Playing Fair.

The fact that for nearly four years our Republican brethren have been kept out of reach of loaves and fishes usually spread for their own special seizure has created in their minds a sort of morbid irritation, but there is once in a while an editor with a clearer view and the courage to say what he knows. Under the caption, "Let Us Play Fair," The Stockton (Cal.) Record of late date says:

While the festive Presidential candidate rages and rages over the country impliedly belittling our army and navy as products of the present Administration, fidelity to candor and truth inspires the observation that the army and navy banded over to Mr. Wilson were the same army and navy that excited no perfunctory solicitude on the part of the Roosevelt and Taft administrations.

The Wilson Administration has done more to keep the peace and more to prepare for war than any preceding Administration of either party at any past emergent occasion since the Republic was founded. The country can't be carried for Hughes in November on any blood-and-thunder issue. There is no hoodwinking capability in the preparedness outcry.

LOCALS.

Paul Byers, of St. Thomas, is visiting at the home of his sister, Mrs. E. S. Ripka.

Miss Velma Simkins, of Philadelphia, is visiting her mother at the Presbyterian Manse.

Mrs. Bailey, of Fort Scott, Kansas, and R. H. Stewart, of Lock Haven, were guests of their cousin, J. T. Potter, Friday and Saturday.

The Presbyterian Sunday-school will observe Children's Day on Sunday morning with an appropriate program. See announcement under church head.

Master Ray Carper, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gregg Carper, of Linden Hall, is spending several weeks with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Sharer, east of town.

Miss Gertrude Spangler is spending a few weeks with friends in the northwestern section of the state. On Sunday she was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Harry J. Kittleberger, at Curwensville.

Chester E. Kurtz, son of Rev. and Mrs. D. E. Kurtz, upon finishing his college year at Cornell, a week ago, went to New Haven, Connecticut, where he has employment with the Marlin gun concern.

Prof. and Mrs. W. O. Heckman and little daughter, of Centre Hall; Mr. and Mrs. John Wert, and Mrs. M. F. Roseman, of Tusseyville, left bright and early Saturday morning to be present at the Heffner-Fortney nuptial which took place in Altoona at eight o'clock A. M. that day.

Announcement of the birth of a baby daughter in the home of Rev. and Mrs. William R. Jones, at Shawville, Clearfield county, reached the grandparents, Rev. and Mrs. R. R. Jones in this place, on Monday. The birth occurred early that morning. Reports are to the effect that mother and child are doing nicely.

L. I. Hartley, of Spring Mills, will become a resident of Centre Hall to day (Thursday), occupying the house made vacant by the removal of the Krebs family. Mr. Hartley is the new section boss on the local branch, the division under the Pennsy's recent change extending from a point four miles east of the railroad station to Oak Hall. The Spring Mills and Linden Hall sections have been eliminated.

Mrs. Anna Walters, in writing the Reporter from Hammersley Fork, Clinton county, says that the recent flood was responsible for destroying her garden entirely, making it necessary to plant anew. The farm of her son-in-law was also badly damaged. "It is just twenty-three years since grandmother Boozer visited me, and at that time there was a June flood, although it was not so destructive as this one," she writes.

Millheim.

A piano has replaced the organ in the Evangelical church.

Homer Auman and family of Millton, are visiting relatives here.

The Harter music store has placed a player piano in the C. H. Breon home.

W. S. Shelton and J. H. Hoffman made a business trip to Bellefonte and Lock Haven, Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Tate, of Jersey Shore, are visiting at the home of the former's parents.

The Boy Scouts—twenty in number—have returned after a ten days' camp at the second tunnel.

The congregations of the Reformed and Methodist churches will have union services Sunday evening in the Reformed church.

Master Ralph Keen, of Altoona, has come to spend the summer at the home of his aunt, Mrs. Herbert Smith.

Miss Mary Gutelius left last week for an extended visit at the home of her uncle, Dan Gutelius, at Warren, Ohio.

On Thursday of last week Mr. and Mrs. Frank Houseman attended the funeral of Mr. Houseman's brother, George Rachau, at Williamsport.

Friday evening the members of the Lutheran church gave a social. A good crowd was in attendance and a joyous evening passed by all.

G. R. Boob, son of Nathaniel Boob, of this place, has returned home after serving four years service in the Navy. Mr. Boob was on the torpedo boat destroyer "Paul Jones" of the Pacific Coast squad.

The Children's Day exercises held Sunday evening in the Evangelical church were witnessed by a large audience, the program being delivered nicely by those having parts and particularly by the choir which was made up of the younger people. The floral decorations were beautiful beyond the description of the pen and would have had to be seen to be appreciated.

BOALSBURG.

S. E. Weber transacted business at Altoona last week.

D. W. Meyer and daughter Mabel spent Sunday with relatives at Altoona.

Miss Beatrice Krider, of Rebersburg, visited her friend, Miss Florence Hazel, part of last week.

Mrs. Charles Mothersbaugh and baby visited Mrs. Mothersbaugh's parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Homan, of State College.

Misses Margaretta Goheen and Maude Houtz and John Patterson are attending summer school at State College.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Zechman and son Cyril, and Russell Ishler autoed to Snyder county on Sunday and returned Monday.

Keller Mothersbaugh, of Williamsport, spent a few days with his parents. On his return home he was accompanied by his daughters who had spent several months with their grandparents.

Mr. and Mrs. William Meyer and G. E. Meyer autoed to Instantur to visit the former's daughter. Mrs. Charles Segner accompanied them to DuBois where she will visit friends until Friday.

Among the Sunday visitors at the J. I. Ross home were Mrs. Porter and daughter Sarah, of Altoona, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Harter, of State College, David Campbell, of Linden Hall, and sister, Mrs. Gilliland, of Oak Hall.

The lecture by Dr. Wilkinson in the Boalsburg Lutheran church on Thursday evening was well attended. He held the undivided attention of the audience during the entire time he spoke. Should he return he will have even a better audience than he had last Thursday.

EARLYSTOWN.

Samuel Durst has cut his alfalfa.

Miss Dorothy Ruble spent Friday evening with her friend, Miss Verna Frantz.

Mrs. L. R. Lingle spent Friday and Saturday with her sister, Mrs. Foreman, at State College.

Elmer Royer and family were callers at the home of Abner Alexander, Friday evening.

H. W. Frantz drove to Bellefonte to meet his father, David Frantz, of Wilkinsburg, who will spend some time at the Frantz home.

Among the visitors at the home of H. W. Frantz on Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Chas. McClellan, Mr. and Mrs. John Mayer, Emma Brown and Blanche McClellan.

Georges Valley

W. E. Ritzman, of Nittany, visited his old-time friends at this place last week.

Miss Elizabeth Hennigh spent Saturday and Sunday with friends at State College.

J. T. H. Foust spent Sunday afternoon at Potters Mills with his sister, Mrs. Anna Hartman.

Mrs. William Stoner and little daughter Edna, of Tusseyville, spent Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Confer.

Samuel Floray, of Tusseyville, is quite ill. He is past seventy-five years old, which causes his friends to feel somewhat alarmed over his condition.

A TRIBUTE TO CENTRE COUNTY.
By a Native Son.

Hail, Hail! Renowned is Center county,
Star of the Keystone Constellation!
Adorned with honor, and far-famed art thou!
Afar thy name is heralded in story.

Vast mineral wealth thy terra firma yields,
With forests thou art lavishly adorned;
Thy emerald vales are gems of nature, all;
Thou'rt grand and beautiful in every part.

How limpid are thy brooks and beauteous streams,
Pure, deep and grand thy numerous fountains are;
Great are thy caves, yea, truly wonderful;
In nature's handiwork thou art sublime.

But nobler far, and long enduring
The many deeds thy sturdy sons have wrought;
In war, none ever fought more truly valiant,
Yet no less able are thy Sons of Peace.

Thy heritage is rich in noted statesman,
Among the foremost of the land are they;
No less thy pride are all thy charming daughters!
Angelic souls, blest guardians of thy homes.

Thy Counsellors, Historians and Poets,
Likewise thy famed Musicians and Composers,
And Artists, Astisans and Teachers,
All, all are 'mongst the foremost in the land.

Thy schools are of the finest to be found,
Academies of thine are thy just pride;
'Twere vain a College to denote more famed
Than thine, since none exist within the State.

In types of yeomanry, "Old Center" leads
Her sister Counties, one and all;
They're first in poise and greater sturdiness,
True patriots, who their country well defend.

Hail! Dear old Center county, Hail!
Thy fame among thy sisters is secure;
A gem art thou in Penn's vast sylvan wood;
Thou standest peerless 'mongst thy sisters, all.

Make felt thy power for progress and for truth!
No deed too high and noble for thy aim;
From off thy throne thou canst not be deposed;
A beacon light art thou throughout thy State.

Proud mother of four famous Governors,
What endless honors, well deserved, are thine,
No other sister of Penn's Commonwealth
Such glory and renown may e'er acquire.

The years of honor in thy train mount high!
A million beauty bowsers deck thy domain!
Thy glory all the ages will endure,
Hail Queen! We lay fresh laurels at thy feet.

We offer thee sincere, heart-felt devotion,
Our hearts united to laud and honor thee;
For lofty is thy greater, nobler station,
Resplendent and enriched is thy domain.

Thy people are in truth highly renowned,
Great scholars thy full history adorn
Thy patriots have proved themselves in valor,
And each one bears a proud and honored name.

Hail, Center County! Noblest gem art thou
Of Penn's sylvanian, beautiful domain;
A Princess fair, art thou, of highest splendor,
Exalted thus, mayest thou for aye endure.

—ALFRED BEIRLY,
Doctor of Music;

Chicago, Illinois, June 24th, 1916.

Pine Grove Mills.

Emma, wife of J. I. Reed, died at her home Sunday evening of stomach trouble, after an all winter's illness. She was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Gates and was born at Pine Hall May 19, 1866. Her husband and five children are left to mourn her departure. Burial was made Wednesday morning in the new cemetery in Pine Grove, Rev. L. N. Fleck officiating.

Charles B. McCormick died at his home near State College, Saturday afternoon, of heart trouble, his death being a shock to his numerous friends. The widow and one son survive, as do the following brothers and sisters: Hon. J. T. McCormick, of State College; Dr. S. S. McCormick, of Hubbersburg; Mrs. L. H. Oman, Mrs. John Seibert, Mrs. Agnes Bears, of near State College, and Mrs. John Bowersox, of Pennsylvania Furnace. Burial was made Tuesday morning in the Pine Hall cemetery, Rev. L. N. Fleck officiating.

A quiet, though pretty, wedding took place at the home of B. F. Homan at State College, Tuesday of last week, when their niece, Miss Mary E. Homan, became the bride of H. A. Grubb in the presence of a few near relatives. Rev. W. H. Traub performed the ceremony. After a wedding feast was served the happy couple took their departure for their newly furnished quarters. The groom is a Penn State graduate, class of 1915, and the bride an accomplished lady, the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Homan, of Ferguson township.
