LOCALS
Belleville's steam roller is being used on the fill at the diamond, and on Church street.
Miss Beatrice Kreamer is spending the week with her uncle, J. Reuben Garis, in Belleville.
Mr. and Mrs. John G. King, from Friday until Monday, were guests of the latter's sister, Mrs. Morris Furey, in Belleville.
George Ishler took advantage of the Washington excursion Saturday night to visit his son, Domer S. Ishler, who is in the employ of the city postoffice in the national capital.

Centre County Pomona Grange will meet in Grange Hall, in this place, Thursday of next week. There will be two sessions—morning and afternoon—and the meeting promises to be full of interest.

Mrs. W. O. Heckman and little daughter are spending the week at the home of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. F. Roseman, at Tusseyville, while Prof. Heckman is attending teacher's institute.

The first snow of the season fell last Thursday morning and for the greater part of the day the big white flakes fell thick and fast. Mother Earth greeted each one with a warm kiss, however, and changed them into a state which made it both difficult and unpleasant underfoot.

The friends of Guy Harshbarger of Altoona, who visits frequently at the James Smetzer home in this place, will be pleased to learn that last week he resumed work with the Pennsylvania Railroad Company after an enforced idleness of six years, due to an injury sustained in falling from the top of a box car.

From all parts of the valley comes the report from hunters that rabbits are scarcer this fall than for many years. Old hunters have been less successful in the first week's hunt this year than at any previous time, and lay the cause to the protracted wet weather that existed when Mrs. Bunny was trying to rear her family of little cottontails.

The Lewistown high school football team, traveling in a large auto bus, stopped on the diamond in Centre Hall Saturday morning enroute to Belleville where they played the Academy eleven in the afternoon. During their twenty minute stay here they rehearsed their code of signals and practiced their various formations on the public road, but their plans must have gone awry for the Bellevillers trounced them by a 31-0 score.

Dr. C. E. Emerick of Harrisburg spent a day last week at the home of his brother, G. F. Emerick, near this place. Since his removal from Centre Hall, Dr. Emerick has accumulated a little fortune in his practice in the capital city and is now erecting a palatial residence in a principal part of the city, after the completion of which he will devote his time exclusively to office practice and take life more leisurely.

Isaiah Emery, oldest son of Merchant and Mrs. C. F. Emery, met with a painful accident on Saturday morning while playing with several companions on a truck carrying an electric light pole. In some manner the lad was thrown off the truck, his right foot becoming fastened in an iron hook, and when a companion fell on top of him the ankle was broken. It was necessary to etherize the lad before Dr. H. H. Longwell could reduce the fracture.

The Washington excursion train which left Belleville Saturday night took on twelve residents of this place when it stopped at the station at eleven o'clock. The number was far less than made the trip to the national capital in the summer, however, all were well pleased for the day was warm and sunny and not an untoward incident marred the pleasantness of the trip. The following took advantage of the low rate excursion from this place: Mr. and Mrs. B. D. Foreman, Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Strohmeler and daughter, Miss Bertha, Charles E. Flink and son Harvey, Misses Lena Emerick, Coribel Emerick, and Margaret Jacobs, George Ishler and John Foust.

OFFICIAL VOTE SHOWS SLIGHT CHANGES.

The official count of ballots cast at the election Tuesday of last week reveals a slight change from the unofficial returns as shown in tabulated form in the Reporter last week. Whigley's majority over Orvis, by official count, shows it to be 494 instead of 412. On the party ballot D. R. Foreman polled the largest vote of any candidate on the ticket—4370. Another change is in the commissioner contest which brings Noll from third place in the number of votes received to second place and places Miller, Republican, in the position of minority commissioner both as regards vote and party. Sasser's majority over Smith for register was increased to thirty by official count, while Speer lost out by one vote less than was shown last week. The official figures representing the vote in the three parties are given herewith:

Keyser-Breon.

Keyser of Duquesne, by Rev. McKeebuey of Pleasant Gap. Besides the parents of the bride the only other witness to the ceremony was Mrs. Lynn Klapp of State College, sister of the bride. Ex-Sheriff Schaeffer Dead.

Benjamin F. Schaeffer, the oldest ex-sheriff of Centre county, died at his home in Nittany, Tuesday, of general debility, aged eighty-five years. He was a native of Walker township and in 1872 was elected sheriff of Centre county on the Democratic ticket, serving from 1873 to 1876. For a quarter of a century he was postmaster at Nittany. His wife is dead, but he is survived by five children: W. E. Schaeffer, Lewisburg; L. A. Schaeffer, Belleville; Mrs. L. E. Swartz, Hubersburg; Mrs. Knecht, Mill Hall, and Mrs. Kate Allison, who made her home with her father.

Funeral services will be held Friday morning at ten o'clock and burial at Nittany.

A Great Speaker Coming.

Hon. Michael J. Fanning of Philadelphia, a temperance lecturer of renown, will deliver an address in Grange Arcades, Monday evening, November 22nd, under the auspices of the W. C. T. U.

Hon. Mr. Fanning in his youth was led to consecrate his life to warfare against the liquor traffic. For more than one-third of a century he has traveled about this country and Canada in pursuance of his life's work, probably making more speeches against the saloon during these years than any other living person.

The lecture is free; everybody is invited.

The Weaver Piano at the San Francisco Exposition

"I gladly write you this testimonial letter for the Weaver Piano. As I am pretty well known in educational work in Pennsylvania and was for fifteen years Superintendent of Education in Chester County, it should do you some good. I like the Weaver Piano well enough to want it in my home back east. We have a piano which cost $400, and are suited, but, as I said, I like the Weaver Piano since I have been living with it. When I return East perhaps we can arrange the matter."

Yours very truly,
G. W. MOORE,
Supt. Pennsylvania Bldg.,
Panama-Pacific International Exposition

Nearly every make of piano on the market is exhibited at San Francisco and Prof. Moore has had an opportunity to study them all. The above letter was written after he had lived with the Weaver Piano in the Pennsylvania Building several months. The magnificent tone, responsive touch and beautiful case designs have earned the highest place among Art Pianos for the Weaver. An investigation will convince you.
