Organized Mounted Machine Gun Troop.

State College and Boalsburg are going to have a Volunteer Mounted Machine Gun Troop, the first in Uncle Sam's broad domain, said the State College Times last week. There will be four platoons of ten men each; a machine gun to each platoon. The project has the endorsement, and will receive the support, of Major General Leonard A. Wood, U. S. A., who will be here June 3 for the organization of this troop.

Thirty-three of the men who will compose the troop met Tuesday night at the home of Theodore Davis Boal, at Boalsburg, Mr. Boal having been one of the prime movers in the plan. George Thompson outlined the general plan of the movement and Lieutenant Abrends explained the details of the work. Mr. Boal had been to Washington in consultation with General Wood and related to those present the gist of the conversation.

Thirty-three men signed as members of the troop and a temporary organization was formed as follows: Theodore Boal, chairman; A. O. Vorse, secretary; P. D. Foster, W. E. Lewis, Arthur Deering, Wilbur Litzell and George Thompson, executive committee.

A buffet luncheon was then served at which Mrs. George Thompson presided, assisted by Phillip Foster; Miss Cecil de Lagarde, assisted by Miss Hilda Thompson, served.

The object of the organization of the troop, is as an aid to preparedness, for physical benefit and for the benefit of the community.

It has not been decided if the troop is to be under National or State control. The government will furnish equipment, but not the horses. Mr. Boal has signified his willingness to contribute anything not provided by the government.

The men are being measured for uniforms and expect to be ready to attend the Preparedness Picnic at Boal farm on June 3 when a barbecue will be held at which at least a thousand people will be present. Major General Wood will attend and in the evening will address the students of the Pennsylvania State College.

The troop plans to camp on the Boal farm for two weeks in July under the direction of a United States army officer. In August they will hike to the Civilian Military Camp at Plattsburg.

Wheat, rye and clover in Pennsylvania is in splendid condition according to May reports of the Pennsylvania Department of Agriculture.

It is estimated that twenty-two per cent. of the farmers of the State are unable to secure male farm help that they desire and need.

Indications throughout the State and especially in the big fruit belt in the southwestern counties point to almost an average peach crop and splendid apple crops.

In Somerset, Sullivan, Monroe, Clearfield, Clarion and Carbon counties the condition of the wheat crop is reported to be considerably above the average for this time of the year.

The farm advisers of the Department of Agriculture have full schedules and are giving free help to hundreds of farmers in the State in all lines of agricultural work.

Fourteen counties report the condition of wheat equal to or above the average for this time of the year and the general average is 96 per cent. against 90 per cent. a year ago at this time.

Reports of the failure of County Commissioners to have constables enforce the 1915 dog act by having unlicensed dogs in boroughs and townships killed will probably result in suits being instituted by the Attorney General's office to compel the enforcement of the law.

Prepared for Real Life

The course at Indiana Normal equips one to earn a good living by teaching. This practical school inspires true American ambition; it builds character, self-reliance, strength. Actual teaching experience is a part of the course.

Pennsylvania State of Normal School Indiana, Pa.
A School of Ambition and Success.

Life at Indiana is healthful and happy. The air is clear and crisp; the home life is exceptional in comfort and cheer; the days are filled with interesting work and brightened by the company of congenial teachers and fellow-students. $200 covers all expenses for one year—excepting books—for those preparing to teach. Others pay $260.

In connection with the Normal School are—The Indiana School of Business, John E. Smith, Principal, and The Indiana Conservatory of Music—Rexford D. Colburn, Director,—two of the best equipped schools of their kind in this country.

42nd Year Opens September 12th, 1916. For the new catalog—a beautifully illustrated book of 128 pages—address the Principal DR. JAMES E. AMENT, Indiana, Pa.

Preparedness!

Yes, much is being said today about preparedness. I am prepared, not to fight the enemy, but the advancing prices on general merchandise. Under the upward trend of today I am trying mighty hard to keep prices down. Do you realize that what I am doing for you merits your patronage? It is the big amount of business that I do that satisfies. If the amount of sales were small it would be necessary to make larger profits on single items.

Now then, to keep prices at the lowest point possible, PATRONIZE THE TUSSEYVILLE STORE

We lead, others try to follow. If you doubt it compare the following prices:

War! War! War!

In the "War of Competition" no merchant can make good with his customers unless he is thoroughly prepared for all emergencies that may arise—he cannot meet the prices of his competitors nor deliver the merchandise in time when it is needed.

I do not belong to that class—I have prepared months ahead for all demands of the market, and although there is a scarcity of materials, and the prices for same are advancing by leaps and bounds I am, nevertheless, in a position to offer the trade

Exceptional Values

I have the Values, the Styles and the Merchandise.

Here is your opportunity to become acquainted with a merchant who can take care of your interest at the height of the season and who can sell at prices lower than what others have been asking you for the same merchandise. I feel confident that you, as a careful buyer, will not fail to take advantage of this opportunity and come and select your clothing and shoes as soon as possible.
