LOCALS
Sunday was a nice day—indoors.
It is less than three weeks until the first day of spring.

Unclaimed letters in Centre Hall postoffice, March 1: Samuel Tate.—S. W. Smith, postmaster.

Mrs. George Knorr, of Warner'sville, is spending the week with her sister-in-law, Mrs. E. M. Huyett.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry H. Houser of Linden Hall drove to Centre Hall on Tuesday to do some shopping.

F. V. Goodhart and sister, Miss Margaret, made a trip to Milroy and Reedsville, in their car, Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Hubler, of Lock Haven, and the latter's sister, Miss Nellie Gebret, of Bellefonte, spent Monday at the home of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. Cook Hubler, in this place.

Earl Ross, of Linden Hall, who on the first of April will change farming locations moving from Pennsylvania Furnace to a farm in Brush Valley, attended the horse sale on Monday with a view to purchasing a team.

L. L. Smith, the new livervyman, was to Lock Haven last week where he purchased a driving horse. With the purchase of another horse recently from D. A. Boozler, Mr. Smith is steadily increasing his livery stock and he will be in first-class shape to accommodate a large trade when conditions for travel become more favorable.

Road supervisors in Potter township were busy with their crews of men, Monday and Tuesday, opening up cross roads that had drifted shut as a result of Sunday's severe storm. The rural mail service was somewhat paralyzed on Monday, W. F. Keller, who goes out from this office on R. D. No. 1, being compelled to return to the postoffice after going over less than half the route.

A change in real estate in the borough was made beginning of the week when James From, through the C. D. Bartholomew agency, sold his two properties along the mountain road. The lower and more improved property, consisting of a new house and barn was sold to D. Ross Bushman, while the upper one was sold to Miss Sarah McClellan. No figures are made public.

Work was begun last week on replacing the telegraph with the telephone on the L. & T. branch of the P. R. R., from Montandon to Bellefonte. The Bell lines are now between Coburn and Millinburg and are rapidly covering the ground. This change on the part of the railroad company was decided upon some time ago and will ultimately extend over the greater part of the system.

College songs of the most approved type are to be recorded by the Pennsylvania State College glee club for a prominent manufacturer of phonograph records. Officials of the company and C. C. Robinson, director of music at Penn State, have arranged for recordings to be made next week when State's club will be enroute to New York City to compete in the third annual intercollegiate concert.

The presence of the orchestra connected with Centre lodge, I. O. O. F., of Bellefonte, at the meeting of the local order, Saturday night, had a good effect on the attendance. The lodge room was filled to capacity, there being more than eighty members and visitors present. The orchestra, consisting of six pieces, rendered most excellent music during the conferring of the third degree upon a class of five. Those who at that time became full fledged Odd Fellows are Messrs. W. O. Heckman, Sidney Royer, Edward Homann, Daniel Bloom and Charles Condo. Prof. Henry F. Whiting, principal of the Bellefonte High school, was among the Bellefonte contingent, and speaking on good of the order expressed the wish that the local lodge would become interested enough in the Encampment branch of the order to establish an organization in this place. After a most interesting session the lodge came to a close, refreshments being then served.

BOALSBURG.

Mrs. Wion, of Tyrone, visited Mrs. H. S. Harro.

Miss Frances Patterson is spending some time in Altoona.

Mr. and Mrs. David Keller and Mr. and Mrs. William Keller, of Centre Hall, spent Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Fisher.

The wedding bells rang through our town last week and there is a rumor that they will ring soon again; now stop, look and listen, so you can hear their sweet chiming.

Millheim.

Mrs. Guy P. Springer has been suffering from grip the past week.

Fred Mensech, who is employed at Harrisburg, is visiting his parents here.

Herman Alters, of Williamsport, spent a few days among his old home friends, the past week.

William Catherman is remodeling his house on North street and will leave the farm in the spring and move to town.

A friend is one who comes in when the whole world goes out; one who knows all about you and loves you anyway.

Miss Mary Mauch's Sunday-school class gave a Washington tea in the old town hall Tuesday evening. The receipts, which will be used for church purposes, amounted to $17.00.

Word comes from Rev. Paul Brown, the evangelist, who is holding a campaign at Williamsport, that they closed the meeting at Newberry with one hundred and forty converts.

C. H. Breen has purchased from Frank Colyer the wagon shed situated on Water street and is converting same into a dwelling. His son, William Breen, will occupy the house when finished. Vacant houses are scarce and we know of several families who have no place to move.

John J. Flannigan, of New York City, is here again for the purpose of buying a car load of horses. Mr. Flannigan has been coming to Millheim for some forty years in the interests of the horse. Johnny is a Prince among good fellows and his many friends are always glad to welcome his return.

E. R. Schreckengast, formerly proprietor of the Globe store, is taking a course in pen and ink drawing for the purpose of becoming a cartoonist.

Mr. Schreckengast is quite an artist along these lines and we hope to soon see some of his funny sketches in our daily paper. Here's luck to you, old friend, in your chosen vocation.

On Tuesday evening of last week the school children of the first and second grades gave an entertainment in the Auditorium. They were well drilled and the large crowd in attendance enjoyed themselves to the limit.

A silver collection was lifted, the scholars clearing about $23.00. The money will be used for a new organ for the school room.
