

ALMOST REACHED 95-YEAR MARK.

Death Claims Grand Old Lady of Haines Township at 94. Mrs. John Fredrick, widow of John Fredrick, removed one of the oldest and most respected ladies of the eastern part of Centre county. Her death occurred Tuesday noon and was due to general debility. She was within five weeks of being ninety-five years of age. Up until last fall she retained her faculties when she suffered a paralytic stroke and from that time had been practically helpless. She was tenderly cared for in the home of her son, Dr. Daniel Bowersox, near Aaronsburg.

Deceased was Mary Frederick, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Fredrick, and was born in Hartley township, Union county. After her marriage to John Bowersox, the couple began farming in Haines township and continued residents of that place until their death, Mr. Bowersox preceding his wife to the grave by twenty years. Mrs. Bowersox was a member of the Lutheran church since girlhood and a woman devoted to her home and family. Her death removed the oldest member of a grand family, represented by five generations, there surviving two children, seven grandchildren, eight great-grandchildren and one great-grandchild. The surviving sons are Dr. David Bowersox, of Aaronsburg, and Adam Bowersox.

The funeral services will be held in Wolf's Chapel Friday morning and burial to take place in the cemetery connected with that church. Rev. M. D. Geesey will officiate.

A great shock to the residents of Millheim and surrounding country was the announcement on Saturday morning of the death of Mrs. William H. Brown, wife of Rev. W. H. Brown, the United Evangelical minister in that place. Her death followed an illness with pneumonia which had its inception only Monday previous. The funeral services were held Tuesday morning in the U. E. church at Millheim, with Rev. C. L. Sones, of York, the presiding elder of Centre District, in charge. The remains were taken to Manchester, York county, on Wednesday morning, where burial was made in the Union cemetery, Dr. A. E. Gobble officiating.

Deceased was Miss Minnie Ella Weitzel and was born and raised in New Berlin, Union county, where she attended college. On December 23, 1896, she was united in marriage to Rev. W. H. Brown at New Berlin, by Rev. A. E. Gobble. Besides her husband six children survive—Luis J., Ruth A., Minnie L., J. Good, Hugh A., and Caradene R. She was forty-three years of age last August. As a church and temperance worker her place will be a difficult one to fill, for in every branch of church work she took a leading part.

Joseph Funk, an old and well known resident of Curtin, died at the home of his son Edward, Saturday morning, April 25, of disease incident to his advanced age. He was a son of George and Susan Funk and was born at Curtin on March 11th, 1837, hence had reached the advanced age of seventy-nine years and fourteen days. He served during the Civil war as a private in Company A, Forty-fifth regiment Pennsylvania volunteers.

Mrs. Funk died two years ago but surviving the deceased are three sons: Edward, of Curtin; Milford and William, in the west. He also leaves the following brother and sisters; Scott, of Williamsport; Mrs. Elizabeth Hus, of Spring Mills; Mrs. Jane Titus, of Louisville, Ky.; Mrs. Catharine Fulk, of New Bethlehem, and Mrs. Alice Minsker, of Williamsport.

Funeral services were held at his late home on Monday afternoon of last week by Rev. M. C. Piper, after which burial was made in the Curtin cemetery.

Mrs. Florence Dunkle, died Thursday evening of last week at her home at Mt. Eagle, at the age of fifty-eight years. She is survived by three children, namely, Mrs. F. Clayton Crozier, Mt. Eagle; Mrs. Ursinus Creamer, State College; and Miss Alice, the latter having made her home with her mother. Her husband, Joseph Dunkle, died about fifteen years ago. There remain also these brothers and sisters: Mrs. Sarah Havern, Mingo; Mrs. Elizabeth stump, Centre Hall; Mrs. Alice Emerick, Centre Hall; James Smeizer, Endicott, N. Y.

The deceased was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Smeizer, deceased. Interment was made at Curtin, on Sunday.

State Agricultural Notes.

The average price of horses has dropped twenty-five per cent. and mules fifteen per cent. in some sections of York county.

In Susquehanna county there has been fine sleighing for a long period and the farmers have cut twelve inch ice for their ice house.

The average price of potatoes on the farms in Pennsylvania on March 1 was $1.09 a bushel compared with a price of 58 cents a bushel a year ago.

It is reported to the Department of Agriculture that the winter has been hard on the honey bees in various sections on account of the many warm spells.

Figures from the state department of agriculture, just issued, show that 5808 sheep, valued at over $50,000, were killed by dogs in Pennsylvania last year.

Despite the good prices brought for horses at the rural sales in many sections of the State there has been a tendency of a drop in price, the estimated value being $158 against $171 a year ago.

In 1915 the estimated average price of alfalfa seed as sold by the farmer in the State was $7.75 a bushel while at the present time the estimated average price is $11.70 a bushel. The average price as bought from dealers is $13.20 a bushel.

There has been a wonderful increase in the average price of sheep, lambs and wool in Pennsylvania over a year ago and there promises to be an awakening of the sheep industry if legislation to curb the ravages of the dogs can be obtained. Present averages show sheep worth $6.10 a year ago and lambs worth $8.50 a hundred pounds against $7.10 a year ago. Wool averages 28 cents a pound against 22 cents a year ago.

Does Reading send you to sleep?

If it does, don't blame the story, don't condemn the type or the printing, don't imagine you've weak eyes, for the fault is probably with your lamp. And it's a fault that is easily remedied—all that's needed is a Rayo Lamp. By its clear, steady, white light you can read on and on, get the full pleasure out of reading and without a trace of eye strain. But to get the most and best light from a Rayo Lamp, use

ATLANTIC Rayolight OIL

Combined they give the finest light money can buy, an economical light, too, ideal for reading, sewing or playing. Your dealer can show you a Rayo Lamp specially designed for parlor, sitting room or kitchen, from $1.50 up. And each of these rooms needs one—Rayo Lamps are easily cleaned and last a lifetime.

As for Atlantic Rayolight Oil, it is the one kerosene that burns in lamp, stove or heater without smoke or smell—gives a great volume of clear, white light, and an intense yet cheap heat.

And, do you know, thousands of clever housewives have told us they just can't get along without Atlantic Rayolight Oil for polishing furniture, washing windows, keeping lice off chickens, cleaning ordinary kerosene won't do them—they must have Atlantic Rayolight Oil. Ask for it by name—costs no more than the unknown kind. The dealer who displays this sign can always supply you. It's wise to get it by the barrel.

ATLANTIC REFINING COMPANY

Horse Market.
For the convenience of sellers and buyers of horses there will be held a public sale of horses at the livery barn of D. Wagner Geis, in Bellefonte, on Friday, April 7th, 1916, and continuing throughout the day.
On this date anybody having horses to sell may bring them to the livery barn for the inspection of persons who may desire to purchase. The object of conducting this market is to bring together sellers and buyers of horses. A number of owners have arranged to offer horses for sale on the above-mentioned date. Others are invited to do the same. Everybody welcome.

1. This is not to be an auction sale. It is planned as a market to afford buyers and sellers an opportunity to meet and make their own terms of sale. The intention is to have such sales at regular intervals as an accommodation to persons interested in horses.
