Save Pennies—Waste Dollars
Some users of printing save pennies by getting inferior work and lose dollars through lack of advertising value in the work they get. Printers as a rule charge very reasonable prices, for none of them get rich although nearly all of them work hard.
Moral: Give your printing to a good printer and save money.

The Latest Gleanings From All Over the State.

TOLD IN SHORT PARAGRAPHS

The first of a series of a half a dozen meetings, to be held throughout Berks county for the purpose of organizing the dairy farmers of the Oley and Schuylkill Valleys, south of Reading, took place in the fire hall at Oley, and was presided over by County Agriculturist Charles S. Adams, of Reading. Farmers are seriously considering the discontinuing of raising cattle for market and cows for dairy purposes, because of the increased cost of food and other expenses. Farmers are of the opinion that more money could be made in the raising of grass and grain.

Jacob Trash, a farmer residing between Cross Roads and Petersville, Northampton county, committed suicide, using a shotgun. Trash placed the muzzle of the gun in his mouth and then pulled the trigger.
The resignation of J. M. Owens as road superintendent of Jefferson county was announced at the State Highway Department. The vacancy has been filled by the promotion of H. M. Dorwart as acting superintendent for the county.

Matthew Yuscavage, a miner at Eagle Hill Colliery, Pottsville, lost an exciting race for his life. He was at work in a breast when he heard the roof cracking and instantly realizing what was taking place, he made a dash for safety. Big boulders fell all around him, just grazing him and he had almost reached a place of safety when another big rock fell, pinning him fast and crushing most of his bones. He died after being at the Pottsville Hospital less than an hour.

Mrs. Andrew Stifka, of McAdoo, was granted $5,165 as compensation for herself and two children by State Referee Paul W. Houck, from the C. M. Dodson Company, for the death of her husband who worked only four days for the company. Stifka was a contractor miner and the payroll showed that he earned $18.55 for four days and on this the compensation was based. The referee intimated that additional sums will be granted the widow later on for a posthumous child.

Fourteen-year-old John Kerns, playing with boys the same age around the John Sheaffer mill at Greason, severed himself in a thousand bushel bin of corn which, while the lad was hidden, was drawn upon for shipment. The drain sucked the young man into the mass of grain and ultimately his dying struggles attracted the attention of the mill hands engaged in handling the corn. The rescuers tore away the lower part of the bin and found Kerns' body. The lad was dead when found.

Former City Treasurers John Strickler and J. William Jones have made demand upon the City of York for payment of $1,290 and $964, respectively, which they claim to be due them as percentage for collecting street paving assessments while they were serving in the capacity of tax collectors. If payment is not made suit will ensue. This is a new question in York, although the higher courts have decided in favor of city treasurer tax collectors in other cities.

As the result of a rush of culm and water down a chute in the No. 11 mine, Tamaqua, Palmer Jones, aged nineteen, a laborer, was killed and Peter McHugh and John Smith were imprisoned in the chute two hours, until released uninjured. Jones had his foot caught by a plank and was forced to stand in a car which he was about to load, while the culm slowly mounted as high as his head, smothering him before help could reach him.

STATE TO REPAIR BOROUGH ROAD

Commissioner Black Promises To Make Exception To Rule In Littlestown Case.

This highway was a turnpike toll road which was purchased by the State and for the maintenance of which the State Highway Department is held responsible. Commissioner Black told his callers that the State Highway Department would endeavor to keep the section of the road in Littlestown Borough in repair, because this was an exception to the general rule of the Department not to assume control of State highways in boroughs.

The attendance is made up exclusively of public school teachers from Pennsylvania. Dr. E. R. Smith, director of the summer session, attributes the steady growth in attendance to a wide selection of courses to meet the needs of progressive teachers. Particular attention is given to agriculture, home economics, public school drawing and the sciences.
