WARNING.

The speed ordinance for Centre Hall is being rigidly enforced. Automobile drivers who do not care to drop $12.75 into the hands of the local authorities should take warning.

For other reasons than for his pledge to vote for local option, it looks to the Reporter that of the two men—Mr. Gardner and Mr. Scott—the former would be the best suited to represent Centre county in the lower branch of the state legislature.

Our congressional district is a mighty big one, so you cannot expect the Democratic candidate for congress to see personally every voter. Mr. Tobias would be only too glad to reach each voter if it were possible, and if he could do so a lot of voters would forget that they ever met or even heard of Rowland, the present member in congress.

The outgrowth of a meeting of state leaders in the Democratic party at Philadelphia, a few days ago, was to go to work in the Keystone state to win it for Wilson. The attitude of a large number of working men in Pennsylvania toward the Wilson administration is such as to inspire great hope of overcoming the former large Republican majorities.

BURBANK OUT FOR WILSON,
"THE GREATEST STATESMAN"

Announcing his support of President Wilson, Luther Burbank, the horticulturist wizard of California, said: "I believe him to be the greatest statesman we have ever had."
Mr. Burbank, the Edison of scientific horticulture, declared that without reserve he endorsed the position announced a week earlier by Thomas A. Edison. Both Burbank and Edison have been life-long Republicans. Edison put it this way:

"Times are too serious to talk in terms of Republicanism or Democracy. When it's America that is at stake men have got to vote as Americans. A fool or a coward would have had the United States in all sorts of trouble. As it is, we are at peace, the country was never more prosperous, and we have the strength that comes with honor and integrity of purpose."

WOULD THE "CROOKS OF 1912"
LET HUGHES KEEP PLEDGES?

Candidate Hughes is running on a platform of promises. The safest—the only trustworthy—method of judging the future is by assessing the past. Candidate Hughes' promises should be weighed in the light of his past performances as an executive. Here are some of his promises made when he was a candidate for Governor of New York and set opposite them are his performances to correspond with them:

CANDIDATE HUGHES SAID:	GOVERNOR HUGHES DID:
"I believe in labor legislation and the great benefits that have flowed from the wise conduct of labor organizations."	Refused to appoint a practical railroad man to the State Public Service Commissions, although urged to do so by organized labor.
"I want to see fair justice done to everybody who works."	Vetoed the bill, giving women schoolteachers equal pay with men for equal work.
"Every practical measure for the real benefit of labor will have my support."	Vetoed the full-crew railroad bill.
"I promise the enforcement of the law with equal severity and in equal justice to all—corporations and individuals."	Vetoed bills urged by State Tax Commission to compel corporations to pay their franchise taxes promptly and to authorize the Tax Board to equalize special franchise tax valuations.
"The conditions of transportation in New York City are a shame and I purpose to find out the proper method of procedure and whether legislation or administrative action is necessary."	Vetoed Coney Island five-cent fare bill which would have saved the people of New York city $1,500,000 a year. Accomplished nothing to correct street-car overcrowding.
"I shall devote myself with renewed zeal to the people's service. My administration shall be an unbossed administration."	Blocked in his efforts by the bosses of his party, Gov. Hughes resigned in his second term to accept appointment to the United States Supreme Court.
Mr. Hughes is not the Republican party. He would be no more able to make good his promises as President than he was as Governor of New York. If he were elected President he could deliver only so much as the Republican bosses—the "Crooks" denounced by Roosevelt in 1912—would permit him to deliver.

FARMERS IGNORED BY REPUBLICANS

But Democratic Administration Quickly Gave Them Justice in Rural Credits.

Don't forget Mr. Farmer, that through your Farmers' National Congress, National Grange, National Farmers' Union, American Society of Equity, and similar organizations you have for years dominated and have impounded Republican administrations for legislation you needed.

WHAT DID YOU GET?
Through all the years since 1864 the Republican Party was deaf and blind to the farmer's financial needs. This in the face of the fact that successful systems of Rural Credits were in operation throughout Europe for a century. When this great Democratic measure was put to vote in the Senate on May 4, 1916, only five Republicans dared vote against it! Three of them were on the sub-committee who wrote the Republican Platform of 1916.

Was it because you were not Big Interests? You were, many of you highly financed, and High Finance held the mortgage—and to that extent you belonged to High Finance. But you paid big interest to associate with Big Interests. A stack of wheat wasn't as good collateral as a stock gambler. Nor did the Political Bosses of the Republican Party care to give you financial justice. They were too busy "protecting" themselves.

THE PROMISES OF THE DEMOCRATIC PLATFORM OF 1912—written in courage and honesty and with sympathetic understanding of the needs of every honest American interest—HAVE BEEN KEPT.

The Republican Party refused to do these things, which the prosperity of the American Farmer required.
The Republican presidential candidate, Charles E. Hughes, denounced the Democratic party and President Wilson for having done these things.

Where Does Your Interest Lie?
(From Farmers' Pamphlet issued by the Democratic National Committee.)

BURLESON'S "THREE STRIKE"

"The Democratic party seems to have enough capacity to run the Post Office Department. Postmaster General Burleson has deposited a check for $5,200,000 with Secretary McAdoo, being the profits of the fiscal year of 1916."

Sounds like a Democratic campaign orator, doesn't it?
But it isn't! It is the Philadelphia Public Ledger, a paper that is supporting Hughes, telling its host of readers about merely one of the deeds of the Wilson Administration.

Continues the Ledger:
"The Secretary of the Treasury replies that his department has experienced the sensation of receiving a postal surplus only three times, and those three times have been under the Administration of President Wilson and Mr. Burleson. But we have no hope that this will satisfy Mr. Hughes. He will tell the next audience he gets hold of that the service is not nearly so good as it used to be when Postmaster Generals were Republicans and there was a deficit every year, the amount being something over $17,000,000."

DEATHS.

Peter R. Auman, a highly respected citizen of Spring Mills, died at his home Friday morning after an all summer's sickness resulting from lead poisoning. He was a painter by trade. Deceased was a son of the late William Auman and was born in Gregg township sixty-seven years ago. The family to which he belonged numbered eighteen children, the majority of whom have passed away. The surviving brothers and sisters are, William, of Millheim; Frank, of Coburn; Uriah, of Zerby; Mrs. W. H. Blauser, of Potters Mills; Mrs. John Zerby and Mrs. James Barger, of Ohio. His wife was Emma Horner who survives with three children: Charles, of Lykens; Maud, at home, and Boyd, in Ohio.

Funeral services were held Tuesday morning in the Salem Reformed church, near Penn Hall, and burial made in the cemetery connected with the church, Rev. D. M. Geesey being in charge.

Spring Mills.

Born—on September 25th, to Mr. and Mrs. Harry Ulrich, a daughter, Jennie Huss, one of our "hello" girls, is visiting in Lewisburg.
Lloyd Smith and family spent Sunday at Potters Mills.
On account of the death of their father, Charles and Boyd Auman were both called home.
Rev. Martin and family of Logan ton visited the William Haney home on Thursday.

Rev. Brandt of Altoona preached a temperance sermon in the Reformed church on Sunday.

A. C. Confer, C. Austin Long, and William Meyer are jurors at Bellefonte court this week.

On account of the help being so hard to secure, George Breon, one of our prosperous farmers on the George Genzel farm for several years, will make sale of his farm stock and move into his own home.

By the death of Peter Auman the community has lost a good citizen. He was a quiet inoffensive man; his cheerful disposition won him the respect of all who came in contact with him. He never made a promise that he did not fulfill. As a workman he had few equals. He was a faithful member of the Lutheran church since childhood.

The Penrose machine is playing the boldest game in years. For United States Senator it is boosting P. C. Knox, the pet and idol of every privilege-seeking coporation and privilege-serving politician in the country, dollar-diplomat and Huerta-bro. For Auditor General it is pushing "Charley" Snyder, whose notorious pickle committee has made the State Senate the graveyard of every piece of legislation demanded by progressive workmen and lovers of clean politics for the generation. For State Treasurer it has chosen "Harmony" Kephart, the faithful errand-boy of Penrose, Crow and McNichol as chief clerk of the State Senate, whose ability to count twenty-six votes when there were only ten Senators in the chamber has given him a well-earned reputation for "far-sightedness." What devilment is the gang planning for the next four years?

BOALSBURG.

Mrs. B. B. Harrison and daughter spent Sunday at State College.

Mrs. Samuel Weaver and children are visiting relatives at Millheim.

George Houtz returned from his trip to Mt. Gretna.

Mr. and Mrs. William Coxe of Bellefonte visited at the home of Mrs. Nannie Coxe.

Mrs. Charles Fisher and son were entertained at the Ray D. Gilliland home at State College, last week.

Mr. and Mrs. James Reed, Oscar Stover and Howard Bricker were among the excursionists to Niagara Falls on Sunday.

Mr. William McGee of Humbert and daughter, Mrs. Johnson, of Philadelphia, visited Mrs. McGee's brother, John Charles.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Corl, Mrs. Edward Sellers, Mrs. E. M. Kuhn and daughter Mildred, Miss Della Isbler and Mr. and Mrs. John Close and children visited friends at Maitland on Sunday.

Mrs. L. E. Kidder and daughter, Miss Margareta Goheen, and Elmer Houtz and daughter, Myrtle, autoed to Williamsport last Wednesday to do some shopping. They returned home Thursday evening.

Harvest Home service will be held in St. John's Reformed church next Sunday morning at 10:15. Sunday school at 9 a. m. We hope parents and children will come to these services.—S. Chas. Stover, pastor.

Tuberculosis Week.

Tuberculosis Week in the United States will be observed from Dec. 3 to 10, according to a recent announcement by the National Association for the Study and Prevention of Tuberculosis.
During this week an effort will be made to enlist the co-operation of every church, school, anti-tuberculosis and public health organization, lodge, and working men's organization in the United States in an active effort to bring tuberculosis to the attention of the people.

Three special feature days will be held during the week. December 6 will be national medical examination day. December 8 will be children's health crusade day and December 9 or 10 will be observed, according to convenience of the churches, as tuberculosis day. Last year over 150,000 organizations and institutions took part in the Tuberculosis Week celebration.

The Introduction
—by Bell Telephone

There is a simple, yet definite and complete telephone introduction that is as courteous and as pleasant as the beginnings of a personal chat. Just try this, next time the bell of your office telephone rings.

Answer with your firm name and your own, as "Smith and Jones; Jones talking." The caller will reply "Brown and Robinson; Brown talking," and immediately the identity of both is pleasantly and fully established.

"Well?" or "Hello, who is this?" are obsolete and leave an unpleasant impression.
