Wieland home.

A surprise birthday party was given in honor of Mrs. A. A. Price, wife of the M. E. minister, at the parsonage, September 9th. Their home was thronged with good people from Franklinville, Huntingdon, Fairbrook, Pine Grove Mills, and other points. The zizzling hot weather did not deter their coming laden with the best the old farm and market could produce. The day was happily spent and it was a late hour when the invaders took their leave, wishing Mrs. Price many happy returns of her natal day, and so we all say.

HAPPILY MARRIED.

William N. Wilson and Miss Laura Bell James were united in marriage Wednesday of last week by Rev. A. A. Price at the M. E. parsonage. A few guests were present. The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Wilson of Lewistown, and the bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur James of Burnham. Both are well and favorably known and have the best wishes of a host of friends.

AARONSBURG.

Mrs. Kate Bell, who is here on a visit, is housed up with eye trouble.

Dr. and Mrs. J. J. Deshler left on Friday for their western home.

Earl Vonada of Centre Oak spent Sunday with his brother.

Mr. and Mrs. Adams and daughter Marion of Millheim spent Sunday in this place.

Prof. Bartlett opened his school with 16 scholars; Mr. Rauchau with 21, and Miss Meda Bower with 29.

Harry King of Mount Union has come home for a month or so; he likes his work in the brick yard.

Mrs. Barbara Stover, widow of Harvey Stover, is making her home now with her daughter, Mrs. Keller.

Mrs. Sara Leltzel returned home from Tyrone after spending a few months with her children.

George Stahl and sister, Mary, left on Wednesday for Milton and other points.

Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Eby returned to their New York City home on Monday.

Mrs. Susan Stover of Rebersburg is visiting at the home of her brother, Robert Hosterman, and at the home of Ralph Stover.

Miss Cora Sweetwood, who for some years has been located in Colchester, Connecticut, was called to her native state on account of the death of her sister, Mrs. Amos Alexander, a notice of which appeared in a recent issue. While in this community she was the guest of her sister, Mrs. William M. Grove, at Spring Mills. For the present she will be at Milroy, but later expects to return to Connecticut, but to some other town than Colchester.

REBERSBURG

Simon Spangler of Newton, Kansas, is at present visiting at this place.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Bair of Altoona are at present visiting relatives in this town.

Thomas Walker is at this writing seriously ill with little hopes for his recovery.

Messrs. David and William Meyer, both of Centre Hall, spent Friday at this place on business.

Edwin Weaver left on Thursday for Lewisburg where he entered as a student at Bucknell college.

Our farmers are busy seeding and filling their silos and cutting corn, the crop of which is excellent.

Mrs. Reed of Millinburg is spending a week at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Mowers.

Mayes, the marble man of Howard, erected several fine monuments in the cemetery at this place during the past week.

Quite a number of cows bloated and died in this valley this fall, all on account of the rank growth of the young clover in which they were pasturing.

Henry Gilbert, after spending several weeks at this place with his aged parents, left on Friday to resume his work in the department of justice at Washington, D. C.

This week a new carpet will be placed in the Lutheran church; the new seats will also be placed this week and the church after receiving a general renovation in the line of painting and frescoing, etc., will be dedicated on Sunday.

During the past week carpenter Bierly cut through the brick wall at the south-east corner of the Lutheran church at this place, and placed a door there and also placed steps and a landing so that the members of the choir can enter the room at this place without walking through the entire building to take their seats in choir space allotted to them.

Stone Mill.

Gay and Alvin Floray are improving.

Mrs. Neese of Rebersburg is visiting at the James McCool home.

Miss Anna M. Harter is under the doctor's care.

William Lingle was a Sunday visitor at the James Harshbarger home.

James Goodhart is the first farmer in our community to have corn cut off.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Horner are the proud parents of a young daughter.

Blaine Palmer and crew are erecting an implement shed on the Burkholder farm, west of Centre Hill.

Thomas Hosterman, the hustling huckster, made two trips to State College last week.

Miss Mae Noll of Green Grove took supper with her parents on Thursday evening at Red Mill.

Supervisor Frank Bodgan and crew were in this community attending to the roads on Monday.

Miss Marion Bible of Centre Hill spent Saturday afternoon with her friend, Miss Mattie McCool.

David Geary's newly sown piece of alfalfa is beginning to look very green and it seems as though David is going to be an alfalfa grower of some note.

Linden Hall

Ralph Thomas entered the Sophomore class at State last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Williams spent Sunday at the J. H. Ross home.

Roy Catherman went to Ohio where he is employed on a dairy farm.

Hugh Ralston has been on the sick list this week.

Mr. and Mrs. George M. Hall and daughter, Virginia, and Mr. and Mrs. Cloyd Roaley were an auto party from Huntingdon who were here for the opening of the Grange's Picnic.

CENTRE MILLS

Harry Bechtel has gone to Pennsylvania Furnace to work.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira Shultz visited relatives at Aaronsburg Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Corman and Mr. and Mrs. Walker are attending court this week.

Mrs. Bechtel spent several days in Rebersburg last week assisting in preparing for the funeral of Mrs. Breor.

Mr. Best has been filling his silo the past week.

Among those who attended the Grange Encampment last week were Mr. Reish and family, Charles Coble and family, Mary and Paul Shaffer, and Miss Ida Rauchau, Arthur Cummings and family and Ollie Vonada.

The "pop" man and ice cream man—to say nothing of the dispenser of that other class of "wet goods"—are still counting the shekles that rolled in last week at the Grange Encampment and Fair.

Saturday night for a short period the heaviest downpour of rain in many months occurred. There was much speculation among those who witnessed it as to what effect such a downpour would have had upon the big crowd which was assembled on Grange Park forty-eight hours previous.
