Blundering Forward.
In announcing his intention to support President Wilson, Thomas A. Edison says:
They say he has blundered. Perhaps he has. But I notice that he usually blunders forward.
There can be no more effective answer to the stereotyped criticism of the President. Mr. Wilson blunders at times, but he blunders forward, and blundering forward represents the highest achievements of the human race.
That is why Mr. Wilson is certain to rank among the greatest of all the Presidents of the United States.

LOCALS.
George Condo, of Forbes Road, Westmoreland county, is among the many visitors over the Encampment and Fair.

For Sale.—5-passenger Ford car; looks like new; in first-class running condition. Cheap.—W. S. Ard, Woodward, Pa.

W. S. Krise, daughter, Miss Ruth, and son Fred, of Johnstown, are spending the week with the former's parents, Prof. and Mrs. W. A. Krise.

Hon. William Allison, of Spring Mills, was taken to the Lock Haven hospital beginning of the week, where an operation for gall stones will be performed.

Last Friday night from seventy-five to one hundred young people from Tusseyville and surrounding country enjoyed a moonlight picnic in the woods on the Chas. E. Flink farm.

Mr. and Mrs. William Bradford and two children, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sheatz, all of Phoenixville, motored to Centre Hall on Sunday, the Bradford family to spend the week at the George Bradford home.

L. L. Smith, of the firm of Booser and Smith, local agents for automobiles; Calvin Breen and son Stewart, of Millheim, made a trip to Pittsburgh on Sunday and returned with two Ford automobiles, 1917 model.

Mr. Todd, traffic manager on this division of the Pennsy, came to Grange Park on Sunday to see how the Encampment and fair was progressing. He is a gentleman of fine appearance, and of fine qualities as well. Local R. R. agents Bradford and Lee took much pleasure in escorting him over the grounds and introducing him to the local men of affairs.

Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Heckman, daughter Miss Catherine, and Miss Tracy Kreamer, motored here from Johnstown in their big Cadillac car, Friday. The Heckman family returned the following day while Miss Kreamer remained until Monday. Mr. Heckman is at the head of the Penn Traffic store, "the biggest store between Philadelphia and Pittsburgh."

W. W. McCormick, of Potters Mills, enjoyed a four days' visit from his brother, Perry R. McCormick, of Denver, Colorado, who is employed by the Globe Smelting Company as head bookkeeper. This was his first trip east in twenty-nine years. He is making an extensive trip, stopping at Altoona, Potters Mills, Phoenixville, Philadelphia, New York, Scranton, Niagara Falls, Chicago and Tober, Iowa. Mr. McCormick was formerly from Potters Mills and enjoyed seeing his many old friends.

SUNDAYS SERVICES.

Large Auditorium Filled With Attentive Listeners to an Elevating and Inspiring Sermon—Splendid Music.

The services in the auditorium on Grange Park, Sunday afternoon, were the most delightful had in a number of years. The large auditorium was well filled, and everyone seemed to have entered into the spirit of the occasion.

The sermon was delivered by Rev. H. J. Traub, pastor of the Lutheran church at State College. His sermon was along lines particularly fitted for the day, and struck a responsive cord. The speaker's easy manner, and the fact that he held before his hearers throughout the entire discourse, a life with which they were familiar engaged the closest attention.

Prof. C. R. Neff, Master of the Centre county Pomona Grange, conducted the services.

A select choir rendered a number of choice selections, each of which was worthy of special mention. The choir was under the direction of Prof. E. W. Crawford and consisted of Mrs. C. W. Stover, Mrs. T. L. Moore, Mrs. George O. Benner, Mrs. John H. Puff, Centre Hall; Miss Margaret A. Way, Harry Lonberger, and Mr. Herman, State College. Rev. Traub also favored the audience with a solo that was highly enjoyed by every one who loves music. Solos were also rendered by Mrs. Stover, and Miss Grove, the latter a student at Selinsgrove.

Governor's Day.

Because Governor Brumbaugh and about one hundred and forty others from the various departments of Harrisburg, were scheduled to visit Grange Park on Tuesday, the day was termed Governor's Day. The Governor and his party fulfilled their part of the program to the letter, arriving here just a bit after the noon hour. After refreshing themselves at the table in the boarding house, the Governor made the initial speech of the Encampment and Fair. He was followed by Secretary of Agriculture Patton, Highway Commissioner Black, and the head of Workmen's Compensation Bureau.

Col. Woodward had the platform in charge, introducing the speakers by simply naming them and their official positions.

The Harrisburg party were making what was termed in their literature an "agricultural tour."

The Governor's Silly Remark

Governor Brumbaugh, in his remarks from the platform on Grange Park, on Tuesday, was indiscreet enough to make a silly remark in referring to the boys on the border. Speaking of the scarcity of labor he said, "more women were helping to harvest the crops today than for ten years, due to the unprecedented activity in industrial affairs caused by the European war, and the fact that 12,000 of the flower of the youth of Pennsylvania were on the border—for what? to sit in the sun."

The quotation, which is almost if not altogether literal, contains about as many misstatements and as silly a jibe at the President as a Governor could be capable of putting into that many words. The remark evoked no applause outside of a part of the 140 who accompanied the discredited official on his "agricultural tour."

Tusseyville Young Man Disappears.

Ralph Rankie, aged about twenty-two years, and a son of Mr. and Mrs. John L. Rankie, of near Tusseyville, disappeared from his home on Friday night and all efforts to locate him have been without avail. It is said that he wrote a note to a lady friend in which he hinted at self destruction. He left home on a bicycle, carrying with him his rifle. The bicycle was found by the roadside next day. The young man bears an excellent reputation and it is hoped that he may have changed his mind and return home.

Mad Bull wrecks Auto.

Attacked by a bull who objected to the bright hue of the automobile which he was driving, Charles Haseenplug, of Burnham, was dethroned from the driver's seat and his automobile sent to the repair shop with a broken windshield, runningboard and headlight, while one front tire was torn from the rim as the machine was thrown against a telephone pole.

Haseenplug was driving a bright red car, when the angry bull attacked him on the road near Liverpool; the animal was only slightly injured.

Where Hunting is Prohibited.

Pennsylvania hunters this year will be able to learn exactly where hunting is prohibited with greater ease than before. In the past notices have simply been posted in prescribed counties that hunting was illegal. This year each such notice will contain a list of all counties closed for game. Twenty-six counties, altogether, have asked the State Game Commission to prohibit certain hunting within their limits, under the Act of 1915. In some only deer are so protected. In others the protected game is more numerous.

Those Who Are Tenting.
