

Millheim.

J. Lynn Harris is busy these days looking up the Republican voters. Guy Stover is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Motz. Grover Musser is laying a concrete walk for Nathaniel Boob. Centre Hall was represented at the Tom Thumb wedding last Tuesday evening.

E. W. Mauck has remodeled his store room and is installing a down-to-date soda fountain. Miss Pauline McCloskey, of Hallton, is visiting her cousin, Miss Cora Sechrist.

Calvin Smith, who is sick with pneumonia, is some better at this writing. George Homan, the horseman, has shipped another car load of horses to the New York market.

E. Schlegle, the eye specialist of State College, was in town several days last week. Elery Brown and family were Sunday visitors at Beech Creek with their daughter, Mrs. Russell Wolfe.

Miss Ruth Hassinger and Susie Riesel were delegates last week to the Sunday-school convention at Beaver-town. Those who enjoyed the Sunday excursion to Washington were Amos Snook, H. G. Hartline, George Swartz and Velma Fiedler.

C. E. Breen and Company have placed a new Reo touring car at the home of Ed. I. Musser; also a Ford to Harry Leltzell. John G. Eby has resigned as cashier of the Farmers National Bank. He has sold his property to Lewis Wingardner and will accept a position at Portage.

The reception on Monday evening, given by the young people of the Reformed church, to the members and friends, was well attended. A pleasant evening was enjoyed by all. The mountain fire in Pine Creek hollow, last week, called on a body of men belonging to the Millheim hunting club to protect their new camp which was built last summer. When the boys arrived at the scene of the fire they thought there was no chance of saving the building but after fighting nearly all day and night they finally had the fire under control, and as everything is burned around the camp now there will be no further danger of any damage to the camp caused by forest fire, for some time to come.

A few days ago a large white rooster belonging to Daniel Zeigler, after being released from his night's lodging place, went out for a morning's stroll. In approaching the house he noticed a door standing open and as he wasn't going to miss anything in the way of slight-seeing ventured in, and finding himself in a bed room soon came to the conclusion that it was a lonely place as there was no one there to greet him. Intent on making the best of his discoveries he began to size up all the pictures on the walls, hopping from one chair to the other, and finally landing on the dresser where he came face to face with another of his kind, each one claiming right of possession. They soon came to blows and in the mix-up the mirror was pretty well decorated, and a large lamp which was thrown on the floor aroused the household which put an end to the duel. The decision rendered was a draw.

BOALSBURG.

Quite a few people are housed up with the mumps. Frank Fisher and Charles Fisher visited their mother last week. Paul Rupp of Pitsaun spent a short time with his parents here.

John Stover was home from Altoona for several days. Edward Sellers, who works at Milton, spent several days at home. John Wilson, of Altoona, visited relatives and friends a few days last week.

R. B. Harrison and family and Charles Cori spent Sunday at Pleasant Gap. Mr. Hankey, a student from State College, spent Sunday afternoon with Miss Blanche Rowe.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Hazel and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Faxon were among the excursionists to Washington on Sunday. Rev. and Mrs. E. C. Stover spent the greater part of the last week at the Bellefonte hospital with their son Elwood, who was operated on for appendicitis. He is getting along nicely and they expect to bring him home this week.

The undersigned has on hand a quantity of roof paint which he guarantees to give the best of service for from five to ten years. With the use of "Seal-tite" he can patch up an old roof to again be like new. These materials can be bought and applied by purchaser or I will do the work.—E. M. ACKERMAN, Spring Mills, Pa.

According to reports from all sections of the State the livestock is in splendid condition. In twenty-one counties the condition is reported above the average while in twenty-six counties the condition is normal. Little disease is reported and the livestock has spent a splendid winter.

Preparedness!

Yes, much is being said today about preparedness. I am prepared, not to fight the enemy, but the advancing prices on general merchandise. Under the upward trend of today I am trying mighty hard to keep prices down. Do you realize that what I am doing for you merits your patronage? It is the big amount of business that I do that satisfies. If the amount of sales were small it would be necessary to make larger profits on single items.

Now then, to keep prices at the lowest point possible, PATRONIZE THE TUSSEYVILLE STORE

We lead, others try to follow. If you doubt it compare the following prices:

R. B. HARRISON STORE :: Boalsburg

War! War! War!

In the "War of Competition" no merchant can make good with his customers unless he is thoroughly prepared for all emergencies that may arise—he cannot meet the prices of his competitors nor deliver the merchandise in time when it is needed.

I do not belong to that class—I have prepared months ahead for all demands of the market, and although there is a scarcity of materials, and the prices for same are advancing by leaps and bounds I am, nevertheless, in a position to offer the trade

Exceptional Values

I have the Values, the Styles and the Merchandise.

Here is your opportunity to become acquainted with a merchant who can take care of your interest at the height of the season and who can sell at prices lower than what others have been asking you for the same merchandise.

I feel confident that you, as a careful buyer, will not fail to take advantage of this opportunity and come and select your clothing and shoes as soon as possible.
