A new concrete bridge now spans the Branch creek and the state road is now open for travel. The structure is another feather in Oliver Shutt's "kaddie" as a bridge builder.

Some of the farmers have finished husking corn while others have scarcely started. The crop is above the average in yield but much soft corn is reported.

After a month's visit among the friends of her youth in the valley Mrs. Mary J. Stuart returned to her home in Altoona Friday, perfectly delighted with her stay.

Farmer Mills Alexander, who has been housed up nursing a broken hip for the past three months, is now able to be about again on crutches. This will be good news to his many friends.

Miss Sara McWilliams spent several days last week in Tyrone and on her return brought Master Joseph M., who is spending some time at Grandpa W. E. McWilliams' home, having a rousing good time.

The George M. Williams sale last Friday was well attended and prices soared high. A team of bays were knocked down at the $450 mark; cows sold for $80. It was only a surplus stock sale and summed up to $2850.

The state road machinery at Rock Springs has been stored for the winter. Superintendent Hurly has changed his headquarters to the St. Elme, the crews have been consolidated and are on the Glades stretch. The crushed stones are being shipped from Bellefonte and carted over the road. With favorable weather most of the stretch will be completed before the snow flies.

Mrs. Margaret Dale departed for Pittsburgh and after a two weeks' visit among relatives will join her husband, H. L. Dale, who has charge of a large dairy and creamery concern. The young couple will take up house-keeping for the winter, but expect to return to Centre county next spring and go to farming on one of the Boal farms near Boalsburg.

The stork visited the Herbert Grove home last Tuesday and left a dear little girl. As it is the first born the young couple are exceptionally happy, and so is grandpa Gumme. Mrs. Grove was Anna Gumme, well known in educational circles as a successful school teacher.

Comrade C. B. Hess, a Civil war veteran is suffering an attack of eczema and is confined to bed. The old warrior attended the G. A. R. encampment at Washington and stood the trip well. He had just recovered from a broken ankle that kept him abed for six weeks and now is in a critical condition for one of his years; he is past seventy-five.

Unclaimed letters in Centre Hall postoffice, November 1.—Miss Lulu Zerbe, Mrs. Margaret Shope, Mr. John Kline, Schwenk-Coldwell.—S. W. Smith, postmaster.

Double Service Auto Tires
GUARANTEED 7000 MILES SERVICE
PROOF AGAINST PUNCTURE

Double the thickness of the best standard makes of tires; average 10 or 12 layers of strong fabric, plus nearly one inch of tough tread rubber. 100 per cent. greater wearing depth and double the mileage, besides being practically puncture-proof.

Unequaled for severe service on rough and rugged roads, hard pavements and other places where tire troubles cannot be tolerated. Ride as easy as an ordinary pneumatic—air space and pressure being the same.

Used in U. S. Government and European War Service. Our output is limited, but we make the following low special introductory prices:

30x3 1/2 in	$8.50	$2.30	36x4 in	$17.45	$4.65
30x3 3/4 in	10.85	3.10	36x4 1/2 in	21.20	5.60
