notices accompanying display advertis cents per line for each insertion; other ght cents per line, minimum charge

CHURCH APPOINTMENTS.

Lutheran-Centre Hall, morning, communion Tussevville, afternoon; Spring Mills, evening. United Evangelical-Centre Hall, morning Linden Hall, afternoon; Lemont, evening, union

Reformed-Centre Hall morning: Union afternoon; Spring Mills, evening. Rev. Theo dore F. Herman, D. D., of Lancaster, will preach at all three appointments

THE TICKET.

President Judge of Centre County. ELLIS L. ORVIS, Bellefonte.

County Democratic Ticket Sheriff GEORGE H. RICHARDS, Philipsbur Prothonotary
DAVID R. FOREMAN, Bellefonte

Treasure JAMES E. HARTER, Coburn Register J. FRANK SMITH, Bellefonte Recorder W. FRANCIS SPEER, Bellefonte WILLIAM H. NOLL, Pleasant Gap

D. A. GROVE, Lemont District Attorney
D. PAUL FORTNEY, Bellefonte Auditors SINIE H. Hoy, Benner Twp. JEREMIAH BRUNGART, Miles Twp. County Surveyor
PAUL L. WETZEL, Beliefonte

Spring Mills. Mrs. R. G. Kennelly is visiting her husband at Snow Shoe.

Mrs. Stitzer returned from a visit to Rochester, N. Y., well pleased with her trip. Mrs. Harry Bressler of Fiedler spent Mrs. Jerry Shunk. The families of Dr. Braucht, A. N.

Finkle, H. F. Rossman, and H. M. Allison autoed to Snow Shoe on Sun-The district S. S. convention will be held in the M. E. church on Friday, sessions. Frank McClellan and family, Mr.

and Mrs. Jasper Wagner and Calvin Meyer and family, autoed to Lewistown on Sunday.

Mrs. Ralph Shook of near Madisonburg was brought to the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Long, on Thursday and taken the same day to the hospital at Bellefonte.

beloved and respected by every one.

PENN HALL

Gap is working for Eli Smith. week.

Hagen, at Farmers Mills.

Mrs. Ephraim Shook returned home among friends and relatives in the western states.

Charles Bartges and family, accompanied by Mr. Bartges's mother, spent Sunday with Charles Frankenberger and family, at Smithtown.

The funeral of Mrs. Grenoble was largely attended. The dinner was prepared at the home of William Sinkabine, which was Mrs. Grenoble's Christie Shook and Irma Shook made a trip to Union county in their car on Sunday, taking Mr. Crater and family with them. They spent the day at the home of Thomas Stover, formerly of Centre county.

Aaronsburg.

J. Lynn from Altoons spent Sunday at the home of Mrs. Jane Sylvis. Quite a few people from here are attending the Lewisburg fair this week. Mrs. Stump during her illness is being cared for by her brother John and

George Stahl from Milton is the guest of his sister, Mary, for an indefi-

Mrs. Harry Mensch from Sunbury home of her husband's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Mensch.

The Woman's Civic Club of Boalsing, October 30tb. The admission price is 25 and 15 cents.

Friday, the first day of the hunting wild turkeys, at least-for not a one fonte on Monday. was even injured by any of the local bers. Bruce Stahl came closest to bagging one, but a slight attack of that serious hunter's malady-buck fevercaused him to miss twice on a big bird.

D. W. Bradford bagged a brace of pheasants and a grey equirrel, and several other bunters came in with from one to three greys, while a majority returned empty handed.

along Nittany Mountain in Dutrow's main near the depot. woods, observed a doe deer.

rels the first and four the second day of the season.

Wesley Henninger, who lives above Colyer, succeeded in killing a wild turkey on the first day's bunt.

Fred Lose and Fred Mulfinger of Pleasant Gap are encamped at the old dam in Greens Valley where they will spend a week in quest of wild turkeys and pheasants.

Hunters from Pleasant Gap seem to be most successful in bagging wild turkeys and among those who killed birds are Miles Bilger, William Bilger, Pierce Lonberger, and Mr. Noll. John Bubb of Colyer killed six grey quirrels on the first day. John Mowery of Black Hawk killed a fine wild turkey last week. Fred Slack and Wallace Runkle, two youthful hunters, proved to be good shots when each bagged the limit latter came in the second day with six more greys, the limit for a day's hunt. According to these reports small game seems plentiful, nevertheless it requires skill and a good eye to bag the cunning grey equirrel.

Mrs. Mary Ann Grenoble Dead. Mrs. Mary Ann Grenoble died at her home at Penn Hall last Thursday morning at eleven o'clock, of infirmities due to old age, being seventy-four years, nine months and sixteen days urday morning at the home and burial in the Green Grove cemetery, Rev. Caris of the United Evangelical of sixteen pigs one day last week. church officiating.

Mrs. Grenoble was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Moses Ream and practically all her life lived in the communi- result of being mistaken for a wild ty in which she died. She was twice turkey by an unknown hunter. Sunday with her parents, Mr. and married, her first husband having Meese fell to the ground, saw the man been Samuel Renfeger, and her second and called to him but the fellow ran Adam Grenoble. Both preceded her away. to the grave. Two children survive Mrs. R. M. Magee and sor, Boyd within 50 feet of the lake he would to the first marrisge, namely, Miss Mager, of Philadelphis, after spending have been dashed to pieces on the Anna C. Reninger, at home, and Mrs. a few days in Bellefonte and Williams-John H. Moyer, of fusseyville. No port, returned to Centre Hall this brothers or sisters survive. For a October 22; afternoon and evening half century or more she was a con- Magee was compelled to spend a few sistent member of the Evangelical days in bed because of an illness which church and as long as health permitted she was found at all of the services fever. of her church. A kind and loving mother and sympathetic neighbor, her death is widely mourned.

Pennsylvania Day at State College,

Pennsylvania Day will be celebrated at State College on November 5. The community has lost a good Plans are being perfected for the citizen by the death of Mrs. Mary largest and most interesting observ-Grenoble. She was a good kind ance of the Day that Penn State has mission, 25, 85 and 50 centr. neighbor and a true christian woman, ever attempted. Early indications point to a great out-pouring of alumni, Her daughter Anna has gone to live State officials, members of both the with her sister, Mrs. Moyer, at Tussey- Assembly and State Senate, and persons who want to visit their State College.

A varied program, consisting of the Mrs. Edward Ishler from Pleasant following features has been prepared: Addresses by Governor Brumbaugh, Mrs. Rebecca Kline from Howard and D. F. Houston, secretary of the visited her friend, Mrs. Herring, last United States department of agriculture ; a review of the student regiment Mrs. Sarah Hartman is spending by a member of the general staff from some time with her sister, Mrs. Harry Washington; dedications of the new mining building; exhibition by the school of engineering and the school of on Thursday, from several weeks visit agriculture; a glee club concert; the senior class dance; and a football game between behigh University and Penn State.

Marriage Licenses, James Shirk, Runville Mary Mitchell, Fleming Chester Hessinger, Norristown Della Lykens, Scotia Edmund Shaullis, Holsopple Nellie Ott, Holsopple Samuel Nixor, Philipsburg Mary Phillips, Philipsburg

Centre Hill.

Miss Stella Hosterman spent Sun-Potters Mills.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Foust spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Cummings.

Mr. and Mrs. Loyd Smith and family were visitors at the Loyd

Brown home on Sunday. Farmers around here are very busy putting away their apples.

Professor James A. Moyer, now in charge of the departments of extenwas entertained for a few days at the sion education and mechanical engineering at the Pennsylvania State Colege, was on Tuesday notified that Governor Walsh of Massachusetts had appointed him director of the new On his ceturn he was accompanied by Thanksgiving, erected by the Romans burg will hold their annual masque-rade ball in Boal hall, Seturday even-ing October 30th. The admission will accept his new position imm

Mrs. Lizzie Jacobs and daughter, season, proved a good one-for the Miss Margaret, made a trip to Belie-

Mrs. J. C. Rossman returned on Frinimrods who were out in the moun- day from a two weeks' visit with relstains before daybreak in strong num- tives in Lewisburg and New Berlin.

Mre. E. S. Ripks, who for the past two weeks has suffered from a nervous breakdown, is steadily improving.

Miss Orpha Gramley of Spring Mills was the guest of her friend, Miss Helen Bartholomew, for a few days this week. Bradford's mill was shut down Tuesday afternoon because the power was Clyde Bradford, while hunting affected through a break in the water Miss Tammie Lee, daughter of Mr.

spent Saturday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Bradford. Mrs. Guy Harshbarger of Altoons is the home lof her sunt, Mrs. James Smetzler, in this place. Harry L. Moyer is nursing a very sore finger, the member having been slightly injured some time ago, and later blood poison set in. Mesere. W. O. Rearick of Milroy and L. G. Rearick of Jersey Shore spent Tuesday at the home of their mother, Mrs. Mary Rearick, in this place.

Mrs. John H. Snyder and son, David Snyder, of Oak Hall spent Sunday at the home of the former's daughter, Mre. Harry Davidson, at Milroy.

Rev. and Mrs. J. J. Glenn and two children of Carlisle are spending a short time at the home of Mrs. of grey squirrels the first day. The Glenn's mother, Mrs. Mary Goodhart. Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Stahl and little on Robert of Altoons spent a few days beginning of this week at the bome of the former's parents, Mr. and

Mrs. J. S. Stahl, in this place. Mrs. Anna McClenshan of Potters Mills is lying seriously ill of pleurcpneumonia at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Orvis Horner, near Colyer. Riley, Mr. and Mrs. Rowc. A num-Mrs. McClenahan is advanced in years. ber of young folks walked to the camp

Farmer George Slack of Pleasant after dinner. Gap must be classed among the top old. Funeral services were held Sat- notchers when it comes to raising hoge. A thoroughbred Chesterwhite sow which he owns gave birth to a litter

John Meese of Milesburg is in the Bellefonte hospital with buckshot wounds in his legs and groin as the week. While at the latter place Mr.

Dorothy Wilson, soloist, will appear at the Bellefonte Opera House, Friday evening, October 22ud. This band is known as one of the best musical organizations in Central Pennsy!vania and their performances always delight their hearers. Prices of ad-

W. C. T. U. Social.

The local W. C. F. U. has planned an evening of real social enjoyment for its members and its branches, the Y. P. B. and the L. T. L., in Grange Arcadis, Thursday evening, October 28th. Each member of the W. C. T. U. is asked to bring with them friend. Mrs. G. W. Ocker of Lewisburg will be present and deliver an inlantic City. Light refreshments will

Linden Hall

Leslie Noll went to Sunbary where he is employed as a P. R. R. brake-

Miss Irene Ross went to Centre Hall Sunday morning to nurse Mrs. C. D. Mitterling, who is quite ill. James Osman, section foreman, has instructions to hire three more men with their grandmother, Mrs. Mary Lee Markle lost a valuable horse one day with Miss Catharine Carson of day last week. He had driven to a rescued by some boys who were playneignbor's to spend the evening and ing near. An elder brother of the > animal dead in the shafte. came up from Phoenixville in a big piration proved unavailing. Studebaker car to be on hand for the opening of the nunting sesson.

Mary Love Campbell, a nurse in training in the Municipal hospital in of a physician. Alfred Rupp and little daughter bordes were defeated by the Roapent a few days with his parents. mans. The ruins of a Temple of his sister, Miss Ruth Rupp, a recent in memory of this victory, were ungraduate nurse from the Altoona hos- earthed in 1892. Further important pital, who will spend a month with discoveries are expected as a result his family at Fort Louden. his family at Fort Louden.

BOALSBURG

Miss Frances Patterson has gone to Altoons for a few days. Mrs. James Alexander visited the W. A. Murray home. Mrs. H. S. Harro and children spent some time in Bellefonte last week.

B. P. Lonberger of Virginia is spending some time with his family at this were Stone Valley visitors over Sun- the team took fright and started to Miss Annie Lohr attended the funeral of John Kennedy at Centre Hall Sabbath with the former's mother at last week. Joe Meyer and family of Axemenn

Mrs. Henrietta Dale and daughter Pine Grove.

Rev. S. C. Stover, wife and son will Orvis Meyer killed three grey squir- and Mrs. Jacob Lee, of Boalsburg go to Philadelphia to spend part of to Stormstown and spent Sunday with their vacation.

> Elmer Houtz shot a wild turkey last Saturday, the first one to be shot recuperating from a recent illness at around this town, this season. A. E. Rupp and daughter of Fort London spent : unday with Mr. and > > Professor Lehman will start a singing school Friday evening, October 22. Everybody is invited to attend.

Mrs. John Rupp.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Mayes and famspent Sunday with Mrs. Mayes' father, ed to Bellefonte on Sunday. M. Segner. Rev. Courtney, who preached a trial sermon a few weeks ago in the Lutheran church, has accepted a call and will move here in the near future. A play, entitled, "Modern Cinderella" will be held in the Boal hal!

Saturday evening, October 23. The proceeds will be for the benefit of the Presbyterian church. Quite a few people from this place spent Sunday in the mountains at the Riley camp. Among the number were Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Harrison, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Kuhn and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. P. S. Ishler and son, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Williams, Mr. and

LITTLE SHORT OF MARVELOUS

Mrs. O. W. Stover, Mr. and Mrs. Ed.

Series of Miraculous Escapes From What Would Seem to Be Inevitable Death.

At Geneva recently a professional crobat who performs on a trapeze atsached to a balloon fell into the Lake of Zurich, a distance of 1,500 feet. He swam unhurt to the shore, just missing death by a few yards, for had he not sprung from his seat when Several instances of people falling from incredible heights and surviving o tell the tale can be quoted. At Brighton quite recently an actor known as Lieutenant Daring, who was playing the part of a naval officer who is attacked by Brigands in a cinemato-The famous Tyrone band with miss graph play, and who was supposed to slip over the cliff-in reality, however, to stand on a plank which had been aced below the edge to make the iusion complete-missed his footing and fell 90 feet below into the sea, escaping with a sprained wrist.

An even more miraculous escape after a fall over a cliff was that of a seven-year-old child who had been gathering flowers on Culver cliff, near Sandown, Isle of Wight, who slipped and fell 200 feet. She was only slighty injured, a bottle which she carried being unbroken.

Glories of Ancient Buildings. The famous Temple of Diana, at Ephesus, was 420 feet to the support of the roof; it was a hundred years in building. The largest of the Pyramids is 481 feet in height and 835 feet on teresting report of the World's W. C. the side. The base covered 11 acres. T. U. Convention recently held at At- The stones are about 60 feet in length, and the layers are 208. It employed $50,000 men in building. The labyrinth of Egypt contains 330 chambers and 12 halls. Thebes, in Egypt, presents ruins 27 miles around, and con-R. H. Potter is confined to bed suf- tained 350,000 citizens and 400,000 fering with a complication of diseases. | slaves. The Temple of Delphos was so rich in donations that it was plundered of $50,000,000, and the Emperor Nero carried away from it 200 statues. The walls of ancient Rome were 13 miles around.

Dog Caused Boy's Death. A boy was drowned by a dog he had on a leash jumping into the water and which will incresse his force to nine dragging him and his brother, walkng with him, after it. The boys and Mrs. Howard Dry and son and Miss a companion were walking along the Mary Hull spent a few days last week | towing path of the canal, at Rochdale, Lancashire, England, and had passed the lock, before the accident happened. An alarm was at once raised, when ready to start home found the boys came on the scene and plunged into the canal. He succeeded in find-George Potter and a party of friends | ing the other body, but artificial res-

Unearth Bones of Roman Soldiers. The discovery has been announced from Rome, Italy, of a large ossuary, Philadelphis, while grossing a street or place for the deposit of the bones of was knocked down by a wsgon and the dead, near the port of Telamon. The discovery is on the scene of the badly bruised. She was taken to the pattle of Telamon, fought in the year hospital in a cab and is under the care 225 B. C., during the invasion of Italy by the Gauls, when the invading

Pine Grove Mills J. H. Williams and wife spent Sunday with their son Fred.

Jesse Jordan and family are now snugly located in the A. J. Tate home. Hon. L. Rhone and Marcellus Bankey and wife were in town Friday.

Samuel Guyer and James Dearmont

J. D. Dreibelbis and wife spent the Struble.

attended the funeral of John Frye, at last week visiting his parishioners in election day, November 2ad. the valley.

> J. B. Whitmer and family motored the Sylvis family.

> W. K. Goss and two daughters, Ruth and Mary, of Tyrone were here at the Goss home last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lytle of A! toons are at the J. N. Hoy home, taking a hand at stirring apple butter. Mrs. Frank has been very ill the past week, suffering from a complication of troubles. J. W. Miller in his new Overland ily of Milton autoed to Boalsburg and | car, with his wife and parents, motor-

Harry Alters, I. G. Burkert and David Chambers were greeting the voters heresboute, last week.

Rev. Mr. Price is holding a series of meetings in the M. E. church, to be continued for several weeks.

Mr. and Mrr. D. A. Grove and Mr. and Mrr. Willard Dale enjoyed a spin down Spruce Creek Valley on Sunday. Clem Fortney and wife, Harry Shugart and wife of Altoons have been visiting old friends since Saturd y.

Rev. Mr. Bingham will preach in the Presbyterian church Sunday morning; also the following Funday. Grandmother Donnelly, who is surfering a broken hip, is getting along as well as can be expected for one of Co!. D. F. Fortney and Mrs. Paul Fortney of Bellefonte were among the mourners at the J. W. Fry funers!, go-

Harry Thomas, an expert painter, who has spent several years in the Empire state, is home again and et work. Harry Struble and family motored up from Benner township to spend the Sabbath with old neighbors at Pine Hall. Rev. W. K. Harnish was here last week greeting old parishioners that always have a glad hand for their former pastor. Ira Hess and sor, J. W., both trusty for small game on Old Tussey this The work on the State road is progressing rapidly and in a few days will be completed to the R. B. station just west of towr.

Sunday evening. Mr. and Mrs. James Dresse of Adamsburg, Snyder county, visited the H. H. Goss bome the late end of pressed. the week. Mr. and Mrr. N. O. Dreibelbis motored to "pring Mills and attended the funeral of Mrr. Mary Grenoble on Sat. Mr. and Mrs. D. P. Henderson of Spruce Creek were welcome guests at the N. ". Neidigh home the late end

David P. Thomas is on a hustle sel!ing Maxwell machines and for a side issue buying porkers and spples for his large trade in Philipsburg. J. H. Bailey, wife and mother, and week with the D. Ross Gregory fam- a city street. Wm. J. Bryan Smith came down from the Smoky City to spend Sunday with his mother who is slightly in-where they spent the early part of the proved. He returned to his job on Samuel Guyer, a young sport of the Branch, was in hard luck MonJay evening when his horse ran away, wrecking his buggy and badly twisting the harness. John W. Hess, a youth of about a dozen summers, came in with three grey squirrels, killing two at one shot, the first day of the season. Quite a few killed the limit. H. N. Musser and wife, W. K. Corl and wife, in the former's car, motored to the Lumber City Saturday, taking supper at Lock Haven. Mrs. Corl has been quite ill eince then.

Mrs. Mary Homan gave a delicirus turkey supper Saturday evening to which a number of guests were bidder to sample the 20-lb. gobbler Frank brought down off Old Tussey the first day of the season. The lost boy, who left the A. S.

Walker, home several weeks agr, has not yet been located. Mr. Walker and the Blair county authorities are making diligent search but as yet no trace of him is in sight.

Henry Meyers, who underwent s serious operation in the Huntingdon hospital, with his wife and daughter are visiting friends in Penns Valley. This will be good news to his legion of friends as his recovery stemed doub!-

Frank Homan brought down a 20ib. gobbler off Old Tussey. Samuel Campbell, William Kline, Ed. Gill, Aifred Davie, William and James Gumr, Balph Heberling, Mr. Sylvis and Postmaster Griffin each killed a fat bird.

Our mutual friend, Samuel Harpiter, had a close call for his life one day recently. He was aiding his brother, Irs, haul a load of live porkers when run away. Samuel was directly in front of the team trying to stop them but they took no heed of him, rutning directly over him, causing some Mr. and Mrs. Charles Goss of Har- ugly bruises and painful wounds. spent Sunday at the Charles Corl risburg are visiting friends in this val- Just how he escaped death is a miracle. He is able to go about and hopes Rev. S. C. Stover spent several days to be able to exercise his franchise on hale it gist r

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 20TH, one o'clock p. m.—Frank Tate, at Red Mill, will sell horses cows, bulls and heifers.

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 18, one o'clock, west of Old Fort on Alexander farm, by J. E. Royer; ... A stock sale-One horse, six cows, four bulls, young stock, 24 hogs, twelve of which are brood sows.

FRIDAY, MARCH 24TH-T. F. Royer, at Sprucetown church, will sell lot of live stock.

THE MARKETS. GRAIN Corrected weekly by Bradford & Son. Wheat PRODUCE AT STORES

NOT REALLY HEROIC ACTION

Mr. Snibbles Expelled Burglar All Right, but Had Not Much Credit Coming to Him.

Mr. Snibbles got out of bed and slipped on his shoes

"This must stop," he muttered irritably to his wife. "I'm going downstairs to teach that young man to keep away from my house in the fu-"John," cried his wife, "stop! Don't

But before she could say more he had slipped out of the door. She heard him steal downstairs to the drawing room; she heard sounds of a struggle and of the breaking of glass; she heard him drag his adversary to the hall and kick him down the front steps. Then when he returned she flung herself upon him and clung to him admiringly. "What's the matter?" he demanded. "Don't you know?" she answered.

"That was a burglar!" "Great Scott!" he gasped, turning pale. "Why didn't you tell me before? thought it was Ethe expressman on the Pennsy, are going -Harper's Magazine.

Japanese Greeting. Nothing is more amusing than to watch two acquaintances saluting in the streets of a Japanese town. As they come in sight of each other they P. C. Krebs and wife, Mrr. Carrie slacken their pace and approach with Fortney and Mrs. Anna Fry, in the downcast eyes and averted face, as if former's car, motored to Bellefonte neither was worthy of beholding the other; then they bow so as to bring the face on a level with the knees, on which the palms of the hands are

A succession of hissing sounds is next heard, made by drawing the breath between the closed teeth, interspersed with complimentary phrases uttered with great volubility. each trying to outdo the other.

At last the climax is reached and each endeavors to give precedence to the other. For perhaps a full minute the polite contest continues; then the ceremony abrutly ends, as if the difculty were capable of none but a brusque solution, and the two pass on hurriedly, with a look of extreme re-

The Japanese gentleman who has bour to walk the length of a block on

US THE NEWS

TELEPHONE

Mrg. Warren motored to Neff's Mills many acquaintances must require an Birth announcements, deaths, marriages, the visits of your out-of-town relatives and friends, unusual happenings on the farm, big crops and the like, make good news items and are wanted by us Almost every farmer is in close touch with us through the touch with us through the telephone and it will take but a moment to convey a news message to this office.

Telephone us the news,

THE CENTRE REPORTER

****************** STRICTLY

Delivered to your door TUES-DAY and THURSDAY of each week. First quality-the kind that have very few bones.

Fine Large Oysters Phone orders received.

F. J. McCLELLAN CENTRE HALL