DEEDS AND WORDS.

From the New York World
Every speech that Mr. Hughes makes is a new argument for the reelection of President Wilson.

In Chicago Mr. Hughes declared that "if anything in this campaign is real, it is that we are now facing the question whether we want words or whether we want deeds." While Mr. Hughes was giving voice to this sentiment, the telegraph wires were carrying the news that through the leadership of President Wilson the Senate had passed the Child Labor Bill and the House conferees would accept the Senate Bill.

If Mr. Hughes is concerned about deeds, we refer him to the record of the Wilson Administration, a record of achievement in progressive legislation for which there is no parallel.

We refer him to the Federal Reserve Banking Law. We refer him to the Rural Credits Law. We refer him to the Trade Commission Law. We refer him to the repeal of the Panama Canal Tolls Act that had repudiated the solemn obligations of a treaty.

We refer him to the Clayton law, declaring that labor shall no longer be treated as a commodity. We refer him to the income tax. We refer him to the Parcel-Post Law. We refer him to a host of other measures which invoke the power of Government for the protection of human rights. We refer him to the great measures of national defense which Congress is carrying through under Mr. Wilson's leadership. And, not least, we refer him to the fact that the American people again have an Administration that is not under the domination of Wall Street and high finance.

Mr. Hughes was Governor of New York longer than Mr. Wilson has been President of the United States. What was done under his Administration that compares in point of statesmanship and public service with even the least of these achievements under the Wilson Administration?

Mr. Hughes' sneer about words and deeds may have been directed at the foreign policies of President Wilson rather than at the domestic policies. Very well. President Wilson's words have kept the United States out of war without the surrender of a single American right. Where would Mr. Hughes' "deeds" have placed us? Diplomacy has only two weapons, words and deeds. Words mean negotiation. Deeds mean war. If Mr. Hughes reproach of the President has any significance except campaign nagging, it is that President Wilson refused to plunge the country into war before exhausting all the resources of diplomacy, and that conse-

That Troublesome Baseball Score.

For the benefit of the Pleasant Gap baseball team and all others concerned.

To adopt the mule's policy of kicking may be all right providing one does not kick themselves into trouble, otherwise it is best not to kick at all. This would be good advice for the ball players from Pleasant Gap for it seems that they only showed their littleness by disputing the final score of the game played with the Linden Hall ball team on the latter's ground on the 5th of August. In last week's issue they claimed the score should have been 12 to 11 in their favor, but they have forgotten that they were fully satisfied that the score was 12 to 12 at the end of the ninth inning and were willing to play off the tie at the time. The time to talk was when the game was being played and not wait until the little boys, for such they proved themselves to be by their actions, arrived home and made themselves heard through their local correspondent who certainly exaggerated things to the extreme and any fair minded person will know that the statements were overdrawn.

Our local boys admitted that they did not get a square deal at the Gap during a previously played game but they did not belittle themselves by publishing the facts such as the Gap boys did in last week's issue, and if they are not satisfied as to the score which is 14 to 12 in Linden Hall's favor and have spunk enough to play it over, then we take this privilege of challenging them to a game that shall be played in the near future on some neutral ground.

If this challenge is accepted we expect to play the Gap team only and not the cream of Bellefonte and surrounding community.

CAPTAIN LINDEN HALL B. B. TEAM.

Ritter Boy Improving.

George Ritter, the 8-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Ritter, who was so severely injured at Port Carbon two weeks ago, regained consciousness last Thursday after lying for a week at death's door. On Tuesday afternoon the lad was brought to his home in Centre Hall. He is able to speak, but only for a very short time, because of his feeble condition resulting from the want of food during the period of his unconsciousness.

The fall which almost proved fatal to the youth, strange as it may seem, left no visible marks on the skull. The boy in running to meet his mother fell flat on his face striking his forehead on the road with tremendous force, and resulting in a concussion of the brain.

Considering the fact that little or no hope was at first entertained for his recovery, the announcement of his home coming with prospects for his being restored to his former condition getting brighter day by day, is a bit of news that the Reporter is glad to give.

quently we are in the miserable and unfortunate condition of being at peace when American boys might be dying by the thousands every day in the trenches. Is that what Mr. Hughes wants?

Every time Mr. Hughes speaks he emphasizes the painful fact that he has no legitimate issue and no constructive policies of his own. His whole campaign is directed not to building himself up but to tearing the President down.

Before Mr. Hughes was nominated The World looked forward to his candidacy in the belief that it would mean an appeal to the reason and the intelligence of the American people. In all kindness toward Mr. Hughes, we must confess our disappointment. There is no appeal to public reason or public intelligence in Mr. Hughes' campaign address. No citizen is wiser or better informed or more sanely advised in his public duties because of anything that Mr. Hughes has said since his nomination.

The Hughes speeches are only an invocation to blind, bigoted partisanship. They are the commonplace product of a commonplace Republican mind, and as such they are quite unworthy of the Charles E. Hughes that New York used to know.

P. O. S. of A. News.

State organizer J. W. Yelsley for the P. O. S. of A. in Centre county and will remain at least four months to thoroughly organize the order in fifteen more places. On Friday evening he will institute a camp at Bellefonte. A charter list at Pleasant Gap is ready and Centre Hall and Unionville lists of charter applicants well under way.

This activity upon the part of this order is the result of Judge Quigley and a few others prominent in the county requesting to have this patriotic order at work in this county. As a result the state camp P. O. S. of A. made a large appropriation to organize Centre county and sent Mr. Yelsley here to remain until every hamlet has a camp of this order.

The Bellefonte camp has arranged for prominent members of the order, such as Judges Moser, of Northumberland county, Johnson of Union, Congressman E. K. Focht, and Senator Penrose, to deliver addresses in the court house. They have also engaged the famous Altoona degree team in comensury uniform, and with a band, to put on the degree of the order in the armory early in October.

It is purposed by the organizer to have a total of twenty-two camps in Centre county.

RUN DOWN BY AUTO.

He was hurried to the office of Dr. Barlett where he was found to be in a critical condition. At time of this writing he has shown signs of improvement.
