Lutheran—Centre Hall, morning; Tusseyville, afternoon; Spring Mills, evening.

The announcement of the death of Rev. W. H. Schnyler, Ph. D., struck deep into the hearts of every resident in Centre Hall, where he labored for many years, not only in the interest of the Presbyterian church, but for the best interests of the town in promoting and encouraging every movement that tended toward moral, spiritual and intellectual betterment. His was a life of unselfish devotion to his Master's cause, and he has gone to his reward.

LOCALS

Mrs. Rebecca Scholl is visiting relatives in Lemont.

Leroy Rearick of Jersey Shore, from Friday until Saturday, was the guest of his mother, Mrs. Mary Rearick, and sister, in this place.

The W. C. T. U. will meet at the J. C. Rossman home Saturday, December 4, instead of the regular time, owing to important business to be transacted. Members please take notice.

Robert Ronald MacKay, Jr., is at No. 4657 Spruce street, Philadelphia. He is about ten days old, and is a grandson of the surgeon, Dr. McCluney Radcliff, well known here.

Perry Krise of Pleasant Gap was a caller at this office on Tuesday, being on his way to join the "Regulars" of Potters Mills, with whom he has hunted for deer for a dozen or more years.

Dr. P. H. Dale of State College on Tuesday motored to Centre Hall and took home with him his mother, Mrs. Kate Dale, and aunt, Miss Mollie Hofer, who will spend the winter months with him.

The county W. C. T. U. has decided to publish the names of persons signing liquor license petitions this year, in the county paper. Names may be withdrawn from petitions by making request to the Court.

Misses Marcia Lovett and Mary Laws, both seniors at the Pennsylvania State College, accompanied Miss Sarah Neff, a classmate, to the home of the latter's parents, Prof. and Mrs. C. E. Neff, west of town, where they enjoyed the Thanksgiving season.

Reports of some party or parties dynamiting the old dam in Greens Valley for fish has come to the ears of Forester Leonard Barnes and he is making an effort to apprehend the guilty ones. Dynamite and caps were discovered hidden under a stump near the water's edge last week, but how recent the unlawful act was done is problematical.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Morris of Rodonda Beach, California, are in the east and no doubt will come to Centre Hall, the childhood scene of Mrs. Morris, who before marriage was Miss Lottie Miller, daughter of Rev. J. K. Miller, before returning to the Pacific coast. Mr. Morris is a druggist, a native of Loganton, and did business in Millheim and Duncannon before going to the far west.

One of the Reporter's callers on Thanksgiving day was E. C. Harter, of Spring Mills, who announces sale of his entire farm stock and implements on March 22. Mr. Harter began farming on the Harter farm the spring of 1887, and now thinks twenty-eight years of business on the farm enough. He has not yet decided where he will locate, but thinks Centre Hall a mighty nice town. Frank Ripka of Spring Mills will succeed him on the farm.

The initial move in Centre county to encourage public speaking among scholars in the public schools is due to the activity of R. U. Wasson of Coburn, who a few years ago spent considerable time and energy in getting up a series of contests. Had this movement been looked upon more favorably by the county officials connected with the public schools, by this time Centre county would have a well organized plan and no doubt would have well developed speakers ready to enter the contests under the plans proposed and published in a recent issue of the Reporter, which are very similar to Prof. Wasson's ideas.

DEATHS.

Mrs. Mary Ann Zerby, wife of Henry Zerby, died at her home in the Seven Mountains, south of Spring Mills, on Tuesday afternoon of last week, following a protracted illness with gangrene of the foot and leg. Funeral services were held Friday morning and burial made in the Mountain cemetery, Rev. John Price of the United Evangelical church officiating. Mrs. Zerby's age was seventy years, seven months and twenty-three days. Surviving her are two children, Mr. George Brian, east of Centre Hall, and James Zerby of North Dakota; also three sisters, Mrs. Samuel Ripka, of Millheim, and two others living in Altoona and Lewisburg.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Ishler of near Boalsburg are mourning the death of their little daughter, Susanna Ishler, aged four years and seven months, which occurred Thursday noon after an illness of several weeks with inflammatory rheumatism, ending finally in pneumonia. Funeral services were held Saturday afternoon and burial at Boalsburg, Rev. S. C. Stover officiating. The parents, two brothers and four sisters mourn the little one's departure.

James William Noll, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. David Noll, died at the parental home near Pleasant Gap, Thursday, after a brief illness with tonsillitis, aged two years and seven months. Funeral services were held Sunday afternoon and burial at Pleasant Gap. F. V. Goodhart of Centre Hall was the funeral director.

John R. McMullen died on Saturday morning in Lewisburg, at the age of eighty-two years. He was the father of Mrs. Roland Eye of near Tusseyville, by a former marriage, his second wife and five children also surviving.

Millheim.

Miss Nannie Brown did some shopping in Bellefonte last Friday.

W. S. Shelton transacted business in Philadelphia Monday and Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ward Schreckengost of Jeanette are visiting at the home of the former's parents.

Guy Stover of Pittsburgh is visiting at the home of his aunt, Mrs. Thomas Moiz.

Mrs. Samuel Weaver and children of Boalsburg spent a few days here last week at the home of her mother.

Messrs. David Masur and Alfred Ehrlich of New York City are guests at the home of A. Kessler.

Mrs. Thomas Buck of Berwick visited at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Zerby, over Thanksgiving.

Clyde Hartman, one of State College's tonsorial artists, is spending a few weeks with his parents in this place.

Harry Hartman, wife and children, of State College, spent Thanksgiving with Mrs. Hartman's parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Meyer.

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Geary of Newport, old time residents of Millheim, are visiting at the home of their daughter, Mrs. N. A. Auman.

Miss Sara Kessler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Kessler, who is a teacher in the commercial department in one of the schools at Elizabethtown, is home for a few days.

Prof. O'Donnell of State College and Grover Musser of this place spent a few days last week hunting in Pine Creek Hollow. Together they bagged a dozen pheasants; also reporting good signs of plenty of big game.

Tuesday morning the Millheim hunting party left for their camp in Pine Creek Hollow, all anxiously awaiting the break of another day when they will be at the chase. Owing to the great demand for ammunition in the old world some of the boys had trouble getting shells for their rifle.

BEAUTIFUL THANKSGIVING SERVICE.

The union Thanksgiving service in the Lutheran church on Thursday afternoon was above the ordinary and a rare treat for those present. The choir and quartette represented the different churches of Millheim; the sermon was commented on favorably by many. The order of service follows:

Anthem, "O Give Thanks Unto the Lord."

Scripture Lesson.....Rev. M. D. Geesey

Prayer.....Rev. W. H. Williams

Societies, "O Be Joyful".....Stover and Musser.

Proclamation by President to Give Thanks.....Rev. W. H. Brown

Anthem, "O Be Glorious".....Rev. Donat

Sermon on Being Thankful.....Rev. Donat

Mixed Quartette, "Lift Your Eyes unto the Hills".....Misses Musser and Smith, Messrs. Duck and Smith.

Collection lifted for the benefit of Bellefonte Hospital.

"America,"—by entire congregation.

Benediction.....Rev. Donat

County Grange officers will hold a meeting in Grange Arcadia Saturday morning. All members are invited to be present.

BOALSBURG.

Mrs. Edward Hunter is visiting friends in Altoona.

Miss Annie Lohr spent Sunday with relatives in Centre Hall.

Miss Mary Carper of Linden Hall is visiting at the William Patterson home.

Edward Fussey of Tyrone was a guest at the William Goheen home over Sunday.

Professor C. K. Lehman spent a few days with his parents in Lancaster county.

Mr. and Mrs. George Rowe are visiting relatives in Greensburg and Altoona.

William Patterson and daughter Frances spent Thanksgiving with relatives in Altoona.

Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Mothersbaugh visited their daughter, Mrs. Reuben Stuart, at Pittsburgh.

Miss Sarah J. Keller has gone to spend the winter with her sister, Mrs. Hall.

The Civic Club will hold their meeting Friday evening, December 3, at the home of Mrs. A. J. Hazel.

Fred Ishler, who is attending school at Altoona, spent Thanksgiving with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. S. Ishler.

Mr. Edward Cunningham and daughter of Bellefonte visited the Elmer Houtz home over Sunday.

James I. Ross and daughter, Anne, Mrs. Elizabeth Brown and George Fisher autoed to Lewisburg on Saturday.

The Woman's Home and Foreign Missionary Society will hold their Thank Offering service Sunday evening in the Lutheran church.

Mrs. M. A. Woods and daughter Rose attended the funeral of Mrs. Wood's son, Samuel, at Titusville, on Friday afternoon.

Mr. Alice Magoffin returned to her home Friday afternoon, from a trip to Philadelphia, where she had gone for treatment for her eyes.

Miss Katie Burkholder and nephew, Maurice Burkholder, of Centre Hill, were guests at the J. H. Meyer home on Sunday.

Mrs. Samuel Wagner attended the golden wedding of her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Showalter, at Forrest Hill, Union county, last week. While there she attended the wedding of Mr. and Mrs. Showalter's daughter.

Mr. and Mrs. John Ishler, Thomas Fishburn and sister, Mrs. Jorman, and Mr. Adam Ziegler, of State College, and Mr. Clyde Fishburn of the Brañeb, were among the relatives from a distance who attended the funeral of Susanna Ishler on Saturday afternoon.

Pine Grove Mills

George Irvin had a good mare die Thursday while driving on the pike.

Prof. E. C. Musser of Bellefonte was home for the Thanksgiving dinner.

John I. Thompson of Lemont spent Sunday in town.

The I. O. O. F. hall is being wired for electric lights.

D. B. Thomas is busy demonstrating the Franklin car for which he is agent.

Harry Houser is arranging to leave for the west about Christmas time.

The band realized more than $75.00 at their festival on Thanksgiving Day.

Tony Glen is being congratulated on the arrival of a little daughter, Friday. It is No. 1 in this happy home.

Amos Koch of Aaronsburg spent Thanksgiving with his son, George, at Fairbrook.

Ed. Woomeer is running a new Sax car for which he has the agency in three counties.

W. E. Stover of Pittsburgh spent Thanksgiving among old friends and with his mother at State College.

Miss Bell McWilliam spent last week with her two brothers at Johnstown.

Miss Bell Woomeer, one of Blair county's successful school teachers, was here for Thanksgiving dinner at the Woomeer home.

Hon. Leonard Rhone and daughter, Miss Florence, spent Monday at State College, in the interest of the State Grange meeting to be held there.

The R. R. station at Oak Hill is being enlarged and repaired to accommodate the increased traffic, all because of the low traffic.

S. I. Corl accompanied his father, Peter Corl, to the German hospital, Saturday, where the elder Corl is taking X-ray treatment, which is proving successful.

Mrs. David Campbell, who has been ill the past year or more, is sinking rapidly and but little hopes are entertained by the family and the attending physician for her recovery.

Leslie Gates of West Virginia was here last week looking over the old stamping grounds, the place of his birth. He is now making good as a mining engineer down in Dixey land.

Farmer Elmer Sunday, while hauling corn fodder fell from the left and alighted on his left shoulder, fracturing the collar bone. The fracture was serious and Elmer is getting along nicely single handed.

Rev. Illingsworth has been filling the pulpits of three churches since last here last week looking over the old spring very satisfactorily. His religion seems to be thoroughly interwoven in his nature so that pastor and people are united in the work in the Master's vineyard.
