LOCALS.

Miss Verna Rowe, a faithful operator in the local Bell exchange, is enjoying a short vacation from her duties.

Mr. and Mrs. William Bressler, of Potters Mills, enjoyed the Fourth among friends in Centre Hall. Mr.
Bressler has steady employment at Burnham.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Shimp of Latrobe and daughters, Mrs. Walter Simpson, of Huntingdon, and Mrs. Obie, of Lewistown, visited friends in this place on Sunday.

Mrs. Susa Hoover, of Axe Mann, is spending the summer at the home of her brother, Samuel Geringer, west of town, and will take care of Mrs.
Geringer, who still suffers with heart trouble.

Mrs. Raymond J. Miller and baby daughter, and the former's mother, Mrs. Kate Saunders, of Philadelphia, are visiting friends in Centre Hall and expect to spend the summer among relatives and friends in nearby towns.

Mrs. John Spangler and daughter Beatrice, of Chicago, Ill., and Mrs.
Edwin Wolfe, of Altoona, are visiting the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs.
James Spangler, at Tusseyville. Mr.
Spangler was unable to take his vacation at this time.

H. E. Lambert, on the Cyrus Brungart farm, near Wolf's Chapel, had the misfortune to be thrown from a load of hay last Thursday when the rope in the harpoon broke as he was about to trip the fork. In the fall to the barn floor he broke a bone at the wrist.

Mrs. J. S. Getchell and son Wendell, and Mrs. Thomas Keefer and baby daughter Agnes, from the Pittsburgh district, are spending a few weeks at the home of the ladies' parents, Squire and Mrs. Cyrus Brungart. Mr. Get-chell was with his family for a few days last week.

A record auto run to Dillsburg, York county, and return, was made by J. C.
McClellan of Potters Mills, on Monday. The trip was made for the purpose of bringing home Mrs. Eliza Smith, mother of Lloyd Smith, of Potters Mills, who had taken ill while on a visit to her son in York county.
Leaving Potters Mills at seven o'clock in the morning the 220-mile run was completed at eight in the evening.

Mary and Heleu Arney, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. A. Miles Arney, of Niagara Falls, New York, are spending a six weeks' vacation with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. B. H.
Arney. The little girls traveled alone as far as Lock Haven where they were met Thursday afternoon by Miss Mayme McGovern, of Bellefonte, who upon arriving at Bellefonte with her charges found Mr. and Mrs. Arney in waiting and the entire party then sailed to Centre Hall.

A. E. Kerlin, proprietor of Kerlin's Grand View Poultry Farm, accompanied by his mother, Mrs. Sarah Kerlin, left on Friday for Hartford, Connecticut, where a short time was spent with Edward Kerlin before leaving for Amesbury, Massachusetts, the home of Mrs. Kerlin's daughter, Mrs. Fred Morrill. Mrs. Kerlin will remain for some time while her son will return to his business after a week's trip in which time some of the big poultry plants will be visited.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Jordan and son Roy, of McConell, Illinois, are visiting old acquaintances and relatives in this part of the state, it being Mr.
Jordan's fourth visit to Centre county in thirty-eight years, at which time he left Colyer to engage in farming in the state of Illinois. They are now enjoying the fruits of their hard labor, having sold their farm a few years ago and moved to the city of Mc-Conell. Mr. Jordan is impressed with the excellent hay crop in this section, as well as with the condition of the small grain. In Illinois, he says, the corn crop lacks promise of being a good one owing to the continued cold and wet weather which prevailed there.

Centre County Y. W. O. A. Notes.

Centre county hopes to have a large number of delegates at Camp Nepah-win, Canton, Pa., during County Week, August 5-12. This is open to any girls whether members of the Y.
W. C. A. or not. Some of the attractions are boating, swimming, tennis, bowling, hikes and drives, hay rides, etc. During this week there will be canning demonstrations, story hour around the camp fire, Bible study and weepers of special interest to county girls. Camp Nejahwin is an ideal spot in which to spend a vacation.
It is situated among the hills about 30 miles north of Williamsport, and has a lake, swimming pool, and many other attractions. The cost for room, board, etc. for the week is $5.00; registration fee, 75 cents. Responsible persons are present to see that the girls are well cared for. The County Y.
W. C. A. secretary will be glad to correspond with anyone interested.
Address M. Hiller, State College, Pa.

State College: Arrangements have been completed for securing a house to be occupied by the association next fall. The upstairs rooms will be rented and the downstairs used for classes and clubs, reading, entertaining friends and so on.

Spring Mills: The Spring Mills Common Weal Club is showing the true community spirit by planning to oil a certain section of the road in that vicinity.

Miss Caroline Jones, secretary for finance and publicity in this field, has been spending several days in the county.

Miss Caroline Foresman, county secretary for this field, visited the Wahon Annuung Common Weal Club at Oak Hall on Saturday, and was entertained in the evening by the True Blue Common Weal Club at Lemont.

Farmers' Institutes.

The places fixed for the meetings of the three two-day Farmers' Institutes in Centre county for the coming winter are Eagleville, Boalsburg and Phillipsburg. This is the only information concerning them yet available.
The dates and the personnel of the crops of speakers are in the hands of the Department of Agriculture, and will be promulgated by Director Carrothers as soon as he can arrange the itinerary, probably sometime in September. The locations chosen foreshadow a series of unusually interesting and helpful meetings; the farmers and citizens at each place being of the intelligent and progressive class who appreciate this wonderful educational influence.

Strabbin and Bartholomew Bay Creamer Store.

Messrs. R. D. Brisbin and C. D.
Bartholomew bought the merchandise and fixtures of the defunct Creamer store at the bankrupt sale Tuesday morning. The price paid was $2450.
A dozen Jewish merchants from various parts of the state were after the stock and the bidding for a time was lively.

The purchasers purpose marking down the stock to a fraction of its real value and selling it out to the public at a sacrifice sale.

Picnic and Festival.

A picnic during the day and festival in the evening will be held by the Egg Hill Sunday-school in the vicinity of the church building on Saturday, July 15th. You and your friends are invited to come and join in the festivities.

Pleasant Gap Garage.

If you would like to make your Ford ride like a thousand dollar car try Hammond Shock Absorbers.
They work like the springs on the largest cars. We will put them on for six (6) dollars. Try them.

Fires, tubes, sparkplugs, gasoline, oil, cement, patches, vulcanizing, general repair work.
5 per cent. off on tires and tubes during this month.

Spraying on the Increase.

Pennsylvania farmers and fruit growers have been very quick to realize the value to be derived by spraying the fruit trees and the berry and truck crops and this year one-fourth of the farmers are reported to be employing spray materials.

Statistics prepared by the Pennsylvania Department of Agriculture show that in sixteen counties of the state over one-third of the farmers are spraying for insect pests and plant diseases, while every county shows eight per cent. or more of the farmers using spray materials.

The counties in which the greatest amount of spraying is being done are:
Adams, Franklin, Cumberland, and York in the principal fruit belt, Allegheny, Beaver, Berks, Bucks, Carbon, Dauphin, Delaware, Lancaster, Lawrence, Lebanon, Luzerne and Schuylkill. In all of these counties one-third or more of the farmers have a regular system for spraying and in many of the counties as high as fifty per cent. of the farmers are following the most improved methods advanced by the Department of Agriculture field agents for insect and plant disease destruction.

CENTRE COUNTY SOLDIERS' RELIEF ASSO-CIATION ORGANIZED TO RAISE FUNDS

$500.00 a Month Needed to Meet Demands of Soldier Boys' Families While They Are At the Front.—Everyone Should Help.

A mass meeting held in the Court House, Bellefonte, June 30th, the Centre County Soldiers' Relief Association was organized for the purpose of extending substantial assistance to the family of enlisted men who have gone to the front and whose families are dependent upon them for maintenance.

Upon a careful examination we find that some twenty families with thirty-five children, will require more or less assistance at once. The association proposes to collect funds from the patriotic people of the county to give to each wife 50c per day and 25c for each child per day during the time that the breadwinner of the family is in the service of the country.

This will require not less than $500.00 a month. We desire to pay each family every two weeks through the Ladies Auxiliary Committee appointed for this purpose, who will visit each family and report such information as we may need in order to distribute this aid in a practical and intelligent manner.

In order to facilitate our efforts we have asked that a representative of each church denomination as well as of each benevolent or social association in the county be appointed with power to select leading citizens in each town and community to solicit and accept contributions for the use of this association. Cards pledging a certain sum, payable monthly, will be forwarded to each representative and it is hoped that the patriotic people of the county will be liberal in responding to this appeal.

$15.00 a month for a private soldier will not be sufficient to maintain his family while in the service. It therefore becomes the citizens of the county to recognize their obligation to help these dependent families.

It is a mistake to believe that the order of the Secretary of War, giving the commanders authority to discharge a married enlisted man upon application and proof that his family needs him at home. The patriotism that animated these men to respond to the call of their country will not permit them to make such application and return home under the suspicion of refusing to serve their country at the front. Neither ought we to rely on the generosity of relatives to take care of these dependent families in cases where they are not able so to do.
It should be a pleasure to the good people of the county to come forward and contribute a sufficient amount to make their fathers and husbands at the front feel comfortable while they are doing their duty to their country.

We should not decline to furnish this aid on the ground that these men may be back in a short time. The intimation of the military authorities at Washington is that all the available troops will be forwarded to the border and required to do service for a considerable time in order to give them an opportunity for training and discipline in case actual war should come.

For the honor of the County which has never failed in any national crisis to come forward with men and money to the assistance of the government, this association confidently appeals to the people to do as their forebears did in 1860, give of their substance handsomely, so that while the boys in the field are fighting for the flag their wives and children left behind them will not suffer for the necessities and comforts of life nor be compelled to pay a penalty for the heroism of their husbands and fathers.

H. C. VALENTINE,
Secretary.

J. L. SPANGLER,
President.
