A Democratic slogan: Americanism, neutrality, peace, and it can't be beat.

The selection of Vance C. McCormick as chairman of the Democratic National Committee, to succeed William F. McCombs, is one that finds favor with all good Democrats. Those who have had the pleasure of meeting him could not help but have been impressed with his geniality, forethought, aggressiveness and honesty of purpose. He will make an excellent leader of the Democratic forces in the fight for Four Year More of Wilson.

It's a mighty good rule to sleep over a contract before signing one presented by a stranger. The stranger has everything figured out in advance, and his aim is to get you to put your name to the contract before you get an opportunity to talk the matter over with any one. If you don't sleep over the contract, you usually regret it the morning after. Just recall the last contract you signed for a stranger and see how true this is.

BOYS STAGE HOLD UP.

Last Saturday while Stover Minich, a lad six years old, was on his way to the postoffice with a sealed letter containing money, he was stopped in front of the Evangelical parsonage by three boys who were superior in age and strength to young Minich. First they knocked the lad's hat off and then snatched the letter out of his hand. They at once tore open the envelope and began to count the money after which they pocketed part of it and returned the balance to their victim who returned home in haste, badly scared and for several days suffered from nervousness. For the sake of their parents the writer withholds the names of these young culprits from the public but if they shall hereafter be caught at such a game punishment shall be meted out to them in proportion to their crime.

Chocolate-colored Auto Tags for 1917.

Chocolate brown has been selected by the state highway department as the color of the 1917 automobile license tags and the same size and style of plate will be used as this year, the figures being in white.

The selection of this brown was made because of well-grounded reports which had been received that there might be a shortage of red, green, blue and yellow, as a result of the dye situation. The chocolate-colored tags are now in use in New Jersey.

Turkey Crop Disappearing.

done will save them.

Not a few turkey stocks are tubercular, the direct result of housing and feeding.

Mr. Wittman further believes that until our turkeys have at least some of their old time vigor and ability to live, no eggs should be incubated in a machine or under a chicken hen, but only under turkey hens and that only turkey hens should be used as rearers.

Further that strong, vigorous turkey poult can be fed such impossible things like hard-boiled eggs, black pepper, cornmeal, and cold water, and survive, but that for the average poult, probably, when all is said and done, turkeys will not live now-a-days because they have simply been pampered to death.
