

THE CENTRE REPORTER.

THURSDAY, JANUARY 20, 1916

LOCALS

Miss Lulu Homan is spending a few weeks with her sister, Mrs. Chester E. Homan, at State College.

George W. Felding of Linden Hall transacted business in Centre Hall on Tuesday and was also a pleasant caller at this office.

Miss Irene Ross returned to her home at Linden Hall after completing her work as a trained nurse at the McClenahan home.

Frank P. Floray, school director and useful citizen, of Potter township, made a short business call at this office Saturday afternoon.

It is estimated by the Department of Agriculture that there are 1,338,000 acres of wheat sown for 1916 harvest. This is a gain of 13,250 acres over last year.

At a special meeting of Centre Hall Lodge, I. O. O. F., on Thursday evening, Messrs. Charles Pennington and Ralph E. Dinges were initiated into the mysteries of the Order.

The property of Mrs. Sarah Horner, late of Potter township, deceased, located near Colyer, was sold last week by Mr. John B. Horner of Tusseyville, to Mrs. Lydia Lingle of Joliet, Illinois. The place will be occupied by her son, John Venrick, and family.

Ex-register J. Frank Smith on Saturday left for Curweeville where he will assist Rev. J. Max Lantz, former pastor of the Penns Valley Methodist church, in holding a six weeks' revival campaign. Mr. Smith will have charge of the singing feature of the work.

Michael Ebsaffer, who makes his home with his son, Bigler Ebsaffer, near Millheim, is seriously ill with no hopes for his recovery. Mr. Ebsaffer passed his ninety-second birthday last August and at that time made his usual walks of eight to twelve miles without a stop. His trouble is cancer which has affected the right side of the face and is spreading to the left.

Charles Kellerman, who had charge of the electric wiring of the residence and business place, in this town, moved his household goods from Bellefonte last Thursday with the intention of occupying the Lambert property on east Church street, but upon a better acquaintance with the terms of the lease, refused to attach his signature to the papers and started back over the mountain.

Charles W. Weaver, of Millmont, visited among relatives near Penn Hall on Thursday and on the following day came to Centre Hall, where he is always welcomed by his many friends who find real pleasure in grasping the hand of a genial and warm hearted man. Mr. Weaver informed the Reporter that Mrs. Weaver is lying in the City hospital in Williamsport, where after her system reaches a more favorable condition, she will undergo an operation.

The Reporter was pleased for more reasons than one to have a call from George Horner, who farms the Bodorf farm near Linden Hall. He not only paid a string of subscriptions, but proved a pleasant visitor. He and Mr. Horner are delighted over a trip to Reading, made recently, where their son Charles W. Horner is located. The latter is fitting himself for the ministry, and while attending school is serving several congregations in the vicinity of Reading, and is also devoting a portion of his time to clerical work in the office of a large paint manufacturing establishment. In this way he is supporting his family and paying for his schooling.

Millheim.

The grip has a pretty good hold in this section, quite a number of people being sick.

Russell Wolf, who is employed at Mill Hall, spent Sunday with his parents here.

Rev. W. H. Brown will hold revival services in the United Evangelical church beginning this week.

Mr. A. Harter and sons Harry of Altoona and Norman of Akron, Ohio; also Mrs. Harry Kusenknabe of Harrisburg, attended the funeral on Thursday last of the four year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Harter.

The Evangelist Paul Brown spent last Friday with friends here, leaving on Saturday morning for Williamsport to join his party who opened a two weeks' campaign in one of the churches at Newberry.

Potters Mills

Those who are on the sick list are Mr. George Boal, Mr. Hartman, Mr. Moyer, Mr. McClenahan, Mrs. Blausner.

Mr. John Confer visited at the home of Emanuel Smith on Saturday. Charley Wagner, the experienced trapper, came in on Sunday with a grey fox.

Those who visited at the home of Michael Smith on Sunday were Misses Nellie Bihle, Mary Zerby and Ethel Long.

Squire Carson, Mr. John Wilkinson, and Charles Condo made a trip to Bellefonte one day last week.

William Breesler returned home after spending some time in New Jersey.

DIXON'S HEALTH TALKS.

Health Commissioner Says a Day in Bed Will Often Forestall Severe Illness.—Applies especially to Grip.

There are times when everyone realizes that they are on the verge of an illness. The symptoms vary according to the individual case but whether it be a cold, grip, or exhaustion, Nature usually has a way of sounding a warning which is not to be mistaken.

When danger signals are thus displayed for our benefit in this fashion there is one course of action which will often prove effective, even at the eleventh hour. A day in bed in a well ventilated room with an extremely light diet is frequently sufficient to save one from a severe illness.

Rest is often one of Nature's simplest and most effective aids to healing and if taken in time may be warranted far superior in its therapeutic effect to any quantity of drugs taken after the damage is done.

An extremely light diet or a fast for twenty-four hours serves the same purpose in giving the digestive organs a needed rest under such conditions. A day or so in bed adhering to the resolve not to allow the ordinary annoyances and responsibilities of life to interfere with one's complete relaxation would often be of more value than traveling long distances for a change of climate.

There are some people who boast of their ability to keep going regardless of the warnings which Nature serves in times of danger. At times they may be successful avoiding the penalty but usually they have to "pay the piper." Better a short voluntary rest now and then than one enforced by a profound disturbance of health as the result of disregarding Nature's warning.

Illegal Liquor Sellers Sentenced.

Milton M. Royer, proprietor of the Deckard house, Millinburg, and Leah Dershem, T. E. Bodger and Robert Doebler, all of Millinburg, were charged with illegal liquor selling before the Union county court, last week, and they plead guilty to the charge. The minimum sentence was served upon them: Royer was given a fine of $500 and six months in the jail, and the others a fine of $500 and three months imprisonment. Liquor licenses have been refused Millinburg hotels several years ago, the town being dry, with a strong temperance sentiment prevailing.

Bellefonte's Postmaster Named.

P. H. Gherrity's nomination for postmaster of Bellefonte was sent to the United States senate by President Wilson, last Thursday.

PENN HALL

Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Fisher transacted business at Bellefonte on Monday. Mrs. Sarah Hartman spent Tuesday at the home of Miss Lucy Musser.

Mrs. A. M. Kreamer spent Tuesday with Mrs. E. H. Shook.

J. C. Condo transacted business in Aaronsburg this week.

Mrs. E. H. Shook spent a few days with her son, Ralph, and family, at Brush Valley.

Mrs. Luther Rishel and Mrs. Ernest Wise are under the doctor's care, suffering with grip.

Miss Mable Nease, teacher of the Pike Hill school at Georges Valley, spent Sunday under the parental roof.

The concert rendered by the Hinters-Verdi Company in the Grange hall at Spring Mills, Thursday night, was well attended and proved to be a very enjoyable entertainment.

A petition is being circulated in this vicinity which has for its purpose the vacating of the public road between the George Kline residence and Spring Mills. If the petitioners accomplish their end there will be a great inconvenience to many with benefit to practically none.

Those who attended the dance held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Gross Shook, Friday night, report having had a fine time. Those who were present were: Misses Alta and Catharine Sinkabine, Jennie and Florence Bartger, Marlon and Helen Finkle, Mable, Helen, Carrie, and Edna Nease, Ethel Hettlinger and Carrie Heckman; Messrs. Donald Allison, Herbert and John Goodhart, Harold Meyer, Dean Braucht, Roy Krumrine, Clarence Albright, Russell Condo, Edwin Hosterman, Harry Nease, Clarence and Edwin Musser.

CENTRE OAK

Weather cold; this should make ice to fill up the ice houses; none filled around here yet.

Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Smith are on the sick list; also, Mrs. Wilbur Lucas has been housed up for over a week.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo J. Homan are rejoicing over the arrival of a son in their home. They will call him Robert Oscar Homan.

Miss Helen Neese of Penn Hall spent Sunday with her friend, Miss Helen Rishel.
