

One Cent

The Reporter.

LAUDS KEYSTONE STATE.

Pennsylvania Excels California in Every Way...

Star Reporter:

There is nothing that makes me feel more happy...

One of our Bellefonte ladies (I will not give her name)...

The other twenty-one tavern licenses, including Centre Hall borough and Old Fort...

Young Lady Burns to Death.

The sad news of the death by burning of Miss Mary Stine...

Here's a Big Hog.

A Chesterwhite hog, tipping the beam at 750 lbs...

A Daughter is Born.

Christmas day in the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Cloyd Brooks...

LETTER FROM W. A. KRISKE.

Following funeral of their son in Chicago, Mr. and Mrs. Krisker departed for Cantonburg.

On Sunday, December 26, the body of our son, George...

Mr. Kriske is survived by his widow and son Earl; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Krisker...

Gross R. Allison, who since his graduation from the State University of Kentucky...

H. W. Frantz of Earlstown was a caller at this office...

Misses Mary and Pearl Kurtz, and Chester Kurtz, spent the holiday season with their parents...

The borough council met in a special session on Thursday night...

There will be but one change in the personnel, the new member being William J. Smith...

EIGHT REFUSED LICENSE.

Three Hotels in Lower End of County Knocked Out by Judge Orvile.

Judge Orvile's last official act was to dispose of the liquor license applications for the year 1916.

Rebersburg hotel, Clarence E. Long, proprietor.

Millheim hotel, S. S. Brown, proprietor.

Coburn hotel, Lewis E. Stover, proprietor.

Milesburg hotel, Frank Kohlbecker, proprietor.

Howard hotel, A. J. Fitzpatrick, proprietor.

Two Philipsburg hotels, Samuel Kough and William Bower, proprietors.

The wholesale liquor license in Bellefonte borough.

The other twenty-one tavern licenses, including Centre Hall borough and Old Fort...

Young Lady Burns to Death.

The sad news of the death by burning of Miss Mary Stine...

Here's a Big Hog.

A Chesterwhite hog, tipping the beam at 750 lbs...

A Daughter is Born.

Christmas day in the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Cloyd Brooks...

LETTER FROM W. A. KRISKE.

Following funeral of their son in Chicago, Mr. and Mrs. Krisker departed for Cantonburg.

On Sunday, December 26, the body of our son, George...

Mr. Kriske is survived by his widow and son Earl; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Krisker...

Gross R. Allison, who since his graduation from the State University of Kentucky...

H. W. Frantz of Earlstown was a caller at this office...

Misses Mary and Pearl Kurtz, and Chester Kurtz, spent the holiday season with their parents...

The borough council met in a special session on Thursday night...

There will be but one change in the personnel, the new member being William J. Smith...

THE FARMERS AT SCHOOL.

Learn Many Lessons During Farmers Week at State College—More Than 150 Lectures and Demonstrations During Week.

How to make the old farm pay a bigger dividend was the magnet that drew hundreds of Pennsylvania farmers and their wives to State College...

It was the eleventh annual Farmer's Week, which is conducted by the State College between Christmas Day and New Year's Day...

The entire equipment of the college and all the facilities of the town were turned over to the men and women who can be college students only for a week.

DISTRIBUTION OF FARM PRODUCTS.

Many valuable lessons were learned on Wednesday. Among the most important was that concerning a crop which is gradually receiving more attention from the average farmer...

THE BENEFITS OF ALFALFA.

Many valuable lessons were learned on Wednesday. Among the most important was that concerning a crop which is gradually receiving more attention from the average farmer...

Another lesson of the day showed that the unprofitable cow in the stable loaf on the job, eating her owner's good hay and grain...

Sheep raising for mutton rather than wool was recommended to the farmers by Professor J. W. Hammond...

Howard W. Selby, of the Selby Produce company, of Philadelphia, told the farmers how to sell things.

William H. Dursi, who for the past few months has been employed by the Westinghouse Electric Company at East Pittsburgh...

Misses Mary and Pearl Kurtz, and Chester Kurtz, spent the holiday season with their parents...

The borough council met in a special session on Thursday night...

There will be but one change in the personnel, the new member being William J. Smith...

Increasing powers of second-class cities relative to building inspectors and fire prevention.

The practice act for common pleas courts.

The uniform sales act.

Providing for state inspection of agricultural lime.

Amending anthracite and bituminous coal mining acts so that miners shall be brought under the workmen's compensation system.

The stock transfer tax act.

Providing for uniform policy contracts for fire insurance.

Miss Helen Packer, who is attending school at Pittsburgh, spent the holidays with her parents here.

DRUNKEN DEBAUCH FATAL.

State College Stone Cutter Dies from the Effects of Too Much "Celebration" at Christmas Time.

Frank Robertson, a stone cutter of State College, is dead as the result of a drunken debauch at Christmas time.

Robertson, who was married, joined Crew Brower, who lived alone in a shanty about a mile from State College, on Saturday morning...

Robertson was known as a skilled mechanic and a first rate man when drink did not get the better of him.

He was married about a year ago to a widow at State College, who survives him with no children.

Locals.

Prof. L. O. Packer, teacher in one of Pittsburgh's high schools, spent the holiday season with his family in this place.

William F. Ribbel and Joseph K. Bitter, of Farmers Mills district, were in Centre Hall on telephone business one day last week.

Elise Krumrine of Welkter, Union county, spent the holiday season with her daughter, Mrs. L. O. Packer...

Mrs. C. W. Pennington and two daughters are spending two weeks at the home of the former's mother, Mrs. Mary Smith, in Bellefonte.

Elmer Miller, teacher of the grammar school, and Mrs. Miller, spent the school vacation period at the homes of their respective parents, at Tusseyville.

Three inches of snow and a set on Wednesday last week made possible the first real sleighing of the season...

G. W. Tressler of near Penna. Cave was a business caller at this office one day last week.

Announcement of the birth of Martha Jane Sander, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Sander...

Messrs. W. F. Keller and Jasper Wagner, rural mail carriers from the local postoffice...

Victor Jones, who is in his last year as a student in the Theological Seminary at Lancaster...

George Bohr, a Penna. Valley youth who for almost a year has been located at Dover, Minnesota...

William Bailer, for several years a member of the editor's family...

One of the most beautiful of the various Christmas entertainments rendered in the churches last week was that given by the Sunday schools of the Reformed and Lutheran churches at Tusseyville.

Increasing powers of second-class cities relative to building inspectors and fire prevention.

The practice act for common pleas courts.

The uniform sales act.

Providing for state inspection of agricultural lime.

Amending anthracite and bituminous coal mining acts so that miners shall be brought under the workmen's compensation system.

The stock transfer tax act.

Providing for uniform policy contracts for fire insurance.

WILL TURN GAME LOOSE.

Deer, Elk, Turkeys, Quail and Rabbits to be Distributed in Closed Counties.

Quail, turkeys, rabbits, deer and elk will be turned loose in the game preserves and closed counties of Pennsylvania this winter...

The rabbits are from Tennessee and Kentucky and are relatives of those liberated in Allegheny and other counties where "cottontails" have been a rarity for years.

Plans have been made to get a twenty-five additional elk from the Yellowstone region during the winter.

Messrs. McWilliams.

On Thursday noon of last week Ralph E. Musser and Miss Isabelle McWilliams were united in marriage...

Messrs. Metz.

At the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Metz...

Little Daughter at Penna. Cave House.

Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Campbell, who conduct the famous Penna. Cave House, are rejoicing over an addition to their family.

Fractured Her Arm in Fall.

In stepping from off the porch of a neighbor's home, Mrs. L. O. Packer fell and fractured a bone in her left arm...

Will Install New Officers.

Centre Hall Castle, E. G. E., will install their newly elected officers on Friday evening.

Ten new laws become operative.

Increasing powers of second-class cities relative to building inspectors and fire prevention.

The practice act for common pleas courts.

The uniform sales act.

Providing for state inspection of agricultural lime.

Amending anthracite and bituminous coal mining acts so that miners shall be brought under the workmen's compensation system.

The stock transfer tax act.

Providing for uniform policy contracts for fire insurance.

Miss Helen Packer, who is attending school at Pittsburgh, spent the holidays with her parents here.

TOWN AND COUNTY NEWS.

HAPPENINGS OF LOCAL INTEREST FROM ALL PARTS.

May the year 1916 contain three hundred and sixty-six days of happiness and prosperity for you.

Miss Mary Foreman of State College spent a few days last week as the guest of Miss Mary Kennedy.

Girl Wanted.—A girl to do general housework in a small family.—Mrs. L. O. Packer, Centre Hall.

J. S. Rowe on Tuesday returned to Staeburr, Virginia, where he is working on the construction of a rock crusher plant.

Charles Stoner, at Tusseyville, lost a valuable black mare on Sunday night. The animal was sick for almost a week with colic.

School children started on their last half of the school year on Monday morning, after a week's vacation which all enjoyed outdoors in coasting.

Mrs. F. S. Kremer and daughter Miss Rebecca, accompanied by Miss Ruth Ruble, spent a few days last week in Altoona with the family of John Scholl.

Unclaimed letters in Centre Hall postoffice, January 1st, 1916: Mrs. Tishy Borer, Mrs. John Stover, Mr. F. Muller, Mr. O. F. Carman, Messrs. J. A. Fulmer & Son.—S. W. Smith, postmaster.

Mrs. Mary Louberger was one of the Reporter's callers last week, and among other things reported the crop of chestnut posts on Nittany Mountain was fine, and that she had a choice lot to sell at reasonable price.

Jasper Wagner, the rural mail carrier who under the recent readjustment of mail routes was transferred from Spring Mills to Centre Hall, moved his family into the Calvin storer property, this week.

Mrs. P. M. Boon of New Haven, Connecticut, and Mrs. George Robertson of Hartford, Connecticut, are spending a few weeks with their father, B. D. Brisban, whose health for some time past has not been up to standard.

Those from a distance who attended the funeral of Samuel Slack, at Potters Mill, were Joseph Zeigler, Lewisville; Robert and Uriah Zeigler, Leesville; Mrs. James Karr, Milroy; Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Catterman, Hartleton; D. P. Pennington, Altoona; A. F. Kimpert, Obelisk; all nieces and nephews of Mr. Slack's.

The Ladies Auxiliary to the Bellefonte hospital, in this place, this week added to the beauty and utility of the Centre Hall room by adding three rugs and a mattress. The ladies are thankful to F. V. Goodhart, the furniture dealer, through whose financial aid it was made possible to purchase these necessary articles.

A five-celled cotton boll, just as it grew in the sunny south, was received by the writer, one day last week, from Guy W. Jacob, who at present is located in New Orleans, Louisiana.

The boll was picked in just the right season and is a beautiful specimen of fluffy whiteness, bursting from its cells to the length of three inches. To those who have never seen this most wonderful product of the south in its natural state, we would extend an invitation to come and examine it.

W. L. Royer of Taylor, North Dakota, arrived here last Thursday and will spend the month with his sister, Mrs. E. C. Shirik, in this place, and his brother, T. F. Royer, at Spruceville. Mr. Royer is a native of Penna. Valley, having been reared on a farm at Red Mill. In the year 1876 he emigrated to Stephenson county, Illinois, where he engaged in farming until 1904 when he removed to his present location.

Mr. Royer now buys and sells stock, besides conducting a feed barn. He is enthusiastic over the opportunities in farming in the west and reports good crops through all the western states.

New Year's day was the forty-third anniversary of the marriage of Mr. and Mrs. John G. King, in this place, and it was planned to have a simple celebration by having present the Morris Forey family, of Bellefonte, Mrs. Forey being a sister of Mr. King's, but owing to the rather serious illness of that lady the celebration did not take place. Mr. and Mrs. King spending the day in their usually quiet and contented manner. Mr. King is the oldest resident in Centre Hall, and a remarkable man for one who will attain his eighty-sixth birthday on the 16th of this month.

Mr. King devotes much of her time to charity work. They are good citizens and the Reporter trusts that they may live to enjoy their golden wedding anniversary with as good health as they now possess.