SEPTEMBER COURT CONVENES.

Homicide Case Engages Court .- Panel of Forty Jurors Exhausted in Challenging Jury.

September sessions of Court opened Monday morning with President Judge Henry C. Quigley on the bench. The grand jury was called and P. E. Womelsdorf of Philipsburg selected as foremar.

The trial list for next week's civil court was taken up and owing to a number of the attorneys having to be before the Superior Court next week it left but one or two cases for trial, which was deemed by bench and bar as good cause for a continuance of the ding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. potatoes" always with us. whole week's court and a saving of Abraham Showers, at White Deer, on money to the county, and the whole Saturday. list went over to December term.

This case was tried at | The home of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Rose, September sessions, 1915, before the A motion made for a new trial was granted. The case is now to be re-tried. The defendants were arraigned and counsel is the same as reported in this paper a year ago, excepting that J. C. Furst is District Attorney in place of D. Paul Fortney. The Court at once proceeded to challenge a jury for the trial and eleven jurors were selected out of the panel of forty jurors and the twelfth juror was selected out of ten talismen called. The jury selected is as follows :

George E. Miller, butcher, Millheim, Alfred Rowan, farmer, Huston. W. H Meyer, farmer, Gregg. H. A. Elder, farmer, Ferguson P. A. Hoover, farmer, Taylor. Harry Lyon, foreman, Spring. John H. Miller, justice, Ferguson. B. F. Boal, engineer, Benner. Harry Miller, mechanic, Philipsburg, Edward Isenburg, clerk, Ferguson. J. G. Nolan, laborer, Walker. Isaac Horner, laborer, Philipsburg.

Just as the Reporter goes to press (Wednesday noon) the case is placed in the bands of the jury.
