

DR. SCHUYLER IS DEAD.

Local Presbyterian Minister Passed Away at Clinton, New York, Wednesday Morning. Body Will Arrive Here This (Thursday) Afternoon.

Rev. W. H. Schuyler, Ph. D., is dead. A telegram carrying this sad intelligence was received by Dr. Schuyler's sister, Mrs. T. W. Simkins, in Centre Hall, on Wednesday morning. No definite time of his demise was given but it is supposed that death came early Wednesday morning.

For the past several months Dr. Schuyler had been in Clinton, New York, with the hope of recovering his shattered health which was the result of very hard study and overwork. Intestinal indigestion was followed by blood poisoning, and while his condition was rather serious at times, a report to the effect that he was improving with bright prospects of recovery, was received last week. His daughter who had been with him for the greater part of the time left on Tuesday, feeling that her father's condition was the best since the inception of his illness.

The corpse will arrive in Centre Hall this (Thursday) afternoon and burial will take place on Friday morning, interment in the local cemetery.

Train Kills Farmer's Cows.

The west bound freight on Monday evening struck and killed two cows and a heifer belonging to Harry E. Fye, who farms the Goodling farm, west of Centre Hall. The cows broke through the fence and wandered onto the railroad track. The railroad company will be obliged to reimburse Mr. Fye for his loss.

LOCALS

Court convenes next week. J. B. Spangler of Tusseyville was a business caller at this office Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. E. J. Smull of Altoona is spending a few weeks at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Smetzier.

The Reporter was greatly pleased to receive a fraternal call from Penn G. Hastings, general manager of the Milton Evening Standard, on Tuesday evening. Mr. Hastings is a young man of forceful character, with good business acumen, and a real live wire. He is also connected with the Watsontown Shoe Company and it was in their interest that he was in town the evening mentioned.

While on their way home from State College last Thursday, Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Smith and daughter Louise, who were traveling in a buggy, were struck by a seven-passenger automobile, driven by Prof. T. C. Blandell, a member of the faculty of the Pennsylvania State College. The shafts on the buggy were smashed, requiring a new set before the journey home could be continued. The accident occurred at Centre Furnace and was the result of the tight quarters occasioned by the buggy, automobile and a car standing by the roadside being in line when the two moving vehicles met. No injuries were sustained by the occupants of the buggy but the mother and child were considerably frightened. The driver of the car gave his name and address and promised to reimburse Mr. Smith for the damages sustained.

A Record Holstein Cow.

C. E. Erdly of Lewisburg, R. D. 1 possesses a Holstein-Friesian cow which has produced, officially tested, 30 pounds of butter in 7 days. The largest production of milk from this cow for 7 days was 666 pounds, or an average of 95.14 pounds per day. The best day's milking resulted in 100 pounds of milk.

By many who are able to judge this cow is considered the best Holstein-Friesian cow in Central Pennsylvania. At the Union county fair the animal won first premium.

The official test of the cow's milkings were made by Floyd E. Seely, an official inspector, who is connected with State College.
