VILLA TO BE PUNISHED.

From the Harrisburg Patriot.

The tragic raid of Villa and his bandits over American territory naturally makes American blood boil. If other crimes had not alienated all the sympathy and wild fascination Villa's career created in the States, this would have done it beyond hope of resurrection. The attack on the New Mexican village was senseless, cruel and cowardly.

There is a great demand that the Columbus victims shall be avenged by Villa's own blood, a cannibalistic impulse that survives the reading of the dastardly attack. America cannot justify itself by adopting Villa's methods, but it can and will demand punishment that fits the crime and quickly, too.

In the process none of the international relations between this country and that of Mexico need enter. Villa is not conducting warfare. His tactics are those of the guerrilla, the bandit he is. Villa punished and the episode is ended.

LOCALS

Mrs. James P. Herring of Altoona visited with friends in town over Sunday.

Mrs. Emma Breen advertises public sale of household goods for Friday, March 24th.

A flock of wild geese passed over town Sunday night in a northerly direction, another reminder of the approach of spring.

F. J. McClellan is employed in the boring mill at Burnham and drives his car to his work Monday mornings, working five nights in the week.

A. J. Weaver, of near Colyer, was a caller at this office on Monday to advertise letters of administration on the estate of Mrs. Edie Taylor, late of Potter township, deceased.

A cesspool was dug on the C. M. Arney property last week that developed a good opening at a depth of eight feet. A bath room outfit will be installed in the home soon.

Julian A. Fleming, who for the past several months has been in New York state, arrived in Centre Hall, Thursday, for an indefinite stay. Mr. Fleming had a rather severe attack of grip during his absence but has practically recovered.

H. D. Hagen, the carpenter, from Farmers Mill, was a caller at this office on Saturday to advance his subscription. He is anxiously awaiting the coming of the warm spring weather to start building operations, a considerable amount of which the Hagens are called on to do whenever the weather permits.

Public sales in this section during the third week of March: Saturday, March 18th, H. A. McClellan, at Tusseyville, and B. F. Ricker, agent, near Spring Mills; Wednesday, March 22nd, J. L. Tressler, Linden Hall, and Ezra Harter, near Spring Mills; Thursday, March 23rd, William Grossman, near Tusseyville.

Among the places wired for electric light and power during the past week was the grain house of H. D. Foreman. Mr. Foreman is the first business man in town to adopt the most modern method for supplying power, which speaks for his progressiveness, the size of the motor to be installed is a three-horse power and will be used in his grain elevator for hoisting purposes.

Golden Wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Meyer of Boalsburg on Wednesday celebrated their golden wedding anniversary in fitting style. No comments will be made this week except to say that the couple are among Boalsburg's most respected citizens, and that Mr. Meyer at eighty-six years is the oldest resident in his home town. A full account of the celebration will appear in the issue of the Reporter of next week. In the mean time the Reporter extends its best wishes to the couple.

Williams-Grove.

Wednesday of last week Robert F. Williams, of Lemont, and Miss Mary M. Grove, of Centre Hall, were united in marriage by Rev. Ambrose M. Schmidt, at the Reformed parsonage in Bellefonte. The bride is the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Grove and has taught several terms in the public schools.

The couple will begin housekeeping at Lemont in the near future. The Reporter extends congratulations.

A Jolly Skidding Party.

Thursday evening a skidding party enjoyed a two-mile drive into the country and stopped at the Lanson Burris place where several hours were spent in amusement and social intercourse. Splendid refreshments were served. The following comprised the party: Elizabeth Sweetwood, Mrs. Flora Vonada, Mary Whiteman, Delinda Potter, Bessie Breen, Marjorie Royer, Carrie Mitterling, Margaret Emery, Margaret Jacobs, Sumner Packer, Dwight Foss, James Sweetwood, Boyd Magee, Leonard Barnes, Alfred Crawford, J. T. Potter, W. H. Potter, and H. W. Dingee.

The Grind Stones Go Out.

The Wm. H. Mann Axe company at Yegertown, is engaged in installing sanitary grinding equipment to succeed the old sand grindstone which was certain death to grinders if they continued in the business an average of five years. The dust from the stone solidified on their lungs, producing what was known as "grinders tuberculosis." The new equipment consists of an emery stone hooded and equipped with suction pipes which carry away all dust.

Shindle Postoffice to be Discontinued.

A notice has been issued from the postoffice department at Washington, D. C., ordering that the postoffice at Shindle, Mifflin county, shall be discontinued after next April 15. All mail addressed to that office will after the above date be sent to the postoffice at Wagner. F. W. Keupp is the present postmaster at Shindle.

State Agricultural Notes.

Pennsylvania is led in the production of potatoes by Maine, New York, Michigan, Wisconsin and Minnesota.

Pennsylvania ranks ninth in the production of wheat, fourteenth for oats and twentieth for corn in the United States.

Farmers report that the high price of gasoline has caused an increase in the price of grinding in the grist mills of the State.

Pennsylvania ranks sixth in the production of hay with New York, Iowa, Missouri, California and Wisconsin leading.

Over 2,000 tons of cabbage remains in storage at Waterford, Erie County, and it is being moved slowly at seven dollars a ton.

It is estimated by the Department of Agriculture agent that it takes over 6,000,000 tons of feed to supply the livestock of the State each year.

In North Heidelberg township, Berks county, it is reported that thirteen per cent. of the farmers are disposing of their stock and will retire.

Pennsylvania ranks sixteenth among the States for the number of horses and twentieth for the number of mules it possesses. Iowa and Illinois lead with horses and Texas and Missouri with mules.

Between eleven and twelve thousand persons attended the Farmers Institutes held in York county, being an average of nearly 1,000 persons a day. York county farmers attribute much of their success to the institutes conducted annually by the Department of Agriculture.

BOALSBURG.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Felty of Altoona spent a few days with relatives here. Mrs. J. Robert Harter moved to her new home at State College last week.

Miss Cecil Harro entertained a number of her young friends at a party on Friday evening.

Miss Mary Reish expects to spend two weeks sewing at the home of Daniel Houser.

Mrs. G. N. Fisher and son Daniel and daughter Louise spent Saturday in Bellefonte.

Mrs. Emery Gattig of Altoona is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Meyer.

Miss Blanche Rowe, who has been spending some time in Altoona, returned to her home last Thursday.

Mrs. Emma Stuer, who spent several months with sons in Pottsville, returned to her home last week.

The demonstration which was held in the Boal hall, Thursday evening, was very interesting; also very instructive.

Come to Boal hall Friday evening, March 17th, at 7:30 and hear and see the free illustrated lecture, (fifty cents admission) by Dr. Reeper of State College, on "Consolidation of Schools."

Saturday, March 18th, the local institute for Ferguson, Harris and State College townships will be held in Boal hall, 9:15 a. m. to 4 p. m. Everyone come and help to make this meeting a success.

On Wednesday evening of last week a debate was held in the Boal hall. Men from State College, who acted as judges, said, "they came expecting to hear a high school debate, but they heard one equal to a college debate." From the twelve who debated six were chosen, and from this number three will be selected to go to Bellefonte and debate the latter part of March.

REBERSBURG

Mrs. Venus Moyer last week moved into part of Harry Gephart's house.

Mrs. Monas Gilbert spent several days the past week at Livonia.

Scott Stover has returned home from a two weeks' business trip to State College.

Calvin Crouse and wife are at present visiting relatives in Union and Clinton counties.

Rebersburg is in need of a good blacksmith as Jay Vonada, the present smithy, will leave town the first week of April for Old Fort.

Last Thursday Emanuel Confer, moved from near Wolfs store to the home known as the Dobler home, at present owned by Ward Gramley.

John Spangler is making preparations to move to State College in the near future. John Page will occupy the house Spangler vacates.

The Biery and Duck shingle mill, which was placed on the Gephart farm several weeks ago, is not in operation at present owing to the extreme cold weather.

Orvis Walker quite recently bought three colony houses from Dr. Hardeburg, of Millheim. He had the same hauled to this place and unloaded them on his father's lot.

Linden Hall

Miss Edwina Wieland is home from Bloomsburg Normal for a ten days' vacation.

The teachers' training class meets this week at the home of Mrs. W. T. Noll, on Thursday evening.

Mrs. Henry Houser went to the Bellefonte hospital last week and was operated on there Tuesday morning. Her condition is favorable and her friends look for her speedy recovery.

William Catherman, having rented his property here to J. L. Tressler, will move to Boalsburg April 1st, where he will occupy the Shaffer house.

William McClintic will move to J. L. Tressler's farm and Clarence Bisler will farm for F. E. Wieland. David Glasgow the present tenant, will move to the farm he purchased from Dr. H. F. Bitner.

PENN HALL

George Shook made a business trip to Millheim on Friday.

Cora Osman spent Sunday at the home of Harry Weaver and family.

Pearl Heckman from Brush Valley visited her friend, Mae Noll, over Sunday.

Ethel Musser visited her sister, Mrs. Harry Ulrich, at Spring Mills, over Sunday.

David Hennigh and his daughter, Mrs. Lloyd Houser, spent Tuesday at the home of George Shook.

Willis and Milton Walker were here from Tyrone and Stormstown to help their father, get ready for his sale.

Mrs. John Musser and children, from Millheim, spent several days last week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Condo.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Fisher spent several days at Sunbury last week, Wallace Musser taking charge of the store while they were away.

It was a bitter disappointment to Fred —, who after driving all the way from Centre Hall found that another had won a place in the affection of his "best girl." After this, Fred, be sure to book your date far enough in advance of your starting.

Millheim.

Byron Musser, of Sunbury, spent Sunday in his home town.

Mr. N. A. Auman has been on the sick list the past week.

Harry Hartman, from State College, spent a few days at the home of his parents.

Mrs. Seymour Bain of Oak Park, Illinois, is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hassinger.

Mrs. Robert Breen and young son, of State College, are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Metz.

As far as we know the ice houses are all filled, so here's hoping the weather man will soon show signs of spring.

John J. Flannigan shipped a car load of horses to Easton, New Jersey. He will gather another load in a few weeks.

Mrs. Harvey Swartz, from Lewisburg, who has been suffering for years with rheumatism, was buried here Thursday morning.

Orvis Walker, of Rebersburg, who is going in the chicken business, purchased three colony houses from Dr. Hardeburg, who has decided to quit poultry raising.

George Winters, from Rebersburg, who has been troubled for some time with a cancer in the face, was taken by Dr. G. S. Frank to a Baltimore specialist where he will undergo a radium treatment.

The ladies of the Methodist church will hold a chicken and waffle supper in the basement of the church on Saturday evening. There will be a special apron sale; also ice cream and homemade candied. Everybody invited.

ADMINISTRATOR'S NOTICE.

Letters of administration on the estate of Mrs. Edie Taylor, late of Potter township, deceased.

Letters of administration on the above estate having been duly granted to the undersigned, he would respectfully request all persons knowing themselves indebted to the estate to make immediate payment, and those having claims against the same to present them duly authenticated for settlement.

A. J. WEAVER, Administrator.
