

THE FIRST WEEK'S HUNT.

Many Parties Still Miss Big Game, Others Have From 1 to 4 Deer.

The first week of the deer season resulted in comparatively few killings of buck deer having been made, but now since the game has been started on the move, better success is anticipated for the second week.

The Paddy Mountain hunting grounds has again proved to be ideal for bear and deer and the successful parties are as follows:

Wilmer C. Kerstetter, game warden at Coburn, bagged a 175-lb. 4-prong buck the first day of the season, near Cherry Run.

J. B. Gaertner of Shamokin killed a 3-prong buck the first day.

Harry Auman and party from Coburn brought in a 4-prong buck the first day.

Role and Wingard were successful the first three days by killing a bear the first day, a deer the second, and another bear the third day.

The Woodward Gun Club have been the most successful, having four big bucks hanging in their camp.

On Monday the Volunteers from Woodward killed two bucks.

The Snyder party have two deer and a bear.

The Laurelton party in Paddy Mountain have a buck.

The Sweetwoods have one deer.

The Decker party have two.

The Musser party, one deer.

The Pleasant Gap party have a spike buck.

The Shuey party from Bellefonte have a big 4-prong buck.

The Slacks are reported to have killed a bear, but the report is not confirmed.

The Bradfords of Centre Hall have two deer.

J. W. Weaver of near Potters Mills shot a four prong buck on Tuesday morning on the mountain back of the C. E. Thomas place.

Two large bucks were killed Friday by a party of Rebersburg hunters in the Brush valley narrows.

The State College Gun Club have two deer.

The Modocs have three deer.

The Foster party of State College, in Stone Creek, are said to have three bears.

The Shingletown party have two bucks.

Mrs. Clara Rupp, Conductor; Mrs. Mae Charles, Chaplain; Mrs. Alice Eiters, Right Altar Bearer; Mrs. Ream, Left Altar Bearer; Mrs. Maude Williams, Inside Guardian; Miss Bessie Young, Outside Guardian; Miss Mabel Meyer, Pianist.

Mrs. T. Hazel, District Deputy P. President, and sons, of Bellefonte, and Mrs. J. F. Hoy and daughters of Shiloh, were present. Refreshments were served.

The Mifflin County Eagle Case.

The killing of an eagle, about a year ago, by Edward Puffer of Granville, resulted in a law suit that was bitterly fought by the State Game Commissioner Kalbfus. While the bird was in the hands of a local taxidermist, two game wardens seized it, and were charged with theft by Puffer and found guilty of the charge by a Mifflin county jury. Judge Woods just decided the case, and declared there was no evidence sustaining the charge of criminal intention on the part of the game wardens.

DECEMBER COURT.

Young Chicken Thieves of Bald Eagle Valley Found Guilty.

December session of court convened on Monday morning. The constables were called upon to make their quarterly return to court. The grand jury was called and sworn, and W. W. Bramen, chemist at State College, selected as foreman.

The only civil case on this week's list being that of Victor Strange vs. James Stott, was reported settled.

The list for the second week was then gone over and the following cases disposed of:

Catharine Mulholland vs. M. D. Kelley and Matthew Shaddock, being an action in trespass, continued.

Wilbur H. Wining vs. Wilson G. Frantz, Abednego Laird, John Kelley and Gilbert Eller, being an action in trespass, continued.

James A. Walls vs. Harold Lichtenhaler, being an action in trespass, settled.

Commonwealth vs. Homer Carr, charge with furnishing liquor to man of known intemperate habits; prosecutrix, Mary C. Smith; sentence suspended upon payment of costs.

Commonwealth vs. Claire Hall and Patrick McGorty, indicted, first count assault and battery, second count, assault with intent to commit; prosecutrices, Minerva Eiters and Gertrude Smith, for an offence on May 23, 1915. Verdict, not guilty, but the defendants to pay the costs.

Commonwealth vs. John F. Hall; indicted for assault and battery and threats; prosecutrix, Clara Hall; defendant plead guilty and sentence was suspended upon payment of costs and the agreement on the part of the defendant to support his wife.

Commonwealth vs. William Hinnegan; indicted for assault and battery; prosecutrix, Elizabeth Davis; defendant plead guilty and sentence was suspended upon the payment of costs.

Commonwealth vs. Edward Orwich, indicted for assault and battery; prosecutor Bruce A. Kauffman. This grows out of an altercation between the prosecutor and the defendant on the 13th of October last in Taylor township. Verdict of not guilty and the defendant and prosecutor each to pay one-half of the costs.

Commonwealth vs. William Morris and Alfred P. Pletcher, alias Heaton; prosecutor, Harry Dukeman, indicted for larceny and receiving stolen goods. The defendants are the young men who were arrested in July last for chicken thieving in Bald Eagle Valley. Pletcher plead guilty and Morris went to trial and verdict rendered of guilty.

Miss Mayme Wance of Woodward was the guest of her friend, Mrs. Estella M. Stover, over Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren Winkleblech had as their guests on Sunday his sister and family from Rebersburg.

William Summers, formerly of this place, but now of Butler, is visiting his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Kreamer.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Martin of Pine Creek were entertained for a day at the home of their daughter, Mrs. F. D. Stover.

Dr. John F. D. Bowersox and little daughter, of York, spent a few days at the home of the former's father, last week, and assisted in the butchering.

Mrs. Lenker and daughter, Miss Sue, returned to their home on Tuesday after spending a month with the former's children at Lemont and Bellefonte.

Philip Eisenhauer, who is employed in the Goodrich Rubber Works in Akron, Ohio, is here to spend the holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gillard Eisenhauer.

Mr. and Mrs. Adam Bowersox of Lenore, their son Harry and family of Potters, and their two daughters, Mrs. W. Witmeyer and Mrs. Howard Stover, from Bellefonte, made a few days' stay with the former gentleman's aged mother at Wolf's Chapel. She is in her ninety-sixth year and enjoying good health.

Pine Grove Mills

Mrs. Ralph Walker was among the sick last week.

Earl Houck is holding down a snug job at the county capital for the winter.

Mrs. E. T. Parsons is suffering an attack of sciatica and is confined to bed.

H. C. Houck killed a 2-year-old hog that came to the 450-lb. mark. Next!

The venerable George Everts is greeting friends of long ago in and about town.

Harry McCracken is erecting a frame structure, 14x20, on the Glades farm, John McElwain has the job.

D. J. Johnston is spending a week with his son Joe and aiding in slaughtering six big porkers.

Sadie and Viola Elder returned from a week's visit among friends at Holidaysburg on Tuesday.

Boyd Johnson and John Ault flitted to Benore last week to swing the axe on the Huyett-McNitt Lumber job.

W. D. Port, who has been housed up with bronchial trouble, is about as usual but unable to take his flint lock gun to the mountains for big game.

Penna Valley Lodge, I. O. O. F., will hold their annual banquet in their hall on the last Friday evening of December.

Their mid-winter festival is billed for about the middle of January.

Sheep dogs are making their nightly runs. Sunday evening they attacked O. P. Bloom's flock but were frightened off by Mr. Bloom's Marlin, who failed to bring the whelps down.

Thus far the hunters have reported poor luck, only a few camps having game. The State College club report two bears last Saturday; the Hess crew two deer; other crews report only one deer.

Several properties are about to change ownership. Mrs. Gertie Williams has sold her home to A. L. Bowersox who is quitting farming in the spring. Rumor has it that Hon. J. W. Kepler is about to sell his farm in the Glades, now tenanted by Cliff Close.

Mr. and Mrs. Erick Kline, formerly of the Branch but now located at Waynesburg, are mourning the death of their baby girl that died last Wednesday. The young mother is also ill. This will be sad news to their many friends hereabouts.

A coming event of much importance is the Farmers Institute, December 15 and 16, in the I. O. O. F. hall. Besides the regular program there will be a number of home talent speakers. The Baileyville orchestra and the Citizens Band will intersperse the addresses with music.

On Friday evening while Thomas Weber and lady friend, Miss Ethel Born, were on a joy ride in the former's Ford car, and going at a fast clip, the car overturned in taking the sharp curve at Pine Hall. The lady was thrown out but Weber was less fortunate as he was pinned under the car by an iron bolt which protruded through his hip. In this painful position he was compelled to remain for almost an hour as the car could not be raised until the bolt was severed with a bolt clipper. C. M. Johnson finally came to the rescue with the tool and by that time a large crowd was on hand to hurry the young man home where Dr. Glenn dressed the wounds. He realized that he was making a sharp turn but on account of his feet being entangled in a blanket was unable to operate the brakes properly. His lady friend was very fortunate in making her escape with but a few bruises.
