S. Paul Dinges, of Meadville, made his annual visit to Centre Hall last week, spending the greater part of the time with his mother, Mrs. Mary Dinges, at the J. C. Roseman home. Mr. Dinges for years has taken the week on which falls August 25th as his vacation period in order to be with his aged mother as she starts a new mile in life's journey. He is manager of the Underwriters Association in Meadville, which does an exclusive fire insurance business.

Mr. and Mrs. James F. High and niece, Miss Mary Runkle, of Lock Haven, were in Centre Hall for a few hours on Thursday of last week. They came to Centre county to attend the funeral of Mrs. Ira Bishel at Boalsburg. Mr. High, when a younger man, was employed as a farm hand in the Earlstown district for several years, and likes to refer back to those days. Mr. High and family were accompanied by Mr. Walter, also of Lock Haven, who drove the car, but in a short while Mr. High will be operating an Oakland "six," now ordered, and then will come to Centre county more frequently.

GEORGE L. GOODHART.

A Foremost citizen Passes Away Early Monday Morning.—An Earnest Worker in Church, Community and Politics Party—Was Aged 71 Years and 5 Months.

The life of a good and useful citizen came to an end early Monday morning when George Luther Goodhart passed away at his home in this place. For the past four weeks Mr. Goodhart had been more or less seriously ill with bronchial trouble and in that time suffered several hemorrhages which greatly reduced his vitality. The day preceding his death he was in excellent spirits and consented to accompany his son, James C., on a short auto trip. This was followed by a hearty supper and at an early hour he retired. At midnight on Sunday the family was awakened by his call, he requesting that the electric fan be started. His speech was very faint and was made with great effort. Another hemorrhage seized him and owing to his already weakened condition he was unable to survive the drain on his system. His entire family was at his bedside when the final summons came at 12:15 a. m. A son and a daughter from the west had been called home a few days preceding his death. While the seriousness of his condition was evident to many his sudden passing away was nevertheless a great shock to the community.

Mr. Goodhart was born near Potters Mills, March 28, 1845, hence was in his seventy-second year. He was a son of John and Martha Gregg (McEwen) Goodhart. He was one of a family of six children, the only surviving one being James M. Goodhart, of Lewistown. In early life he was with his father on the farm and taught school in the winter. On Feb. 10, 1870, he was united in marriage to Susan A. Evans, daughter of Evan and Mary Ann Evans. To this union were born five children: Anna M., wife of John Evans, of White, South Dakota; Ada J., wife of D. Wagner Geiss, of Bellefonte; James C., on the old homestead at Centre Hill; G. Bruce, of Orangeville, Ill., and Paul M., who died in infancy. Mr. Goodhart was a true Christian man, a member of the Sinking Creek (Centre Hall) Presbyterian church, and for over 40 years was an active elder in this church. His church was first and he was a most liberal contributor toward the different branches of its work. A letter of condolence from a former pastor says: "The home has been called upon to part with a loving husband and faithful father; the family has given up an honored head; the church has lost a devoted pillar; the community and county have parted with a good and active citizen."

Politically Mr. Goodhart was a staunch Democrat and served his party in various offices. For two terms he was County Commissioner in Centre county; he represented his party in State conventions, and held various local offices of honor and trust, all of which he filled with credit and honor. His Democracy was clean cut and his political convictions were deep rooted, at the same time being broad and liberal in his views.

The widow, the children named above, and the one brother survive him. Funeral services were held Wednesday morning at 10:30 o'clock at his late home and interment was made in the local cemetery, Rev. Day, of Alexandria, officiating. A large concourse of friends and relatives were in attendance and the floral tributes were many and beautiful.

A more detailed biographical sketch will appear next week.

Miller-McCormick.

Thursday, August 17th, at high noon, John Randall Miller, son of Dr. E. M. Miller, of Beavertown, and Jane Estella McCormick, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. S. S. McCormick, of Hutlerburg, were united in marriage at the home of the bride by the Rev. M. D. Geesey, of Aaronsburg. The beautiful ring ceremony of the Lutheran church was used. Byron Muser, of Millheim, was best man and Miss Rosaline McCormick, a sister of the bride, was maid of honor. The bride was dressed in taffets. The wedding march of "Hearts and Flowers" was played, while the contracting parties took their places before an altar of ferns and hydrangeas. After the ceremony, dinner was served, the young couple then leaving for Tyrone, Mt. Union, and other points.

The bride is a graduate of Susquehanna University, and the groom a graduate of the business and banking course of State College, and while a student at the institution played guard on the 1914 and 1915 football eleven. Since his graduation he is employed as a clerk in the Farmers National Bank at Millheim, where the young couple will reside in a home already furnished by the groom. The bride and groom were the recipients of some very valuable presents. Those present at the wedding were: Dr. and Mrs. S. S. McCormick and family, Dr. and Mrs. E. Miller and sons, Dr. and Mrs. G. S. Frank, and Mrs. Mary Miller, of Millheim; Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Kearns and son, of Beavertown, and Mrs. M. D. Geesey, of Aaronsburg.
