One of the most striking episodes of the great Somme offensive was the recent taking of the field fort at Blanches and its garrison of 113 men by 9 French soldiers.

All attempts to storm the position had been checked by murderous machine-gun fire until a French officer discovered a vulnerable point.

The Germans, believing a large force was with the Frenchmen, had no time to get their weapons and surrendered.

OPINION DRIFTS TOWARD WILSON

Democratic National Committee Feels Well Satisfied.

PROGRESSIVES COMING OVER

Sentiment in the Doubtful States Becoming More and More Favorable to the President, Says Statement to the Public.

Drift of opinion in doubtful states is toward the re-election of President Wilson, according to a statement issued by the Democratic national committee.

"The Progressives in 1912 polled 4,119,507 votes. That was 634,551 more votes than were cast for President Taft.

"Colonel Roosevelt is out of it now. He has deserted the party which he himself created.

"The Progressives are reading the record. They are waking up to the fact that whatever advance has been made along their highway of reform—and it is a steady, consistent advance during the last four years—have come through the Democratic party.

The Progressives are studying the Democratic candidate, and they are awakening to the realization that he is the one real progressive in the field."

The drift in the doubtful states is toward Wilson, the statement says.

"Michigan, this year," it continues, "gives every promise of being a genuine fighting ground for Democracy.

The presence of Woodrow Wilson at Detroit, the insurrection of the Progressives against the Perkins-Roosevelt delivery, and the great prosperity everywhere throughout Michigan are leaning strongly in favor of Democracy.

"Mechanics who were getting $2 and $3 three years ago are now receiving $4 to $6, and they are content with present conditions.

"The mobilization of the troops toward the Mexican border has sent a message home that no other single act could impress the people of Michigan with the full benefits to the nation of the Wilson peace policy.

"It looks very clearly from all of these reasons as if Michigan with its former 75,000 Republican plurality could be converted into a good working plurality for Democracy and Woodrow Wilson.

"A close observer of the conditions in Ohio is even more emphatic in the declaration that Ohio will be a positive asset to the Woodrow Wilson election this year.

"Some of the most conservative business men of Cleveland, Toledo and other important cities are making the open declaration that Ohio will be Democratic this year.

"The appointment of the secretary of war and the recent appointment of the Supreme court justice, both of whom are held in high esteem by the people of Ohio, will give an added incentive for the Ohioans to join the ranks of the new Democracy of Woodrow Wilson.

"The Golden state, too, has all the earmarks of being added to the Democratic ranks. On account of the great disaffection caused by the Progressive convention, California is sorely nettled to a degree that it has never been in recent years.

"Massachusetts is turning over with disaffection toward the standpatters, Matthew Hale, one of the most conspicuous of the Progressives, has openly come forth against any Progressive-Hughes combination.

The Difference... One evil which the Republican party's calamity experts will not fail to fasten on the Democratic administration is the appearance of unparalleled difficulties and trials, and to the patience, skill and sagacity of its remarkable president, to the strong hold which it has established in the gratitude and confidence of the American people, that we owe this unique and reluctant performance of the Republican party.

Let us remember, however, that in the good old days of standpatism the sharks were all on hand, and most of them enjoyed an immunity which nobody now extends to the seagoing variety.

It is almost impossible to please these Republicans. They could not sleep nights until the National Guard was ordered to the border, and now, because it is not brought home before 's work is finished, they are threatening to make a campaign issue of it.

Mr. Hughes has accepted the nomination, but the country will hardly accept Mr. Hughes' speech.

The New York Progressives proved that the personal inspiration of the colonel is not necessary to a fight.

HUGHES' ACCEPTANCE SPEECH

Too Long, and Vague in Suggesting Alternations for the Policies He Criticizes.

Mr. Hughes would have been more merciful to a country plunged in steep-down gulfs of heat and very faintly interested in politics at present if he had cut his notification speech shorter, but possibly the patient reader will be grateful to it for a refrigerating effect.

Little that is new appears in the speech. It is mainly a composite of the well-known wisdom of Republican sages and the converted Progressive chiefs.

Can He Heal the Wound? For a candidate whose nomination was due to a purely artificial demand, artfully worked up by a few schemers with nobody knows what private ends to serve, Mr. Hughes must be admitted to be doing wonderfully well in the first great task that would have confronted anyone in his place; the attempt to heal the gaping wound in his party.

Remedies for "Chiggers." If a bath in hot water, or in water containing salt or strong soap, is taken within a few hours after exposure in shrubbery and weeds infested with "chiggers," or "red bugs," no ill effects will be experienced.

Went Pretty Far Back. There is not a large collection of anecdotes about Charles E. Hughes. One of them dates back to the time when he was governor of New York and was making one of his "appeals to the people."

Fine Credit. "Is his credit good?" "It must be. I understand he owes money to everybody."

Woodrow Wilson and Business. Charles Sumner Bird's distress over the injury done to American business, or soon to be done in the future, by the Wilson administration, should be contemplated in the light of the subjoined statement in Mr. Barron's Boston News bureau—and Mr. Barron is no admirer of Woodrow Wilson:

Wonderful Cause and Result. After all is said, it is to the administration of Woodrow Wilson, to its remarkable achievements amid unparalleled difficulties and trials, and to the patience, skill and sagacity of its remarkable president, to the strong hold which it has established in the gratitude and confidence of the American people, that we owe this unique and reluctant performance of the Republican party.

Look at These Names. Members of the defunct Progressive party will read the names of the men who named William R. Wilcox chairman of the Republican national committee with interest.

These things do not jibe. For, as the one man chiefly responsible for the federal reserve act, under which the United States "is today the dominant money factor of the world," Woodrow Wilson will never be known in history as the "enemy" of American business, whatever Mr. Bird may say of him in this campaign.—Springfield Republican.

HOW MOUNTAINS ARE FORMED Earth Crumples Up and Makes Great Hills Where Plains Once Lay.

In the region now occupied by the Wasatch mountains a number of parallel faults were developed close together and the broken pieces of the earth's crust between them were pushed up, the rocks on one side of each crack riding up over those on the other side until a great mountain range was formed where once lay a plain.
