

Zheparler,

VOL. LXXXIX.

CENTRE HALL, PA., THURSDAY, JULY 27, 1916.

WASHINGTON NEWS LETTER.

PROPOSED BY BURLESON

1-CENT LETTER POSTAGE

The Tariff commission to be Non-Partisan. -National Chairman Vance McCormick Postmaster General Tells How This Might Dr. Wilson, Bishop McDowe'l and Dr. Called "A Steam Engine in Boots " by President Wilson.

With the passage by the House of

In its original form the bill would injustice of this, both to the country and to former members of Congress, duced to one cent. however, compelled the House to accept an amendment so that now the gress for the space provision for rail-of the board of Temperance, Prohibi-Mr. Schaeffer's and retain the mental Mrs. N. W. Meyer and daughter Grange Arcadis, Friday and Saturday

Designed to take, the tariff out of try for the job.

Already a boom has been started for a man who has never been swayed in the least by political considerations. ored to cut off special privilege and In the three years that he has been at favoritism in postal affairs. the head of the Agricultural Departiff Board ability, determination and he said in conclusion. the courage to do what he thought right. His appointment would be especially pleasing to the farmers of the country as it would at the same time place in line for the vacancy thus

Secretary Houston, during his term,

Be Brought About Next Year-Big

Postal Surplus Postmaster General Burleson last distinctly non-partisan. It is, there- son. "If next year we can have those from coast to coast-in the interest of Centre Hall to Bellefonte and return, and Mrs. W. W. Goheen and son brasks, is spending his vacation in secure the very best men in the coun- lege pay a fair part of what this service is worth, we can send a recompresent auministration had endeav- o'clock.

government has made greater strides administration that has wrought so board of foreign missions of the men of learning. He had the faculty exhibited in Grange Arcadia. At the Orvis Knarr. many reforms and has been of signal Methodist Episcopal church, in what of remembering what he read and was same time twenty girl musicians who service to the people of our country," has been termed by many one of the a ready speaker on topics of the day, form the orphanage orchestra will

Fourth Assistant Postmaster Genthe convention when he said :

(Continued from previous column.)

and you will see everything from a Cabinet member to a suppliant newspaper reporter waiting for a chance to

And the funny part of it is that he ernor of Peunsylvania two years ago.

paign heavier by several pounds than

. . .

Committee

cratic National bag and baggage to New York.

talk with him.

or special privilege ; no back stairs for has interested himself chiefly in the at least three years. I think express- Methodist Episcopal church, Altoons, LAKEMONT, AUGUST 3.

the Commission a member, or a form- under the new space basis were re- trains to arrive at their respective his death. For the past four weeks he following were in the party : duced he could recommend to congress destinations at 9:30 a. m., which will was required to keep his bed, suffering Rev. and Mrs. S. C. Stover and son next year that letter postage be re- insure arrival at the grounds in time much pain. The end came peacefully. Elwood, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Zechman

Taylor Spiakers for the Session of the Day.

METHODIST DAY AT

" This is an initial step to solve the Wilson would need no introduction to it showed any signs of diminution. Close and daughter Rebeccs, Mr. and politics, the bill provides that not vexatious problem and enable the a Central Pennsylvania andience, and Physically, too, Mr. Schaeffer was a Mrs. E. H. Meyers, mother and Buick car to Reedsville, on Sunday, more than three members of any one government to pay to railroads an scarcely to any American audience, remarkable map. The open out-door daughters Elizabeth and Lorane ; Mr. political party-one half of the board- adequate compensation but pay only having been heard many times in life appealed to him and it was and Mrs. W. H. Meyers, Mr. and Mrs. may be appointed, making the body for what we receive," said Mr. Burle- every section of our great country- nothing unusual for him to walk from Fred Reitz and S. Ralph Rishel, Mr.

D. D., LL. D., a strong and able man afoot was to Rebersburg, a distance of Misses Florence and Gladys Hazel, Centre Hall before returning home. mendation to congress for the first step belonging to the whole world but now two miles from his home, which he Ethei and Mildred Gingerich, Emma David F. Houston, at present Secre- toward penny postage in this country." particularly at home in Washington, took last October. He predicted that this year's postal one whom the management has de-

A stereopticon lecture on "World- cation was summed up in nine months

"You ought to take pride in the audience an opportunity to hear S. a good knowledge in the school of life showing the life of the I.O.O.F. ment that important branch of the fact that you are connected with an Earl Taylor, Ph. D., secretary for the thru much reading and minging with orphanage near Sunbury, will be William Shultz, Ernest Harry and "There is a real interested party in Dr. Taylor and give a vision of the the Peace in Spring township for under the auspices of the local Recontrol in Washington. There is no world-need that cannot be gained by twenty years. Religiously he was a bekah lodge and the proceeds derived created in the Department, the Assist- well worn path for multi-millionaires most people in any other way.

the soft foot artist in Washington for large scale by the members of Grace mitted.

greatest lectures of the kind ever put the Bible, and on politics. Mr. render a musical program that alone before the public. The colored pic- Schaeffer was a Jeffersonian Democrat will be well worth the price of admiseral Blakslee was loudly cheered by tures shown during the lecture were and was always found loyal to the sion. secured under the direct supervision of party. He held the office of Justice of The entertainment will be given economics of agriculture, in which ions of satisfaction and security float- to serve meals at the very lowest rates to Miss Lydia Fiedler. The couple having the pictures shown, and it is the lectures and entertainments. field he bas no peer, while the Assist-in around in Washington are figured possible. The Llysen Episcopal commenced farming in Spring town-therefore hoped that good sized Centre Hall bas a similar feast each his concern the practical side of farm- "I don't think anything but a ca- to serve all kinds of refreshments and ship. For twenty-three years he lived clans on both nights. The town has church is just as carefully preparing ship and later farmed in Walker town- audiences will greet the little musi- year under the name of "Lecture

50 Boalsburgers Motor to Altoons. A large delegation of members of the

Michael Schaeffer Passes Away at the Reformed church at Boalsburg attend-Home of His Son, near Millheim, at ed the Reformed Day reunion at Ripe Old Age .- Is Barled at Zion. Lakemont Park, Altoons, on Friday.

Michael Schaeffer, a well known The trip was made in autos, leaving What has been planned and expected figure in Centre county, is dead at Boalsburg at 6 o'clock a. m. The Representatives of the Revenue Bill week told the National Association of as the biggest and best Methodist Day nearly ninety-two years. The grand leading car flew to the breeze a banner and its assured enactment into law by Postmasters' convention that if rev- yet will be the program for Lakemont old man passed away Friday evening inscribed "Reformed S. S., Boals- Park. the Senate, interest is centered in the enues from second class mail were in- park on Thursday, August 3. The at 9:40 o'clock at the home of his son, burg," in the church colors-black, probable make up of the Tariff Com- creased, "extravagance for useless Pennsylvania Railroad company has N. Bigler Schaeffer, one and one-half yellow and red. The day at the park political service" in the rural mail promised a special train from Bedford miles west of Millheim, on the Dr. C. was thoroly enjoyed by all and the and relatives in this place. system were curtailed and payments to Hollidaysburg, and from Grampian 8. Musser farm. A year's suffering run of one hundred miles was made not permit the President to name on to railroads for mail transportation by way of Tyrone to Altoona, both with cancer of the face brought about without an untoward incident. The

DEAD AT 92 YEARS.

for the morning address by Rev. It falls to the lot of a comparative and son Cyril, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. G. former members who are "tariff first step toward settlement of railroad Methodist Episcopal church, now re- especially keen memory thruout his daughter Berl and son Fred, Mr. and siding in Washington, D. C. Dr. life, it was only a few weeks ago that Mis. C. U. Corl, Mr. and Mrs. J. H.

number of years, has been secured to in Spring township August 16, 1824. Charles and Frank. The postmaster general said the make the afternoon address at 2:30 He was one of eight children and was the last to depart this life. His edu-

Motion Pictures of Orphanage Life.

Lutheran and he attended the services will be turned into the building fund. Provisions are being made on a of his church so long, as health per- The lodge will be at considerable expense in paying the railroad transporan economist. Himself the possessor vent it and I don't believe it is nec- It being the centennial of the death now the Crust farm, two miles east of ing the orphanage band here and it is returned from South Dakota to his of forty two hundred acres of land in essary to say to you that your part, is of Bishop Asbury, the pioneer of early Centre Hall, removing with his son to eaid that the girls' orchestra has the former home-Georges Valley-last

TOWN AND COUNTY NEWS.

NO. 29

HAPPENINGS OF LOCAL INTEREST FROM ALL PARTS

To-morrow (Friday) is the time set for the Ripka reunion on Grange

Ed. L. Bartholonew, of Altoons, is spending a short time with his family

Paul E. Murray and daughter Leors, of Chicago, Illinois, are spending a short time with the former's mother, Mrs. Rebecca Murray.

nighte.

spending the day with Mr. and Mrs.

a distance of sixteen miles, when near- Richard, Mre. H. M. Hosterman, Mrs. Washington, D. C., and will very Bishop William Frazer McDowell, ly ninety years of age. His last trip M. E. Kuhn, Mrs. Maud Williams, likely visit relatives and friends in Sunday proved a delightful day for Rowe ; J. M. Rose, E. E. Gingerich, autoists and there was a steady stream pointment. Mr. Houston is recogniz- surplus would be between four and five sited to have at Methodist Day for a and Mre. John Schaeffer and was born son Riley, H. M. Hosterman and sons long. The Old Fort hotel served dinner and supper for ninety-four of the travelers.

> Three Rebersburg and one Millheim wide Missions" will give the evening of schooling, nevertheless he acquired week several reels of motion pictures mounted machine gun troop at Boals-

> > It has been announced at Harrisburg that the schools all over the state are to be inspected by the authorities of the department of labor and industry. The inspection will begin with the opening of the school

Bellefonte is right now in the midst of its Chautauqua feast. The tent is pitched on the High school ground

Vrooman has written for and talked to them. The same agricultural organizations which will line up back of Secretary Houston for the Tariff Board will be lound as strongly urging the nation is the re-election of Woourow tee will be on the grounds to see that William T. ("Farmer") Creasy, of their remarks to postal subjects. He Pennsylvania, is a strong rooter for Houston and equally as strong a parti- to subject itself to criticism in this san for Vrooman to become Secretary respect. of Agriculture. Creasy is not only a real farmer himself but he has his finger on the pulse of the farming his travels stand outside of his suite element all over the country by reason in any of the hotels where he stops of his official positions in a number of agricultural organizations.

* * *

With the going upon the bench of the United States Court of Claims of Representative James Hay, of Vir- puts on flesh with all of his gallivantginis, another picturesque figure will the same thing when he ran for govpass from Congress. Mr. Hay's nomination has been confirmed, but he declared that he will hold his seat until this session ends.

Mr. Hay has been in the House for seven terms and has always been recognized as an "organization man." This year he would have had to face do the worrying. a hard and expensive fight for renomination and although the salary of the judgship is only $6000, which is $1500 at it again. This time he wants to being put forth to render service. less than he gets as a Representative, it is a life job, without the expense and worry of biennial campaigns.

* * *

Vance McCormick, chairman of the explain why:

ington from Harristurg 4 p. m. Left the mint, should retain his place on for New York at midnight same day. the committee until the matter is set On Juesday he left New York for tled. He has resigned his post and Chicago at 2:45 p. m., arriving there just as soon as the designs are chosen Wednesday morning.

Wednesday he left Chicago for New York at 5:30 and arrived Thursday.

ing there for Washington at minnight, it without using up the time of the of Georges Valley. arriving Saturday morning. Satur- House to discuss a resolution which day night he left for his home in finally went to the Committee on Ex-Harrisburg and came back to the penditures in the Treasury Depart-Monday night he set sail again for every four years-and it had a meeting receipts since January 1 from auto-

Mr. McCormick does in the course of would have been lost.

ing, although he, too, ranks high as lamity," he concluded, "could pre- light luuch to all comere.

the middle west, all of which he tills, of course, 'back home', and I'm sure Methodism, fitting mementoes of this near Millheim a few years ago. He boys' band backed off the platform week purchased a farm north of Penn Mr. Vrooman is no theorist, a fact you'il attend to it when the time will be joined to Methodist Day re- was a man of kindly disposition and when it comes to real music, so you Hall of T. B. Motz, of Millheim. The lahoma City, a former congressman, head of Bishop Asbury. These children survive, namely, D. L., made a speech in which he told the souvenirs will be handled by the Boy N. Bigler, of near Millheim ; James postmasters to "go home and remem-Scouts who care for the packages.

per that the greatest work of all the naming of Mr. Vrooman as his suc- Wilson," President Selph announced visitors are properly welcomed and that hereafter speakers must confine directed.

wooden coaches with the more sub- Geesey, the Lutheran minister at The model represents the most econostantial steel cars on the local branch, Aaronsburg, in the Lutheran church mical arrangement of pipes and drains. patrons of the road were delighted in at Zion. so far as the thought of increased safety was concerned. The railroad company, howeve, slipped a cog in ite

Both he and Mitchell Paimer finished for a railroad enjoying the prestige dominating. The tenth rattler of the chosen for this exhibit. the last lap of that whirlwind camand high name as does the Pennsyl- season was killed this week on the vanis. "Safety" and "service" are State land by Ranger William R. they were at the start. Here is the two words the public is led to believe Hoover. It proved to be the daddy of A real estate deal was concumma-investigate "Bob" Woolley, Director of the Mint, who has been made Director of Publicity of the Demo- immediate demand of the public.

Lutheran Picule August 10.

"Hampy " is displeased that a Federal employe should engage in an attempt Thursday, August 10th, is the time of robbing egg nests in the chicken It is Mr. Tressler's intention to move tains in picnic fashion. Democratic National Committee, has to throw a monkey wrench into the set for the annual reunion of the Penns house on the Dr. A. G. Lieb farm, east his family here and occupy his new been aptly dubbed by President Wil- macumery of the Republican party Valley Lutheran charge. This year's of town, was killed by a bail from a possession. son "a steam engine in boots." This and he wants Congress to see about it. gathering will be held on Grange rifle in the hands of T. L. Smith, Mon-Now the fact of the matter is this : Park, Centre Hall. Invitations have The Treasury Department is getting been issued to neighboring Lutheran storing the hen fruit away wholesale, Baturday, July 8, arrived in Wash- up some new coins and Woolley is on charges to join in the picnic, which not resorting to the sucking process, ington from New York at 7 s. m., left the committee to attend to it. The will be of the basket style. Former but devouring shell and all. A bump Washington for Harrisburg the same designs have not been approved yet pastors of the local charge have also and it is highly important that been invited by letter.

Monday, July 10, arrived in Wash- Woolley, in his capacity as Director of The Loysville orphanage band will again be here to enliven the occasion.

Sold Two Uhalmers.

The J. C. Lee Motor Car company, he will walk out of the office and move of Spring Mills, within the past week sold a 7-passenger Chaimers to Hon. All of which "Hampy" could have W. M. Allison, of Spring Mills, and a Friday he spent in New York, leav- found out if he did not already know 5-passenger Chalmers to F. W. Zettle,

Tag No, 200,000 Issued Last Week. State automobile license No. 200,000 capital on Monday bright and early. ment, a committee which meets about was issued last week. Thus far, the two years ago. But then, of course, a mobile licenses amount to $2,128,778.50 membrances in the shape of a button, generous acts. His wife preceded him will not want to miss them. When Postmaster Weaver, of Ok- properly inscribed and showing the in death twenty-four years ago. Four Admission 15 and 25 cents.

$592,026.50.

L., of Oregon, Illinois, and Mary C., A large and able reception commit- of Flemington. Also eleven grandchildren and six great grandchildren. Funeral services were held Wednesday morning and the cortege then prosaid the convention could not afford The Steel Coaches Minus Drinking Water in the family burial plot. The funeral of a model water system and sewage Madisonburg and Livonis. When the Pennsy replaced the old sermon was delivered by Rev. D. M. disposal plant for the farm home.

types of water systems are given. Snakes Here, There, and Every where. The other feature is a set of chil-Snakes have never been so plentiful dren's garments designed to meet the "service to the public" in dispensing as this summer, is the opinion of hygienic needs of the child and the with the water cooler that should be foresters and rangers whose work economic limitations of the family part of every coach's equipment. The keeps them in the woods daily. budget. The patterns used are such as suffering that women and children Especially in Greens Valley, which is to make it possible for the busy mothwere obliged to endure during the tor- a part of the Nittany State Forest, er to construct the garments with the ing about in sleeping cars. He did rid days in the early part of July be- under supervision of Forester L. G. least expenditure of time and energy. cause the Pennsy failed to supply Barner, have the reptiles never been Fabrics that are durable and suited to water on its care, does not speak well so numerous, with the rattlers pre- the needs of the child have been day afternoon. His snakeship was here and there in the snake's analomy gone down the long lane. Saturday afternoon a black snake, the owner of the motorcycle was in measuring nearly four feet, was killed the hotel at the time. The cycle was City. on the front porch of the B. H. Arney sent flying thru space for a distance residence, in the heart of town. The of thirty feet and landed in a water reptile gained the porch by crawling trough. The frame was bent and a up a vine. Its appearance struck fear wheel damaged. The machine was Mortimer Barnes, one day last week, killed a four-foot rattler on Nittany mountain which sported nine rattles.

If you should want to know what chance to play campaign politics an excess over those of 1915 to date of burg, will have a new home which water fell in less than an hour. There will cost $30,000. or barvest fields the following day.

farm is at present tenanted by Samuel Ulrich and contains 120 acres. The price paid was $12,000. College Fair Exhibit.

Rev. and Mrs. J. R. Brown, of In connection with the county fair Esterly, are spending a week at the exhibit to be sent out by the Pennsyl- home of Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Corman, vapia State College School of Agri- in Rebersburg. Rev. Brown was a culture and Experiment Station, former pastor of the Rebersburg Respecial home economics features have formed charge and on Sunday filled been included. One of these consists the appointments at Rebersburg,

The State College boro council is considering submitting to the voters Approximate costs for the various to secure money for street and light the question of issuing bonds in order improvements, as well as the building of a sewage disposal plant. There is much sentiment in favor of the bond issue in the college town.

> F. V. Goodhart, the funeral director, conveyed the body of the late Michael Schaeffer from Millheim to its last resting place in the cemetery at Zion. on Wednesday. The trip was made by auto, Mr. Campbell, the Millheim undertaker who had the funeral in charge, deeming the distance too great to be made with horses.

J. D. Meyer, of Altoons, accompermeate the Pennsy's system, but them all because of its immense size. ted on Saturday whereby the property panied by Mrs. Martin Garman, of until a necessity as great as drinking The snake measured four feet and was of Prof. W. O. Heckman, principal of Bellefonte; Mrs. Jones and Mrs. water is supplied on its roads, no one eight inches in circumference. the boro schools, passed into the hands Jennie Jenkins, of Tyrone, autoed to The Honorable "Hampy" Moore is is ready to believe any great efforts are Eleven rattles and a button were at- of J. L. Tressler, of Linden Hall, the home of his parents in this place tached to the one extremity while in The property was purchased about a on Saturday. The same day the party Restore the drinking water to its ac- its mouth it held a young rabbit, half year ago from Capt. George M. Boal. was increased by the addition of the customed place on each coach, is an devoured. The rattier was in a jeth- Mr. Tressler does not gain possession Hon. William M. Allison family, of argic state while enjoying its meal and of the place until April 1st of next Spring Mills, and the Frank McCoy year, when Prof. Heckman will have family, of Bellefonte, and together the A big black snake, caught in the act almost completed his term of teaching, day was enjoyed in the Seven Moun-

Bright and early Monday morning the Reporter was pleased to receive a short call from Rev. C. W. Rishel, of Howarc, and Rev. R. W. Runyan, of An Indian motorcycle belonging to Flemington, both Methodist ministers. Henry Ay re, of Yeagertown, was The reverend gentlemen, in company badly wrecked at the Old Fort hotel, with their wives, were on the start of a ten days' auto tour. she route mapped out was as follows : Lock Haven, ing the turn at the hotel. Fortunately tysburg, Pen Mar, Washington, Balti-Mt. Holly Springs, Harrisburg, Getmore, Philadelphia, and Atlantic Scarcity of help on the farm this year has resulted in heavier burdens being imposed upon most farmers during haymaking and harvest. The farmer with a sturdy son or two to assist in the work is fortunate. A farm on which the help question was troublesome one this year was that of William P. Brooks, west of town, nevertheless Mr. Brooks with the astrifle over an inch and one-half of sistance of one son-Guy Brooks last week finished putting away thirtywas very little work done in the hay one loads of hay besides harvesting I twenty-four acres of wheat.

Auto Strikes Motorcycle. last Wednesday evening, when the large car belonging to Harry Keller, showed that a number of eggs had

Esq., of Bellefonte, struck it in round-into the breasts of several women on one of the kind equipped with a the porch until Forester L. G. Barnes side carriage. came on the scene and dispatched it.

An Inch and Une-half of Rain. Friday evening one of the heaviest showers of the summer occurred, the official rain gauge indicating that a