District and County Ticket.
FOR CONGRESS,
WILLIAM E. TOBIAS
FOR ASSEMBLY,
MITCHELL I. GARDNER

If you are for booze out and out, vote for Scott.

Regardless of your political convictions, any voter in Centre county who is a temperance man can vote and ought to vote for Mr. Gardner.

Mr. Tobias, if elected to congress, would not be engaged in other business to such an extent that he could not be at his post of duty when the workingman's interests are at stake.
Congressman Rowland voted only on about half the bills before congress.

No man who will vote for W. E.
Tobias for congress will have occasion to regret it. He was raised on the farm, taught school in various parts of Clearfield county, became superintendent of the schools of that county, all of which indicates he has the ability to serve in the office to which he aspires. Vote for him because he is just the kind of man who can be approached after he becomes a congressman in fact.

Hunting Notes.
Rabbits may be legally killed beginning next Wednesday morning.
Erdman West killed the limit of grey squirrels on Monday afternoon.
Archey W. Zettle of Pleasant Gap succeeded in killing a 10-lb. turkey on Friday.

killed a ten-pound wild turkey on Friday.

A. Krape ran into a bunch of wild turkeys on Nittany mountain last Thursday, but failed to get a shot.
Palmer Dreese bagged five greys and two pheasants on Tuesday morning, and returned home only because his ammunition ran out.

J. L. Goes of near Milroy won the enviable distinction on Friday of shooting a wild cat that he encountered in the mountain wilds near his home while tracking small game. The skin animal measured over two feet in body length. There is a bounty of $4 upon wild cats.

Temperance Workers at Tusseyville.
Five students from Pennsylvania State College will hold a temperance meeting in the Union church, at Tusseyville, Sunday evening next.
These young men are holding similar meetings in all parts of Centre county, and their program is said to be both varied and highly interesting. Ev ery-body is invited.

Wagner-Baupt.
On October 17th, at the Reformed parsonage in Boshsburg, by Rev. E. C.
Stover, Ernest A. Wagner, of Oak Hall, and Miss Marie K. Haupt, of home, where the groom has employment in the rubber mills.

evening—"Maid to Order"—a theatrical attraction that has made a real hit among theater goers. A rollicking comedy with spirited music. Don't miss it. See ad. for prices.

Monday, October 30th, evening only—"The Girl Without a Chance" —a play for the mothers; full of comedy, pathos, tears and laughter.
A model and fearless plea for the betterment of girls who are without parents and homes. See ad.

LOCALS.

Sunday-school convention at Farmers Mills, Friday, Nov. 10th.

Milton where he secured employment in a shell factory.

Mrs. Christine, widow of Rev. Christine, of Elysburg, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. T. L. Moore.

Miss Heler, of Bellefonte, spent Saturday and Sunday at the George H.
Emerick home.

ter, of Luxor, in the Pittsburgh district, visited relatives here and at Pleasant Gap the past week.

Mrs. Rosetta Luse and Mrs. Samuel Long, of Penns Cave, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Luse, on the Huyett farm, a few days last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Fair and son William, of Reading, spent from Saturday until Monday at the home of Mrs. Fair's brother, John Kresmer.

J. Frank McClellan is finding easy digging for the cellar of his new home, having come upon an old foundation of a house, apparently, at a depth of four feet.

The homes of Mrs. Mary Ross and Mrs. O. F. Funk were wired for electric light during the past week. On Wednesday work was begun on the Odd Fellows' store building.

Guy W. Jacobs witnessed the Penn-State football game at Philadelphia on Saturday which spelled defeat for his alma mater by the score of 16 to 0. He then came up to Centre Hall, spending Sunday and Monday with his mother.
Tuesday afternoon he returned to New York City where he will be employed for the winter in the repair of ice manufacturing machinery.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. McClenahan, of Potters Mills, motored to Union county last week, spending the time with relatives. Mr. McClenahan's big car recently underwent extensive repairs and during the time it remained at the garage Mr. McClenahan was called upon to make a number of big trips which necessarily had to be refused.
However, at present he is again in shape to take care of all touring parties.

Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Spangler, of Chicago, Illinois, are visiting the former's father, W. W. Spangler, in Centre Hall. Mr. Spangler is a representative of Fisher & Company, manufacturers of cigar boxes, which business is booming just at present. He views the campaign as being favorable to the election of Wilson, and gives as his opinion that in his home state many women will vote for the retention of President Wilson on the peace issue, and that the laboring class see in the president a willingness to deal square with them and consequently will to a very large extent support him.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Scholl and son of Altoona, on Tuesday, stopped at the home of the former's sister, Mrs. E. S.
Kremer, on their way to Lewistown, and while here paid his respects to the Reporter. Mr. Scholl for a long time has been connected with the Penn Central Electric company, with which concern has one of its three plants at Lewistown. The junior Mr. Scholl holds a position as chemist with the Astma Chemical company, Pittsburg.
Speaking of the prospect of Wilson's election, Mr. Scholl thinks that if conditions about Altoona can be judged from the President is a sure winner, and in his opinion ought to be.

A drove of seven deer—six does and a buck—was the pretty sight which presented itself to Frank Phillips, of Colyer, early Monday morning while on his way into the Seven Mountains where a force of men are engaged in mowing fire roads, under Forester Montgomery. The deer were partaking of their morning meal in the orchard on the David Geary farm, which is right in the heart of the best deer hunting country on the entire range.
There was only a moment's chance for admiring the beauty of the fleet-footed animal, but it nevertheless was a feast for the eyes of the early morning visitor, who thinks no such luck would be possible on the first day of December.

Just to show a New York businessman what a pretty drive in Pennsylvania really meant, I. L. Harvey, connected with the Orviston brick works, at Orviston, motored to Centre Hall on Monday afternoon, bringing with him Charles E. Fowler. Mr. Fowler represents the Czerlikow-Blonda Company, who have a battery of sugar refining plants in Cuba, one of the five of which is located at Fratisco, Cuba, having a plantation connected with it of 60,000 acres. A single plant turns out from 350,000 to 500,000 bags (380 lbs. per bag) of raw sugar per year.
His mission at Orviston was to hurry a consignment of an order for a million fire brick used in the construction of the sugar refineries. Speaking of the drive to Centre Hall, Mr. Fowler declared he had never in all his travels witnessed a prettier sight than was presented to him from the top of old Nittany.

The bride looked very beautiful in her is the youngest daughter of Mrs. (Dr.) J. F. Woods. Mr. Johnston is a grandson of Green Irvin (deceased)

Johnston, of Crafton. After the cere-relatives, a splendid bridal dinner was served. The couple were taken to Bellefonte in an auto by her cousin, Matthew Goheen and wife, where they took an east bound train for an extended wedding trip, after which they will return to Crafton where they will
