LIBEL AT CLOSE RANGE

Under the editorial title "Disrupting the State Democracy," The Times of Erie gives a close hand-to-hand view of Michael Liebel, upon whom the Democrats to bipartisans have centered to hand the party over to Penrose. Mr. Liebel is a resident of Erie.
His public and political career is known by his fellow-citizens, so that the following comment is important: There may be parts of the state remote from Erie, and in which little is known about Michael Liebel, where flowery eulogies of the congressman might go unchallenged and unsuspected, but the people of this corner are not to be deceived by the disruptionist propaganda of the Evening Herald. The Herald is full of heart and soul for Liebel and for that reason it could not be expected to get very close to the truth in attacking even so great a man in the Democracy of Pennsylvania as A.
Mitchell Palmer.

Mr. Palmer is, and has always been, the staunch supporter of President Wilson. He fought for him on the floor of the Baltimore convention while Liebel and his following were just as strenuously opposing his nomination. He is openly for him today when Liebel and those identified with Liebel would be opposed if they dared.

The people of Erie know full well what Liebel stands for. The Democratic voters of the state ought to know and probably they will find out before long. A. Mitchell Palmer stands for clear, high-standard things in the Democratic party of the state. He has done so well to not only maintain the dignity and purity of his party but to elevate it if possible that no one up in this neck of the woods is at all surprised to find Liebel and the Herald fighting him.

It is not a question of Palmer and Morris and other state leaders of the party failing to discharge their duties to the entire satisfaction of the better elements of the Democracy; it is the question of whether Liebel sees himself the rising star, will have to stand for the better things which the real leaders have given to the party. Liebel plays the role of the disruptionist and the Herald applauds.

Erie people know Liebel's past record too well to take him seriously when he talks about harmony and things of that sort which have never been discovered, even in the nicest form, in his political making-up. They know that he deserted the regular Democratic candidate for sheriff in his own county to support Frank Laird and only the fact that the miserable trick was discovered by enough Republicans to more than offset his scheme brought about the election of the present incumbent of that office. Ask the regular Democratic nominees for sheriff at the last three sheriff elections who Liebel supported! It is a long list of staunch Democrats in Erie who have felt the point of Liebel's political dirk. As a matter of fact, Democratic candidates for congress from this district and Democratic candidates for important county offices during the past ten years know what sort of a harmony worker Liebel is. Few, if any, of them ever received his support.
As a disorganizer he has a marvelous reputation for one so young and to assume the role of harmony and rush to the front shouting his willingness to martyr himself that the Democracy of the state might not crumble in the dust is seriously received only in the office of the Herald.

In the internal organization of the affairs of the state Democracy The Times has no interest further than to challenge any such statements as uttered by the Herald of last night and to call to the attention of the Democratic voters of this section the character and intentions of the two men, Palmer and Liebel. It ought not to be very hard for any voter who stands for decency to make a selection.
In the light of these revelations, as The Times says, "it ought not to be very hard for any voter who stands for decency to make a selection."

Fire Destroys Much Property.
Tuesday's gale was responsible for a disastrous fire at Morrisdale, a few miles northwest of Philipsburg, that resulted in the destruction of King's hotel and nine dwelling houses, entailing a loss of $50,000.

Mutt and Jeff at Bellefonte.
Mutt and Jeff are coming to see the Odd Fellows at Bellefonte next Wednesday and in the evening will entertain them with "Mutt and Jeff at College," in Garmas's Opera House.

Millheim.

Charles Hassinger is making preparations to build an addition to his house.

Miss Helen McManaway of Bellefonte spent Sunday with girl friends in town.

Monday Earnest Schreckengast left for Johnstown where he has secured employment.

Robert Breen and family of State College spent Sunday with relatives here.

W. S. Shelton and family autoed to Bellefonte last Wednesday to see the pictures.

There will be a six o'clock service on Easter morning in the Reformed church.

Charles Burrell, who has been seriously ill for several weeks with pneumonia, is some better.

A. A. Frank and T. F. Meyer, two of our leading merchants, made a business trip to Philadelphia last week.

On last Friday Degen and Jordan again sold their entire load of horses, consisting of twenty-eight head, averaging $211.00.

Mrs. Ira Frank, who underwent an operation in one of the Philadelphia hospitals, is reported as doing well and expects to be home in several weeks.

The band, under the instructions of Ru sell Gephart, is doing fine and the public enjoy hearing them play when ever they come out. Stick to it boys, it sounds better every time.

The stork has made several trips to this town the past week, leaving a baby girl at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Colyer, and a little boy with Mr. and Mrs. Orvis Gramley.

On Friday evening the members of the Methodist church to welcome the return of their pastor, Rev. Williams, honored him with a reception. A good crowd was in attendance and a pleasant evening passed by all.

Judging from the amount of booze we see going through our town one is almost persuaded to believe they are using it some where to sprinkle the streets. Strange—we thought the people had quit drinking beer around here, but some one has opened the plug again. Well, this much we do know, that Mr. Quizeley has either forgotten some of the things he told us last fall regarding the booze question, or—

Street Commissioner Ira Gramley is at work fixing some of the alleys which have been neglected for several years; in fact, one of them was in such a condition as to make it almost impassable, yet a few of our so called progressive citizens say it isn't necessary. Just because some people are lucky enough not to live next door to some of these mud holes they imagine they have a kick coming when the borough spends a few dollars to mend these conditions. But take some of these same people and the borough can consider itself lucky that it is not asked to sow lawn seed in their alleys.
We hope Mr. Gramley will go on with this work and fill his ears with cotton to these knockers.

Woodward.

George Sheesley is ill with grip.
Miss May Belle Stover spent Sunday with her cousin, Miss Rachael Wolfe.

Master James Ard from Aaronsburg spent last week with his grandparents, Dr. and Mrs. Ard.

Miss Pearl Grimm from Lewisburg is visiting her sister, Mrs. Ruth Barner.

Thomas Everett and Mr. Keller, from Madisonburg, accompanied Rev.
Carls to Woodward Sunday evening.

A. B. Meyer and wife from Coburn spent the Sabbath at the home of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Weaver.

Steward Orndorf and family were guests at the home of the family's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Orndorf, on Sunday.

Miss Lida Hosterman, Charles Muser and Sherman Smith are attending a term of summer school at Coburn.

There will be an Easter Service in the Evangelical Association Church Sunday evening. The program consists of singing, dialogues, recitations and a cantata, "The Ten Virgins."

Georges Valley

Mrs. Susan Davis is spending this week in Poe Valley with her daughter, Mrs. Morris Lingle.

Mrs. C. C. Bariges and nephew Charles, of Spring Mills, spent a day last week at the home of D. D. Decker.

Mrs. Ida Ripka and Mrs. Rose Lingle spent Saturday with Mr. and Mrs. T. F. Rote, near Coburn.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Lingle and two boys, Miles and Robert, spent Sunday at the home of the former's mother, Mrs. Lydia Lingle.

Rev. Some, the presiding elder, preached a very interesting sermon last Sunday at Locust Grove at which time he held communion service.

Those who visited at the James Foust home on Sunday were, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. McClellan and two little daughters, Ruth and Blanche, Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Hook and two little sons, Ralph and Robert.

Growers of berries and small fruits are anticipating a good crop this sesson.

REBERSBURG

Lester Minnich, who is employed at State College, spent Sunday with his family in this place.

At present John Zoigler is the busiest man in this vicinity. He is spraying fruit trees for San Jose scale.

Maggie Muser, of State College, with her twin daughters, are spending several weeks with her mother, Mrs.
Serena Harry.

Mrs. Nathaniel Bowersox is spending this week at Greenburr, Clinton county, with her daughter, Mrs.
Lowry.

Ammon Hazel, a former merchant at this place but now residing at Boalsburg, spent part of this week at this place on special business.

Robert Bjerly quite lately bought Howard Krape's Buick car and a few days later he bought a Ford car from Mr. Muser, of Aaronsburg.

The young men's club room at this place has closed doors for the time being. The young men who have a desire to work are out hunting employment.

Last Thursday Scott Stover cut a deep gash in the palm of his left hand while in the act of hanging doors.
This puts Mr. Stover out of commis-ion for several weeks.

Elisa Breen is at present building a lime stack on his small farm. He will soon be ready to furnish lime to all parties who have need of same.

Bierly, Duck & Co. the other day placed their shingle mill on the old mill site at Smullton and are making preparations to saw shingles. Custom work is their specialty.

Mrs. Aron Smull, an aged lady, died at the home of her son, Charles, on last Friday. The remains were buried in the Union cemetery on last Monday forenoon.

On last Thursday the steam roller which the supervisors bought several months ago was brought to this place by Mr. Stover, of Aaronsburg, who used it several days on the pike in the vicinity of Millheim. It was taken to the east end of town and placed on the junk pile with the other road machinery which the supervisors paid several thousand dollars for several years ago and which has not been used ten hours on our roads. Perhaps Columbus, the Millheim junk dealer, could make a good deal if he would buy it for junk. Come and see.

PENN HALL

Miss Lucy Muser, who has been ill, is able to be out again.

Frank Muser transacted business at the county seat one day last week.
Mr. and Mrs. William Smith moved in the Grenoble home at Spring Mills,

Mary Fisher, and Miss Lois Ulrich transacted business in Bellefonte Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hosterman visited the former's aunt, Mrs. Amanda Haines, at Woodward, one day last week.

Mrs. A. M. Kremer has gone to Millheim to assist her sister, Mrs.
Susan Burrell, in taking care of her son Charles, who is ill.

The members of the commonweal club of the Y. W. C. A. will render a play in the Grange Hall at Spring Mills on Wednesday evening.

with a very bad throat.

Jeff Stover and family, from Wolfes Chapel, were Sabbath guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Durst.

Mrs. Thomas Meyer from Coburn was entertained a few days at the home of her brother-in-law, G. J.
Weaver, and called on some of her many friends while here.

Frank Troxell, from Winfield, and his friend, both carpenters, are working on the house of the former's brother-in-law, H. E. Crouse, and will make interior improvements.

John Detwiler, a little boy, from Centre Hall, spent in a few hours with James Rouse and Warren Winkieblech.

Prof. Bartlet, wife and little girl Eleanor, returned from State College on Saturday where they were visiting relatives for a few weeks.
