LOCALS.

J. H. Miller's Sons, Tyrone, through their agents, M. S. Betz, of Jacksonville, and Harry T. McDowell, of Howard, have been buying wheat in Penna Valley during the past week.

Dr. L. E. Kidder and Samuel J. Wagner, of Boalsburg, were in town on Saturday, and took a peek at the mules in the Reporter's stable. Dr. Kidder owns several farms and is on the hunt of stock that will grow into good money.

W. Byron Garis and daughter Anna, on Saturday, went to Williamsport to have an examination made of the latter's eyes. The specialist reported an operation unnecessary, believing the defect can be remedied by the use of properly fitted glasses.

Miss Freda Bailey left on Tuesday morning for York and Philadelphia. At the former place she will attend the State S. S. convention and while in Philadelphia will be the guest of the Misses Elsie and Virna Gelsa. A brother, John Bailey, will also be visited.

Since farmers are beginning to husk corn, reports of good crops are coming in this way. Clyde Dutrow is credited as having as good, if not the best corn crop ever. Frank Gfrerer also has a good crop and quality. It appears corn that was planted early is turning out the best.

Messrs. John M. and Musser E. Coldren, on Sunday, went to Williamsport on the former's Indian motorcycle. The roads were found to be extremely dusty, except where oil had been used. Williamsport looked good to the young men, who looked over the inland city for the first time.

Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Krape and daughter Florence, Mr. and Mrs. Harry C. Reish, and Mrs. Kate Saunders, traveling in the Krape Dodge car, motored to Boalsburg, Pine Grove Mills, Tyrone and home by way of Unionville and Bellefonte, Sunday, leaving here near the noon hour and were home by five o'clock, having had a delightful trip.

Dr. H. F. Bitner, Joseph K. Bitner, and W. Cook Hubler spent the latter part of last week in the Sugar Valley narrows where the counties of Union, Clinton and Lycoming touch. The party was increased at Green Bury by the addition of Mr. and Mrs. John Emig at whose home headquarters were established during the few days stay. The object of the journey was to gather the famous Blue Mountain tea, which has been a part of the daily meal at the several homes for a number of years. The tea has a pungent odor and pleasing taste and is supposed to have medicinal properties.

A copy of "Our State Army and Navy Journal," devoted to the interests of the National Guard of Pennsylvania, reached our desk last week. The cover page carries a large photo of First Lieut. Theodore Davis Boal, of Boalsburg, who organized and equipped at his own expense the first machine gun troop of the organized militia of the United States. The first half dozen pages of the journal are devoted to a history of the gun troop, which is made up of Boalsburg, State College, and Centre Hall young men, and a number of striking photographs of the troop while at Mt. Gretna. The troop is now at El Paso, Texas.

William E. Snively, who was convicted at September court on a serious charge preferred by the father of an eleven-year old girl, living at Greenbriar, Penn township, was sentenced to the Western penitentiary and taken there last Monday to serve from three to five years. Snively posed as a pow-wow doctor and made a heap of trouble for Sheriff Yarnell while in his charge. A book of "recipes" for various ailments was found on Snively's person, and its contents were of the most ludicrous character. Happily, the class of people pinning faith on such rot are fast dying out. It is a relic of the dark ages and has no place in this age of enlightenment and progress.
