LOCALS

Acclimated horses will be sold at the Geiss livery stables in Bellefonte, Saturday.
Dr. H. H. Longwell is driving an Oakland runabout which he purchased recently.
Miss Ruth Smith is home from the Bloomsburg State Normal for a short vacation.
A large number of good horses will be sold, at either private or public sale, at the Geiss livery stables at Bellefonte, Saturday.
Daniel Daup is installing a bath room outfit in his home this week. The work of digging the cesspool is about completed.
The borough schools will all come to a close on Monday of next week. It is the first time in many years that all four schools closed on the same day.
The township road supervisors have been busy the past week on the earth roads with drag and scrape, getting the roads in first-class condition.
Mrs. L. W. S. Person, of Philadelphia, New Jersey, is in Centre Hall this week at the home of her mother, Mrs. Margaret Strohman, where she has been fitting the ladies with new spring hats.
Charles Krape, of the Spring Mills shoe dealer, last week disposed of 700 pairs of shoes to Sam Snyderman, of Philadelphia, who makes monthly shipments of out-of-date goods to the continent of Australia.
Mr. and Mrs. Harry C. Shirk, of Centre Hall, Mr. and Mrs. John Dashem, of near Tusseyville, and Mr. and Mrs. William McCormick, of Potters Mills, attended the funeral of Edwin S. Royer, at Altoona, Wednesday afternoon. The first named lady is a sister of the deceased.
Alfred Crawford, who is a student in the Lock Haven Normal, was home over Easter. Alfred so impressed the coach on the baseball team with his ability in that line that he succeeded in landing a berth on the varsity team. He is playing left field and made his initial appearance against the Williamsport High school last week.
Daniel Ripkay of Spring Mills was a caller on Tuesday, having come to Centre Hall to see the Kansas horses sold at public sale, and while in town did not fail to call on the Reporter. Mr. Ripkay is a remarkably well preserved man for seventy and three years old. He attributes his good physical condition to the abundance of exercise when a younger man. Mr. Ripkay holds to the Pennsylvania Dutch, and cannot be induced to speak English.
A complete renovation has taken place in the local drug store since Dr. H. H. Longwell took possession last week. The interior has been painted in white, linoleum placed on the floor, and everything made spick and span. Harry Kline, the new pharmacist, is giving his attention to displaying the goods in a real advertising sort of way and business is booming at the old stand. The drug store has taken the name of the Centre Hall Pharmacy.
The working force engaged in planting a quarter million seedlings on the Greens Valley State forest tract under supervision of Forester Leonard Barnes, of Centre Hall, was materially reduced after the first day's work on Monday. When it became known that the men were to put in ten-hour days there was a disturbance that originated in eight to ten men leaving bed and board on the State's land and pulling for home to await the return of Mr. Barnes who is expected back from Philadelphia today. It appears that the men, who numbered twenty-four on the first day, were to work only eight hours a day, but Ranger Hoover, who has the men in charge during the forester's absence, is working under directions of his boss to keep the men busy for ten hours. In the meantime the crippled force is sticking trees and awaiting the return of Mr. Barnes to settle the dispute.

Baker House (Lewisburg) Taken Over.
The Lewisburg Journal said last week: Wednesday the deal was closed for taking over the Baker house, closed since April 1, by the Milton Manufacturing Co., to care for the workmen employed in the munition plant who are unable to secure accommodations in Milton. E. W. Chamberlain, Esq., of Milton, representing the Shimer plant, and Jerro Kline, Esq., attorney for James C. Packer, were in Lewisburg Wednesday and an agreement was reached. The property has been leased, and the furniture purchased.

Mr. George Shimer, Sr., head of the Milton Mfg. Co., informed the Journal Thursday that the hotel had been taken over by his concern, but that the opening of the place was indefinite. At present, he stated, Milton was taking care of all its employees with ample boarding and housing accommodations, but that later the Baker house will be used in the emergency.
An effort was made to have the place managed by Mr. and Mrs. Frank S. Dunkle, who are now conducting the Cameron house, but the parties interested were unable to reach an agreement, and the Baker house manager has as yet not been selected.
Newton E. Emerick arrived from Pittsburgh on Friday to spend a short time with his family in this place.
