LOCALS

Mr. Mary Snyder is spending a month or more with her daughter, Mrs. Earl Lutz, in this place.

Miss Elsie Slick spent a few days this week at Boalsburg, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Grant Charles.

The borough overseers of the poor have rented a part of the Cook Hubler residence for Capt. W. H. Runkle.

Be sure to see "Uncle Ephraim's Summer Boarders," in Grange Auditorium, Thursday evening, February 24th.

Mrs. D. W. Bradford visited Miss Florence S. Rhone, on Monday, in the City Hospital, Harrisburg. Miss Rhone continues to improve from her operation.

John Smetzler, who for the past three months has been visiting at the home of his uncle, James Smetzler, in this place, left for his home in Bellevue, Ohio, on Tuesday morning.

Judge Henry C. Quigley last week made these appointments: Dr. Ambrose M. Schmidt, probation officer for the juvenile court; and Miss Winifred Gates, juvenile court stenographer.

The upper two grades in the borough schools were dismissed shortly after the opening hour, Monday, because of the intense cold. As there was plenty of coal in the bin, there was no excuse for the condition.

According to the assessors' lists of dog taxes paid, filed with the county commissioner, there are more than 3500 canines in Centre county. On this number taxes have been paid; the others are liable to have their hides perforated with shot at any time.

Just to make the Reporter believe that February 21 to 23 is a real "Pay-Up-Week" in the east and in the west, send us in a lot of one-fifties on subscriptions. During "Pay-Up-Week" nothing will talk but money. Come along, and we will join the boys in passing along the dollar-fifty to pay other bills.

Equipe Cyrus Brungart felt somewhat alarmed Monday morning when the thermometer registered seven degrees below zero, and his orchard of young peach trees having but recently responded to the influence of the spring-like weather. An examination, however, revealed that no apparent damage was done.

A large number of the sales listed for March, in Penna Valley, at least, are stock sales. This year, like the past few years, will find few changes among tenants, all of which goes to show that there is no state of unrest among the farming class and that life on the farm is growing more pleasant and profitable every year.

Messrs. F. M. Fisher, of Penn Hall, and L. W. Stover, of Millheim, were business callers at this office on Monday. Mr. Stover is one of the managers of the new picture theatre in Millheim and had an advertisement of the picture program for the next two weeks published in the Reporter. He reports the venture proving a success in Millheim and already arrangements are being made to increase the seating capacity of the theatre. Pictures by the best film companies in the country are being shown on the screen and in every way the "Auditorium" measures up to the high-class motion picture houses.

Spring Mills.

Mrs. Charles Cummings and daughters left for Sunbury on Tuesday. Andrew Shook is housed up with rheumatism.

John Myers purchased the home of Alice Leitzel on Saturday.

The many friends and neighbors of Sarah Snively had a surprise party for her on Saturday evening.

Daniel Siegal moved into the home he bought from Mr. Cummings, on Monday.

On account of the bad weather on Saturday, Mrs. Cummins' sale was postponed until Monday afternoon. It was attended by a large crowd and everything brought good price.

The young people had a party at the Austin Long home on Thursday evening. Those present were Grace Royer, Florence Bartges, Mary Carson, Mina Bowman, Alta and Catherine Sinkabine, Mabel, Helen and Edna Neeser, Marian and Helen Finkle, Carrie Dunlap, Carrie Heckmar, Miriam Long, Russell Condo, Deau Brantch, Edwin Musser, Chas. Aumar, Donald Allison, Peater Ro-smann, Chas. Zettle, Harold Meyer, Clarence Albright, and Roy Krumm.

Linden Hall

Mrs. Catharine Bradford, who has been quite ill at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Frank Isler, is very much better and is now able to be out.

Mr. Philip Bradford of Lemont spent a day last week at the home of Station Agent Ishler.

Mr. and Mrs. William Ferree entertained about fifty of their friends on Tuesday evening at a Valentine party.

Mr. Jacob Sharer and Miss Verna Weaver spent last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gregg Carper.

The U. E. meetings are very well attended. There has been much interest shown and about twenty-five conversions.

Potters Mills

Mrs. Groseman has been one of the many who are sick in this community.

John Moyer and bride are spending a short vacation at the home of the former's uncle, James Moyer, at this place.

Well, girls and boys, get your sleigh bells ready as there is a young man in this town who is taking unto himself a wife.

Mrs. Ashbridge Thomas expects to leave for Detroit, Michigan, where she will join her husband who holds a position in that place.

It is only a short time until the sale season will open, and then a host of farmers and "near-by" farmers will take their noon lunch from a poke and everlastingly duck their heads to the response of the erler's going!

and —
