Pleasant Gap.

Mrs. Clyde Love, of Bellefonte, spent Sunday with her sister, Mrs. Edward Wolfe. Miss Kate Parker, of Bellefonte, spent Sunday with Mrs. S. C. Hill and son. John Griffith, of Dale Summit, spent Sunday with his daughter Nellie. The reports of local fishermen were that the fishing was good as ever, but the catches awful few—and small. James Bigler and wife spent several days last week with Mrs. Armbruster, at Spring Mills. Mr. and Mrs. Jasper Knarr spent Sunday with their daughter-in-law, Mrs. Frank Knarr. Mr. Poorman has started the foundation for his new garage which will be completed as hastily as possible. It is easy to note that the state police are out of town by the speed some of the auto drivers attain. Miss Helen Greenoble and Miss Dorothy Mullinger left last week for a visit with friends at Lock Haven and Williamsport. Miss Virgie Bilger and Mrs. Nettie Gill spent Sunday at the home of Warden Francis with Miss Bigler's sister Annie. A surveyor is badly needed to settle the land dispute some of our people are having with some of the foreign element at White Rock. J. H. Weber, of Centre Hall, has started work on his new houses at this place, which he intends to rent in the near future. The population of White Rock was increased by the addition of three sons and a daughter of Sunny Africa, last week. All we need now are some Chinamen, and we will have a modern Babe! The graduating exercises of the High school, held in the M. E. Church, Friday night, were quite a success, and the pupils are all to be congratulated on both the subjects and the speaking. There are a number of boys in this town who sure love to try their melodious voices on the still night air while tired people are trying to sleep. It will be some relief when the tree frogs come again for we all know their song isn't any older than "Sweet Adaline."

The home of John Barnes received considerable damage Sunday, caused by a stone thrown from the White Rock quarries at Hornstown. The huge stone was forced through the front of the house into the room. Now there are some of our citizens who would like to know why it is unlawful for a man to hunt or discharge a gun on Sunday, and then be allowed to work and blast.

FRUITTOWN.

Orpha Fleisher spent Sunday with her sister at Tusseyville. Mr. and Mrs. William Searson and children spent Sunday very pleasantly at the Edward Bubb home. Mrs. T. J. Fleisher and daughter spent Saturday at the C. S. Bodtorf home. Miss Jennie Bodtorf of Tusseyville spent a few days last week at the home of her brother, William Ishler, in this place. Rev. A. J. Horner returned to his home in Youngsville after a short visit among friends and relatives at this place. Mr. and Mrs. George Thomas, of New York, arrived on Saturday at the C. S. Thomas home where they will spend a few days. Members of the Monroe County Poultry Association are planning for an egg exchange which will provide a center for pooling of eggs to be shipped to one general distributing and selling agency.

Colyer.

John Zerby, Jr., made a business trip to Burnham this week. Mr. and Mrs. John Horner spent Sunday with their son, Orvis Horner. Miss Laura Feust spent Sunday afternoon at the John Bubb home. Mrs. Howard Lingle spent Sunday at the Frank Lingle home. Jacob Royer made a trip across the mountains to Mifflin county, Tuesday. Mrs. Orvis Horner spent Tuesday at Potters Mills, at the McClenahan home. Mrs. Myrtle Copenhaver and daughter, and Hazel McClellan, spent Saturday evening at the P. B. Jordan home. Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Lee and children, from Spring Mills, spent Sunday at the John Lee home. Mr. and Mrs. Roy Martz are the proud parents of a little daughter—Doretha Caroline Martz. Mrs. George Yarnell and daughter Catherine spent Sunday at the G. R. Meles home. Miss Sadie Lee spent the latter part of the week at Centre Hall at the home of Mrs. W. H. Meyer where she has been plying her needle.

Potters Mills

Mr. McCoy and Lizzie Slack are on the sick list. Warren Slack made a trip to Mifflin county one day this week. Miss Nellie Bible spent a week in Bellefonte with her brother, Harry. Boyd Smith left for Burnham where he expects to find work. Miss Stella Hosterman, of Centre Hill, spent a day with Catharine Carson. Morris Burkholder and family and John Condo and wife spent Sunday at the Lot Condo home. John Smith and daughter, Mrs. Win-ton Gramley and son John, spent Sunday with the former's brother, Michael Smith. Quite a few fishermen were strung along the stream on the first day but by all reports none met with much success. Those who attended a surprise party at the Harry Cumming's home on Friday evening from this place were: Perry McKinney, Ethel Lockner, Emerson Eulst, Catharine Carson, Charles Condo, Mary Harshbarger, Alma Leister, Boyd Smith, Nellie Bible.

AMBITION VS HEALTH.

Little Talks on Health and Hygiene by Samuel G. Dixon, M. D., LL. D., Commissioner of Health. The accumulated knowledge of science regarding the workings of the human mind shows how little has been accomplished toward discovering the relation ship between the physical and the mental. It is however, plain to even the most casual observer that the condition of the mind makes a profound impression upon our health. The intensity of life in modern civilization makes demands upon us in many ways that are in excess of those which a more primitive environment required of our forefathers. This often results in a mental and nervous condition detrimental to good health. We Americans have often been accused by observers from other lands of living under an intense strain and struggling to advance our financial and social status greatly at the expense of higher aims. It is unquestionably true that ambition often leads us far from the paths of peace and contentment. Our National ideals seem to lean strongly toward the achievement of pecuniary success. In seeking this thousands of men and women sacrifice themselves and fail to observe the simple rules of right living which their intelligence teaches are necessary for the maintenance of health. Those who plunge unrestrainedly into the exhausting struggle for great riches and power cast aside what the philosophers of all ages have deemed most worth while, the peace of a humble mind open to impressions of the wonders and beauties of Nature, art and the sweetness and purpose of a simple life.

"Good Roads Day" Plans Developing. In the week that has elapsed since Governor Brumbaugh issued his proclamation fixing Thursday, May 25 as "State-wide Good Roads Day," plans have developed rapidly for making this day a success. The Governor has placed himself at the disposal of the State Highway Department and will spend "State-wide Good Roads Day" at work on the roads, as he did last year. Organizations formed in many counties last year to further the object, have taken up their work anew and are making arrangements for a large turnout on the highways this year. In a number of counties where there were no organizations last year, steps have been taken to secure united action. In Venango County last year work to the estimate of $10,623.00 was done on the highways on "State-wide Good Roads Day." The number of men who worked in that county last year was 2,092 and 426 teams were employed on 184 miles of roads; 83 carloads of slag being used to repair the condition of the highways. Venango county's example is typical of the counties which had live organizations working to make the day successful. Arrangements are being made in many other counties to surpass the work of last year and reports received at the State Highway Department indicate that "State-wide Good Roads Day" of 1916 will set a high record of achievement for future years to meet.

Bud Fisher by Walt Mason Bud Fisher jumped the old-time rut when he invented Jeff and Mutt. For years, with that amusing pair, he's chased away the people's care, and made them laugh and throw their hats, and cackle till they broke their slats. The tired, the sad, the weak, the worn, have laughed with Bud, and ceased to mourn; the lame, the halt, the blind, the deaf, have whooped with glee o'er Mutt and Jeff. Where does he find the joyous jests which break the buttons from our vests? You'd think the fount would have to fail, but never once has he been stale. When he sits down to hatch a plot in which his heroes will be caught, he lights his pipe, and soon a joke emerges from Tuxedo smoke. He swears by "Tux" and so will you, when you have tried a jar or two.

Looking to the Farm by W. Livingston Larned They're looking to us, Sonny, For the goodness of our grain. It's not so much our money, As the feeding-time again. These users are hard on farmers As were planting of the seed. And so, it's bread and boilers That th' hungry nations need. They're looking to us, Sonny, For the golden rows of wheat; For tassled corn and honey, And a lot of things to eat. While guns keep up their dinning, And men keep up their fight, God sees that Peace is winning And our farms are safe to-night. They are looking to us, Sonny, And those other shores are bare. It's not so far, it's funny With the children over there. We seem to hear them calling, In a plaintive sort of way, And every sheaf that's falling Makes a loaf of bread to-day. They're looking to us, Sonny, For the planting of the soil. No, No. It isn't funny Trading cannon for their Tull. But, let God's will be ruling, And bend above your plow, For if man needs your bounty You must feed the hungry NOW!
