

LOCALS

W. F. Bradford made a business trip to Williamsport on Monday.

George W. Rowe, of Boalsburg, was a pleasant caller at this office, Thursday.

Mrs. W. A. Magee and son Huyett returned to their home in Wenonah, New Jersey, Saturday morning, after a few weeks' visit here.

Miss Mary Delinda Potter spent a few days in Williamsport this week and on Tuesday night attended the Bucknell alumni banquet, held at the Ross Club.

Dig up the "fly-swatter" and kill every fly that comes your way. A bit of vigilance in the early part of the season will mean many millions of flies less during the long summer months.

Rev. and Mrs. W. R. Jones and little daughter, formerly of Spring Mills, spent Thursday at the Reformed parsonage here, before starting for their new home at Shawville, Clearfield county.

The Lee Motor Car Company, of Spring Mills, sold a Sixton Six touring car to S. G. Walker, of Spring Mills, last week. On Tuesday morning this firm received a car load of these machines at their garage.

Mrs. J. H. Lever died at her home in Stormstown Friday afternoon after an illness of ten years with heart trouble. She was in her eighty-first year. Burial was made at Stormstown Tuesday morning.

H. L. Dougherty, of State College, class of 1911, became a roadman in the State Highway Department in 1912. Two weeks, four years later, he was appointed Superintendent of Highways in Washington county.

William H. Cummings and son of Aaronsburg were visitors in town on Wednesday. Mr. Cummings is delighted with his new quarters and speaks highly of the farm he is on and of the people who are his neighbors.

Samuel Durst is repairing the farm dwelling on the old Alexander farm, recently acquired by him and adjoining his other farm on the east. The house is an old log structure and Mr. Durst will make extensive repairs, within and without. The place is tenanted by William Stover.

Mike Louisa was electrocuted at the penitentiary at Rockview Monday for the murder of his wife, October 17, 1913, in Schuylkill county. He went to the death chair at 7:02 A. M. and was pronounced dead by Dr. F. H. Campbell at 7:59, after five contacts. The same day a dispatch was received at his former home in Pottsville that his son was killed in the European war on the Austrian-Italian front.

A delightful social function under the auspices of the W. C. T. U. was held in Grange Arcadia Tuesday evening. Over a hundred White Ribboners and invited guests enjoyed the beautiful lunch and social features of the occasion. About $35.00 dues were received which will go toward making Pennsylvania "White." Splendid community work is being done by this organization. Rev. Samuel Moody, of Hollidaysburg, and Miss Orpha Gramley, of Spring Mills, were among the guests from out of town.

A wireless station on the farm! This is but an extra step forward for the farmer who is keeping up with the most advanced ideas in agriculture. Such a station is now being erected on the Samuel Durst farm, at Earlystown, by his two sons, Edward and Ray, the latter a student in the Bellefonte High school, where he learned the principles of wireless telegraphy and assisted in the erection of a station at that school. The wires which will receive the aerograms are strung from the barn to the house and together with the receiving apparatus constitute a simple but efficient wireless station. At first only the daily government weather forecasts and standard time will be given any attention and as the mastery of the Continental code is acquired, more elaborate news will be received. The value of the daily weather forecasts on the farm is quite obvious and may mean hundreds of dollars to the farmer in harvest and hay-making time.

Come on, Ye Road Lics.

The council serves notice as to parking automobiles, but is rather indefinite in its appeal. The automobile is here to stay, and must be accommodated. If automobiles dare not be parked on the streets, what in thunder are our country folk to do with them when they come to town?

Instead of declaring the automobile a nuisance our boro fathers ought to lend their influence to induce more frequent visits by those who travel the modern way as well as by those who come behind old Dobbie. Get on the wide gauge, gentlemen of the council, the narrow track is a back number.

Horses Wanted.

R. B. Bucklen, from Norristown, will be buying horses all next week at Geiss' livery, Bellefonte. Heavy horses preferred. Will buy an old horse if in good condition. adv.

A pretty line of Easter post cards at this office.

Who Will Get the Fromm Place?

Deputy Sheriff Harrison Kilne, Jr., was in Centre Hall in official capacity on Tuesday, having come here to serve papers on James E. Fromm, which he did. It appears that some time ago Mr. Fromm entered into a written contract with D. Ross Bushman to sell to him his house on North Main street. The transfer was to have been made on April 1st, but at that time Mr. Fromm refused to make a legal transfer or give possession, and made an effort to return the hand-money, $50.00. Mr. Bushman, through his attorney, filed a bill in equity and secured a writ of injunction to stay the sale of the property in question to any other party until the bill in equity is passed on in court, and it was to serve these papers that the deputy sheriff visited the Fromm home at the time mentioned above.

The outcome of this tangle will be watched with much interest on the part of local citizens. While it is conceded that no one can be forced to sign a deed, it is nevertheless possible for the court to grant a deed should he find evidence warranting such action.

Birthday Party for "Bully" Parker.

On Saturday evening the home of William Parker, west of Centre Hall, was the scene of a joyous occasion, thirty or more persons being present to celebrate the fifty-fourth anniversary of "Bully's" birth. The evening was disagreeable without, but the cheer and good spirit that reigned within outweighed the weather's inclemency. The roads were in condition for sleighing and the trip was mostly made on runners. The following were present: Mr. and Mrs. William Tate, Mr. and Mrs. William Brooks, Mr. and Mrs. William Walker, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Osmer, Mr. and Mrs. John Heckman, Mr. and Mrs. John Mowery, Mr. and Mrs. John Garver and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Walker and son, Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Brooks and son, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Brooks and son, Mrs. Bertie McCormick and children, of Pittsburg; Mrs. Clara Grubb, of Akron, Ohio; Mrs. Catharine Burris, Miss Cora Boal, Miss Ruth Mooney, Newton Garver, Lanson Burris, William Miller, Emanuel Zettle, Masters Clyde and Clarence Walker.

Notice to the Public.

At a regular meeting of the borough council, held April 7th, complaint was made by a number of citizens from different parts of the town in regard to the parking of automobiles in front of private residences and the annoyance caused by the same. The council took the matter up and placed it in the hands of the nuisance committee, with power to act. The committee hereby requests all parties to discontinue the parking or placing of automobiles or any vehicle any place that in any way is an annoyance to any resident.

The committee hopes that it will be unnecessary to take any further action in regard to the above.

Rev. D. M. Geesey will hold the spring communion at this place on Sunday morning.

Lola Ulrich is having her house, occupied by Charles Batters, papered and painted on the interior.

Mrs. Harry Ulrich and son Kenneth from Spring Mills spent Tuesday at the home of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Musser.

The Centre Reporter, $1.50 a year.

Linden Hall

Mrs. Cora Brothfield went to Centre Hall to assist at her brother's moving. Edward Carper, who is employed at Uniontown, is here for a few weeks' vacation.

J. H. Miller, of Rock Springs, spent a few days last week with friends here.

Mrs. J. W. Keller went to Millheim Monday for a meeting of the Rebekah lodge, returning Tuesday.

Ned Keller came home Saturday from Susquehanna University for a few days vacation. He returned to his studies Wednesday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Weibly moved from Bellefonte Monday to the property they bought from the Potter estate. They are having the house remodeled.

Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Stam, accompanied by the former's mother, will leave Monday morning for California where they expect to make their future home.

Tusseyville

Miss Gertrude Spangler from Centre Hall spent Wednesday at the home of James Spangler.

W. F. Rockey made a business trip to Altoona Wednesday, and returned Friday.

A baby was born to Mr. and Mrs. Roy Martz beginning of the week.

Bradley Beck, a piano dealer, of Lock Haven made a business trip through Tusseyville, and called on his relatives and friends here.

Mrs. Maria Wagner, who has been visiting among relatives at Pleasant Gap, Boalsburg and Centre Hall, returned home Friday.

Prof. and Mrs. W. O. Heckman and baby daughter, from Centre Hall, spent Friday evening at the M. F. Roseman home.

A Decision of Local Interest.

The superior court decided a case carried up from Adams county that is of special interest locally at this particular time. The decision relates to the privilege of school children from one district attending school in another at the expense of the district in which they reside. It appears that when children have a right to attend school in another district, the school board in the district in which they live must pay their tuition for the full time that the schools which they attend are in session. It appears, therefore, Potter township, whose school authorities raised the question, must pay Centre Hall borough tuition for eight months for all pupils who have a right to schooling in the borough and see fit to continue their studies for that length of time.

Information for the Trout Fishermen.

Saturday marks the opening of the trout season in this state. The department of fisheries issues the following timely information. The law allows the taking of forty trout in a day, six inches and over in length. The season for taking same being from April 15 to July 31, both dates inclusive. The department knows that on account of lack of knowledge the average fisherman is not familiar as to the proper handling of the brook trout. Many trout which are hooked, and on account of being under size are returned to the stream, die. The department requests that the fishermen take every precaution and care in handling the small trout and return them to the stream with the least possible injury. This can be done by releasing the trout under the water, and in every instance the hands of the fisherman should be wet before touching the trout. To touch a trout with a dry hand means death to the trout, as it removes the slime which protects the delicate scales covering the trout.

The department also requests the fisherman not to fish upon the small tributaries inhabited by trout but to pick out the larger streams which are inhabited by the larger trout.

The law provides that no device except a single rod and line can be used by the fisherman in the trout streams during the open season for the taking of trout. If the fishermen come across any device not prescribed by law the department requests that they kindly report all the facts to the department at Harrisburg, as the department feels that if this co-operation is extended to it much good will result.

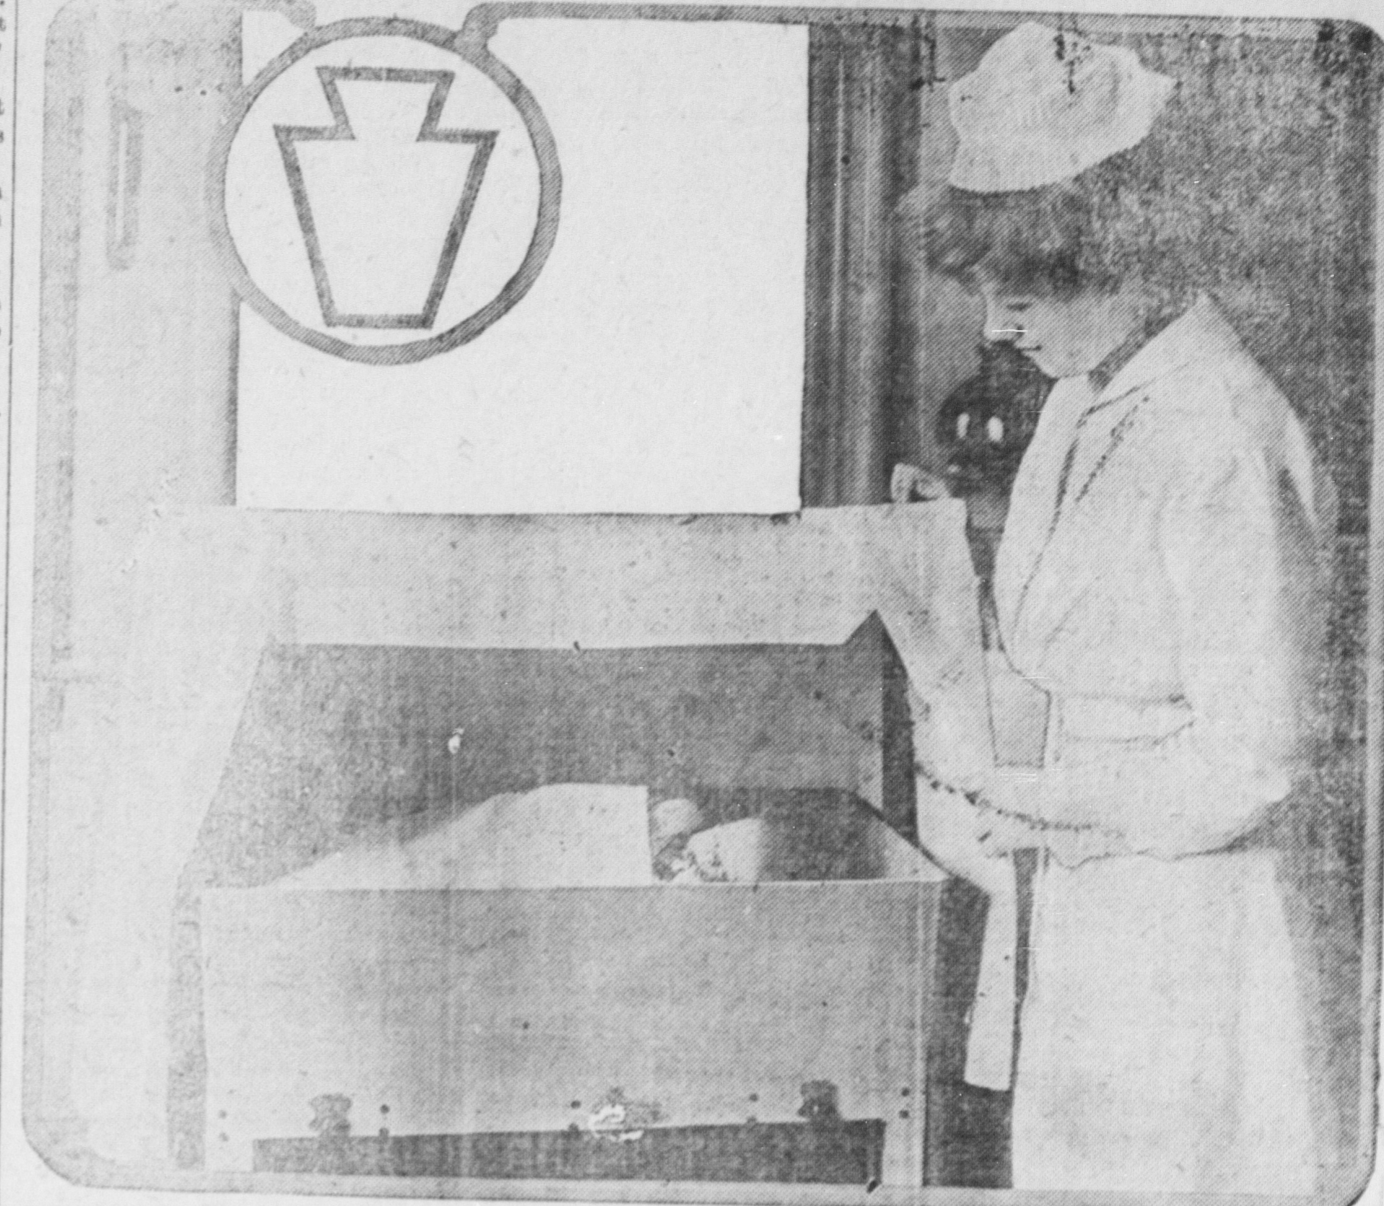

There will be thousands of fishermen along the various trout streams on the 15th of April and if the fisherman will be satisfied with taking a fair catch and leave the stream it will mean better fishing for all.

By observing these suggestions the department feels that everyone will be able to go on the streams and leave for home satisfied.

The post office department took out a five-year lease on the McGirk building in Phillipsburg in which will be located the post office. Both the McGirk building and the Barnes block, where the post office had been located for years, were damaged by fire, the latter building being completely destroyed.

The semi-annual Sunday-school convention of the eleventh district will be held in the Sprucecreek M. E. church, Friday, April 28th.

KEEPING THE BABY WARM

Keep the baby warm. Remember that covering and clothing do not manufacture heat. They simply retain the warmth that Nature produces in the body. If the weather is cold, hot water bags or iron covers wrapped around the baby should be used to supplement the natural bodily heat of children when they are put to sleep in well-ventilated rooms. This is a matter in which good judgment should be used, as overdressing the baby in hot weather is almost as great a mistake as lack of warmth when it is cold. The hands and feet will prove an indicator of whether or not the baby is as warm as it should be.

The baby in the above picture is in an improvised oven or incubator. It is heated to make up for insufficient bodily heat.

In the social service work in connection with the State Tuberculosis Dispensaries, nurses give instructions to the little mothers in the families, who are often required to assume almost entire care of their baby brothers and sisters. Commissioner of Health Samuel G. Dixon has thus extended to thousands of homes throughout the State practical teaching of the greatest value to the coming generation.

Spring Mills.

The Reformed congregation held communion services on Sunday.

Ammon Decker is erecting a summer house.

Orvis Beatty from Avis is spending a few days with friends and relatives.

William Smith of Penn Hall started housekeeping in the Grenoble home.

Mrs. Louise Roseman underwent a severe operation in the Bellefonte hospital. She is improving at this writing.

Miss Gertrude Musser is teaching a term of school. She is a very successful teacher for primary work, having taught that grade for several years in succession.

Transfer Made for Evan Home.

On Wednesday of last week the legal transfer of the Ross estate, near Lewisburg, which was secured by the Evangelical Old Folks' Home Society was made. The following ministers were in Lewisburg that day as representatives of the Evangelical association: Rev. M. I. Jamison, of Williamsport; Rev. W. B. Cox, of Jersey Shore; Rev. P. C. Weidemeyer, of York, York county, and Rev. Noah Young, of Millinburg.

The estate which has now become the property of the United Evangelical Home Society is one of the best in that section, it being in former years the property of the late Col. Eli Siler, one of the leading men of the state. At a recent meeting of representatives of the association, Rev. A. A. Wheeler, of Oregon, was elected as the superintendent of the Home and he will arrive the latter part of May.

William Hoffman, of Jersey Shore, was elected by the representatives to be the farmer at the Home. The many broad and fertile acres of this farm will be under his care and supervision as well as all the farm work. Mr. Hoffman has removed to the Home with his family and his household goods. Dr. L. H. Rose, was the recent owner of the fine old property. Mr. Hoffman, the farmer, will start work immediately on the farm.

There will be a number of changes made to the building and the remodeling will begin in a short time in order that the place may be put in the best and proper condition for the admission of those desiring to make permanent abode there.

Get right after the dark corners; don't wait a day. Clean up now, and keep all spots clean all summer long.
